WHO'S WHO.

E. S. Davis.

No man is better known in Lincoln county than E. S. Davis, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for county treasurer. Mr. Davis filled the position for four years, and made a record that was certainly enviable. He inaugurated a number of changes in the office that redounded to the interests of the tax-payers, and so conducted the affairs of the office as to gain the good will of all. Mr. Davis has the ability, is courteous and obliging and has many friends who will strongly support him.

Cyrus Russell.

Cyrus Russell, who seeks the democratic nomination for sheriff, has been a resident of Lincoln county for about fifteen years. He came to the county and as a farmer located south of the river. Later he came to North Platte and worked as a blacksmith, a trade he had mastered, and later opened a shop which he has since conducted. Cyrus is a resolute, active man, with a heart corresponding in size to his stature, popular among all classes of our people and a good mixer. For the past year or two he has been chief of the North Platte fire department and has well filled the position.

Geo. N. Gibbs.

Geo. N. Gibbs, the present county attorney, seeks a re-nomination from the democratic party, and will no doubt make a strong race against his competitor, Judge Grant. During his incumbency of the office Mr. Gibbs has had many state cases, and in all fairness it must be said that he has been very successful in these prosecutions, and through his efforts in securing evidence and conducting cases, quite a large number have been convicted and several are serving sentences in the penitentiary. The most notable conviction secured was that of Roy Roberts, charged with the murder of Connett. Mr. Gibbs is rated high as an attorney, is industrious in his work, and is as honest as the day is long.

Geo. E. Prosser.

George E. Prosser, clerk of the district court, seeks the republican nomination for that office, and as he has no opposition within his party he will be the republican candidate at the November election. Mr. Prosser has lived in Lincoln county for twenty-five or more years, first locating on a farm in Plant precinct. Later he came to North Platte and for several years was employed in mercantile houses. He has been clerk of the court for a number of years, and the records of the office are evidence of his ability as a thorough clerk and accountant, and the carefulness with which he transacts the business. His years of experience in the office has given him a good legal training, which is necessary in performing the duties of the office in the best manner. We believe the voters of Lincoln county are well satisfied with Mr. Prosser's conduct of the office and will re-elect him by a big majority.

STOECKER WITHDRAWS

W. F. Stoecker, of Omaha, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, withdrew from the race last week, leaving Keith Neville and Prince Charley Bryan as the contestants.

This simplifies the contest, and as the withdrawal of Stoecker means more votes for Neville than it does for Bryan, it looks very bright for the North Platte man.

The Neville headquarters in this city have been receiving very encouraging reports of the campaign during the past week, and Colonel Richmond is confident of the success of Mr. Neville.

GOOD CAUSE FOR ALARM

These Figures Will Make North Platte People Take Notice.

Deaths from kidney disease have increased 72 per cent in twenty years. People overdo nowadays in so many ways that the constant filtering of poisoned blood weakens the kidneys. Beware of fatal Bright's disease. When backache or urinary ills suggest weak kidneys, use Doan's Kidney Pills, live carefully, take things easy and avoid heavy eating. Doan's Kidney Pills command confidence, for no other kidney remedy is so widely used and so generally successful. Home endorsement is the best proof of merit. Read this North Platte resident's story:

George W. Weinberger, 109 West Ninth street., North Platte, says: "Some years ago I became afflicted with kidney trouble and suffered with agonizing pains through my back. I gradually grew worse, became stiff and lame and on account of losing my rest at night, was all run down. My kidneys did not do their work properly. After I had taken six boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was cured."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Weinberger had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, New York.

