Hunt Man to Oppose Kinkaid.

A meeting of the democratic committee of the Sixth district was held at Grand Island Tuesday for the purpose of selecting a man to oppose Congressman Kinkaid, but the meeting adjourned without taking definite action. The two men who were considered as candidates were Grimes, county superintendent of Custer county, and Attorney Frank Taylor, of St. Paul, but no decision was made in the case of either of the two.

It was the opinion of those attending the meeting that Congressman Kinkaid is too strong to be defeated, and that the democrat who makes the race is simply throwing away his time and money.

WHO'S WHO.

S. M. Souder.

Sam M. Souder, who seeks the republican nomination for county treasurer, has spent practically all his life in Lincoln county, his father having located in Deer Creek precinct in an early day. When reaching young manhood he attended the Hastings college. He later returned to Deer Creek precinct and engaged in farming and school teaching. When Albert Durbin was elected county treasurer he selected Mr. Souder as assistant treasurer, a position which he has held for over four years. After these four years of association in the duties of the office, Mr. Durbin says: "I give my unqualified endorsement of Mr. Souder. He is very efficient, careful, and in every way capable of performing the duties of county treasurer. He thoroughly understands the work in every detail, and I have always found him a most trustworthy and reliable man. I cheerfully commend him to the favorable consideration of the voters of Lincoln county and assure them that if they elect him county treasurer they will make no mistake." Coming from his employer, this is certainly a strong endorsement, and all will admit that Mr. Souder is an efficient man. The fact is that every one who is acquainted with Sam Souder knows that he is a mighty capable, industrious man, and has a record for integrity and courteousness of which he may well feel proud.

A. S. Coates.

The latest candidate to announce himself through the columns of The Tribune is A. S. Coates, of Sutherland, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for county commissioner from the Third district. Mr. Coates came to western Nebraska in 1885, locating with his parents on a homestead south of Paxton. In 1896 he came to North Platte and entered the service of the Union Pacific as fireman, was later promoted to engineer, and was with the company for thirteen years. For two or three years he was associated with mercantile houses in North Platte, and for four years past he has been in the employ of a lumber firm at Sutherland. It will thus be seen that Mr. Coates' experience in business has been varied and this naturally has given him a wide insight into general conditions of the county. During his long residence in North Platte he was well liked and always bore a good name. He is a man who would give the office of county commissioner his best efforts and there is no doubt that his official actions would always be on the square.
