Don't Take Up Your Rugs

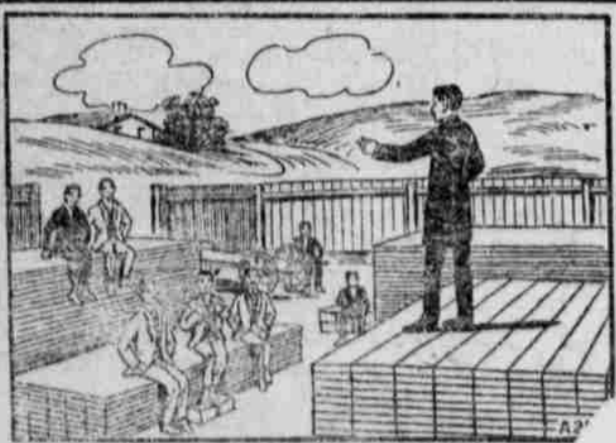

or move your furniture to have your house wired

Our electricians are neat and gentlemanly and they know how to work without dust, dirt, noise or confusion. In no case is it necessary to take the furniture out of a room or cover up the pictures or bric-a-brac. You hear the saw and hammer when a piece of closet or attic floor is being moved but that is all. The small chunks of plaster from the tiny holes where the wires go through are caught as they fall. When the job is finished not a trace remains but the dainty fixtures, switches and receptacles and the wonderful convenience of electricity.

We have attractive booklets telling just how it is done and an estimate telling of the cost will place you under no obligation.

A SERMON ON LUMBER

In conclusion my friends, we can't get away from this lumber question.

Why, every one of us spent our first days in a cradle made of lumber. Our lives have been lived between walls of two by fours and lath, with rafters over our heads, and matched flooring beneath our feet. We have been sitting in wooden chairs, eating from wooden tables, riding in wooden wagons, and in the course of time will be laid to rest in wooden casket.

A MAJORITY DECREES NORTH PLATTE DRY

By a majority of ninety-one, the electors at Tuesday's election decreed that North Platte shall be "dry." The result was obtained through splendid organization of the dry forces and the fact that railroad employes joined more heartily in the movement than ever before.

By wards the vote was: First ward 208 for, 183 against; Second ward 84 for, 148 against; Third ward 160 for, 183 against; Fourth ward 172 for, 201 against. The total vote on the proposition was 1,339, showing that the drag net was well used in getting voters to the polls.

For councilmen T. M. Cohagen was elected in the First without opposition; in the Second J. M. Knox was elected, receiving ninety-six votes while E. W. Mann received seventy-seven and W. J. Tiley fifty-six; in the Third Harry Porter was re-elected over D. A. Russell, the former receiving 182 and the latter 147; in the Third Allie Bell was re-elected, receiving 125, while W. H. Ingles received 120 and Chas. Lierk 107.

O. E. Elder for city clerk and A. F. Streitz and Leslie Baskins for members of the board of education were elected without opposition.

Last year the town went wet by eighty-six in a total vote of 935. As many who voted Tuesday are opposed to local option but favor state-wide prohibition, The Tribune believes that at the November election the prohibitory amendment will have a majority of not less than 250 in North Platte and that the majority in the county will not fall short of 800. Those are the figures The Tribune which will support the amendment has placed as the minimum mark it desires to see. If the majority is greater, all the better. "All Nebraska dry in 1916; the entire nation dry in 1925"—that's the slogan. Fall in line early.

FREE ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

Trainmaster Adams has secured the Keith theatre for the evening of Tuesday, April 11, for a lecture by a representative of the American Railway Association on the "safe handling and transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles". The lecture will be illustrated with the aid of stereopticon views and is for the benefit of railroad employes and shippers. A big attendance is anticipated as these lectures are not only interesting and instructive but highly entertaining as well. Lecture will begin at 7:30 p. m. Admission will be by ticket and is free. Tickets may be had upon application to any officer of the Union Pacific.

LONE BANDIT HOLDS UP OVERLAND LIMITED

Union Pacific Overland Limited No. 1 was held up by a lone bandit at Corlett Junction, five miles west of Cheyenne, early Tuesday evening. Passengers were relieved of $450. The bandit escaped, but a large posse is in pursuit.

The bandit appeared in the aisle of one of the Pullmans about 9 o'clock shortly after the train had left Cheyenne. No one in the car appeared to know how the robber entered, and attention was first called to his presence when he began to call for valuables from the passengers, flourishing a revolver to enforce his demands.

After he had collected about $450 in cash, according to Union Pacific officials, he disappeared from the rear coach.

In general, officials, said the bandit answers the description of the man who within the last few weeks held up Union Pacific trains near Green River, Wyo., and Ogden, Utah. He was described as of medium weight, wearing a mackinaw coat, and was apparently about twenty-five years of age.

General Chairman Kanold of the B. of L. E., returned to his home in Laramie yesterday morning after transacting business here with the local engineers.

WONDERFUL INCREASE IN RECEIPTS OF POSTOFFICE

The sale of stamps at the North Platte postoffice for the year ending March 31 1916, was in round numbers twenty thousand dollars. This is a gain of twelve per cent over the fiscal year of 1914-15 and a gain of one hundred per cent in the past seven years.

The receipts for last month were about one hundred per cent greater than in March, 1915. This was largely due to the large amount of campaign literature that has been mailed out from the Neville headquarters and by county candidates.

That the receipts of the office have increased one hundred per cent in seven years is certainly a wonderful showing; an average increase of a fraction over fourteen per cent for each year.

Receipts of a postoffice are usually taken as an index of the growth of a community and this certainly makes a favorable showing for the growth of North Platte.

A North Platte man who returned from Omaha yesterday, says all Omaha Wednesday was placarded with signs reading: "North Platte Repudiates Keith Neville." The Bryan element was not slow, as was anticipated, in making political capital out of North Platte going dry.

You can save twenty per cent on the dollar by purchasing your Easter suit or coat at Block's Anniversary sale which starts Saturday.

Brady went wet by sixteen votes. This means that the road to Brady will be a popular summer evening drive for a certain class of North Platte men.

Ed Hostetter, living south of Maxwell spent Wednesday in town. He says he never saw winter wheat in that section look better than it does this spring.

PROHIBITION SENTIMENT GROWS.

Reports from 168 towns participating in the wet and dry issue Tuesday, show that seven went from dry to wet and twenty-two changed from wet to dry. Sidney went dry by one vote; last year there were thirty-six majority for the wets. The above changes show the growing sentiment in favor of state-wide prohibition which we predict will be carried by 25,000 majority at the November election.

The Drovers Journal-Stockman cites a peculiarity of the hog market. For instance, six years ago there was a hog famine and the price was around $10.00. This year, notwithstanding the biggest winter run in the history of the trade, hogs are heading straight toward the $10.00 mark again. Which goes to show that what we call the natural laws of trade are set entirely at naught sometimes.—Kearney Hub.