WALTER A. GEORGE, REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

Walter A. George has been abundantly tried in the service of the city, county and state, having served as mayor of Broken Bow, treasurer of Custer county two terms, and state treasurer of Nebraska four years, and his record as a public servant is proof of his belief that "public office is a public trust." His record in the office of state treasurer affords sufficient evidence of his fitness for the office of governor and of his abilities as an administrative officer. He stands for efficient and economical administration. He has declined to permit himself to be coupled as a partisan either for or against the prohibition amendment, which is to be properly disposed of under the initiative and referendum law and not a political question, but in due time will if nominated stand upon the platform of his party to be adopted on the last Thursday in July. He points to his record as mayor in the enforcement of the liquor laws, and disclaims any charge that he is a candidate of the "wet" interests. With a statewide acquaintance and reputation, he is especially well known in Central Nebraska, as a resident of Buffalo and Custer counties from 1871 to the present time, his people being members of the original "homestead colony" which located at Gibbon in 1871.

AN INTERESTING LETTER

From the Argus of Red Cloud

In these days when we are frequently told that laws cannot be enforced it is rather refreshing to read of an example where a public officer has determined to see that they are obeyed regardless of consequence, and as a result has succeeded. If we may accept the statements made in a letter published in Sunday's State Journal Walter A. George, formerly of Broken Bow, is a man of that type. The letter follows:

BROKEN BOW: Neb., Feb. 4.—To the Editor of the State Journal: I have your letter of the 21st pertaining to the record of Walter A. George on the prohibition question. You say in your letter that you understand that he took a position on the enforcement of the law when he was mayor of Broken Bow that may be of service to the people of the state in deciding whether he is proper material for governor. Your understanding is correct. I have known Mr. George for twenty-six years and twenty years of that time has been of the most intimate sort of acquaintance and a great portion of the time is such a relation of client and attorney; in 1906 Mr. George was elected mayor of this city, he served as mayor three consecutive terms, during each of the terms I was his city attorney.

At the mass convention held in the spring of 1906, and at which Mr. George was nominated, the convention determined that no license should issue. Mr. George at that time declared that he would submit to the will of the people as expressed in the convention and that he would enforce the law and carry out to the best of his ability the wish of the people; he was elected on that issue and among his other appointments he appointed myself as city attorney and his first instructions to me was, quoting his own words as nearly as I can, "Gadd, I want you to enforce the liquor law and do everything that you can do as an attorney to see that there is no liquor sold in Broken Bow and to prosecute regardless of person or expense and if the city has not the money with which to prosecute come to the bank and get whatever is needed." Prior to his administration Broken Bow was visited by what I call whiskey peddlers, and they would ship whiskey into Broken Bow by the jug and in bottles until our depot was a liquor store house, this liquor we confiscated under his instructions, and in order to get at the whiskey, peddlers and solicitors, at Mr. George's request, I drafted the ordinance a copy of which I herein hand to; this ordinance is the first of its kind in this state and it conflicted with what is termed interstate commerce, we knew that, but we went on the theory that we would prosecute, and it would cost the peddlers so much to defend that they would quit visiting us and we would thereby get rid of that nuisance. I explained this matter to Mr. George and told him that the city would be held for costs if the case was appealed and his instructions to me were, "It makes no difference what the costs may be I will pay it out of my own pocket, if this sort of proceeding will get rid of the nuisance." By this manner of proceeding his administration succeeded in getting rid of the booze selling in Broken Bow.

In the midst of his work Mr. George as mayor, removed the star from his marshal and did so in the presence, because the officer used liquor and he made the remark at the time: "No officer can serve in my administration and use liquor."

Mr. George not only enforced the liquor law, but all other laws and did it impartially and courageously and not only was the enforcement of the liquor law confined to the city of Broken Bow, but used me as his attorney to get liquor that was shipped into the town of Berwyn and also Oconto and Ansley and some other places within the county, and he did this during all the time that he served as mayor and his rigid enforcement and tireless prosecutions during his first term as mayor removed the pest of whiskey solicitors in Broken Bow.

Under the promise that Mr. George has made that he will enforce the law, be that whatever it may be, if elected to the office of governor of the state, there is no question in the world but that he will be one of the most vigorous officials that this state ever had. He is absolutely without fear of consequence when he is acting in official capacity and will carry out the law to the letter as nearly as he can, whether the law meets with his individual opinion or not.

If this letter conveys to you what you desire I shall be very glad indeed, if it does not I can, with more care go into details. Your truly, N. T. GADD.
