MARCH, THE GATEWAY

March, 1916, opens the gates to another season of farm operations.

May it be a season of good growing conditions, diligent and intelligent labor, bounteous crops,—for every farmer in this community.

Farming and banking are so closely related that it is scarcely necessary to explain our interests in seeing our farmers prosper. Each are important to the welfare of this commonwealth and we are ready at all times to assume our part in advancing the best business and financial interests of those we serve.

Every Dollar Expended For Lumber Is Well Invested

The buildings you construct with the lumber you buy, mean not only economy in the conservation of crops, machinery and stock, but add to the equipment and value of the farm.

Lumber purchased for repairs, is an especially wise purchase, as its use prevents the buildings from deteriorating in value and usefulness.
