A SERMON ON LUMBER

In conclusion my friends, we can't get away from this lumber question.

Why, every one of us spent our first days in a cradle made of lumber. Our lives have been lived between walls of two by fours and lath, with rafters over our heads, and matched flooring beneath our feet. We have been sitting in wooden chairs, eating from wooden tables, riding in wooden wagons, and in the course of time will be laid to rest in wooden casket.

COL. CODY'S SHOW TO OPEN APRIL 22d.

Colonel W. F. Cody passed through town the early part of the week enroute to Denver from New York. For two months he had been in New York engaged in writing a story of the growth and advancement of the country once designated as "the plains." This story is 126,000 words in length and the first installment will be published in the June number of Hearst's Magazine. It will later be published in book form.

While east Col. Cody also made arrangements for the opening of his Wild West and Far East show, which will occur at Oklahoma City April 22d. One feature of the show will be a wonderfully large panorama of the war in Europe, showing the movement of troops on the battle field, the firing of the big guns, carrying the dead and wounded from the field, the work of the airships, in fact the scenes of the war will be carried out in detail.

Recently Col. Cody was offered a pot sum for his lots in the Cody additions, but he declined, saying that he preferred to have some interest in North Platte, the town which was his home for so many years.

Drama Sermon at Baptist Church. Sunday night John L. Barton will give one of his drama sermons at the Baptist church. This sermon will deal with the question of license or no license.

There are ten characters in the drama and Mr. Barton will personate each of them. The message is divided into five scenes leading up to a grand climax which every one should witness.

This boozing sermon will give every one a square deal, the saloon-keeper, business man and laborer. It will pay everyone to hear it. Special music has been provided.
