

Eye comfort for reading and distance

KRYPTOK Glasses are a wonderful convenience to middle-aged men and women who wear glasses.

You can see both near and far objects through KRYPTOKS with equal distinctness. Yet KRYPTOKS cannot be distinguished from single-vision glasses.

KRYPTOK GLASSES
THE ONLY INVISIBLE BIFOCAL

and the nuisance of removing your reading glasses every time you look across the room or at a distance. They relieve the tiring strain upon your eyes caused by frequently looking through your reading glasses, at objects three or four feet away.

KRYPTOKS are solid lenses without seam, line, or blur. They are the only bifocals with smooth even surfaces—no age-revealing, vision-blurring lines, seams, or shoulders.

CLAUDE P. FAULKNER DIES AFTER A SHORT ILLNESS.

Claude P. Faulkner died suddenly at his home in the Fourth ward Sunday afternoon of Bright's disease. While affected at times by this disease Mr. Faulkner's condition was not considered serious and his faithfulness in his work and cheerful disposition dispelled any fears of his condition, therefore his death came as a shock to his associates and fellow workmen to whom he never complained. He attended a meeting of the Knights Templar Friday evening and was elected to the office of commander and at this time seemed to be in good health.

The following day he was taken ill and obliged to discontinue work and hourly became weaker until the end came at three o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The funeral services will be held from the residence, 321 west Twelfth street, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30, and be conducted by Dean Bowker. Interment will be made in the North Platte cemetery.

The deceased was born in eastern Illinois in October, 1875. On October 6th, 1896, he was married to Miss Margaret Selmons who survives him. To this union were born five children, Gertrude, age eighteen, Morron, age sixteen, Richard, age fifteen, Paul, age three and Claudius age sixteen months. Mr. Faulkner came to this city in 1902 and has been employed as chief engineer of the electric light company for a number of years. He was a member of the Masonic and A. O. U. W. lodges and a communicant of the Episcopal church.

Mr. Faulkner was a valuable and capable employe, a staunch friend, public spirited citizen and very devoted to his family and aged mother who has been afflicted with blindness for many years and has made her home with him.

April Was Dry and Cold

The monthly summary issued by the local weather bureau shows last month to have been a cold and dry April. The mean temperature was forty-eight degrees, which is one degree below the average for forty-two years, and seven degrees colder than April, 1915.

The precipitation for the month was twenty-two one hundredths of an inch, as compared with seven and one-tenth inches for the same month last year. The normal precipitation for April is 2.15 inches.

There were only four days during the month that had 100 per cent of sunshine.

NOT MUCH DISORDER WHEN SALOONS CLOSE

One Place Did not Open Saturday and the Other Five were Pretty Well Sold Out by Eight O'clock.

North Platte began its career as a saloonless town Sunday morning, and this for the first time in its history. It is true there was one year in the early days when no licenses were issued, but the saloons kept open and dispensed liquor under assumed names.

Anticipating the final close up of the six saloons pushed the sale of their goods as rapidly as possible, and many case lots of liquor and beer were sold to town as well as country residents. The Healey place closed Friday night, having practically disposed of the entire stock, the other five places closed promptly at eight Saturday night, each having reduced the stock more than was anticipated. John Den and C. T. Whelan had the most goods remaining, this being due to the fact that they carried the heaviest stocks.

The saloons closed with comparatively little disorder. About a dozen fellows who were intoxicated and were shoved out on the streets when eight o'clock came, whooped 'er up for about fifteen minutes, but the five officers were on hand and the turbulent fellows were soon quieted.

C. T. Whelan removed his liquors Saturday night and yesterday morning opened up his pool hall and will dispense soft drinks and cigars in the room formerly occupied by the bar. Jimmie Dugan and Theo. Eirland will remain in charge.

The rooms occupied by the other places will be vacated as soon as the fixtures can be removed.

Leaves Nothing to be Desired

Here's a home to be proud of! Notice how pleasing the exterior appearance is. It's simple, yet not too plain.

Now look at the first-floor plan. Doesn't it just about tell the whole story for a complete arrangement of rooms downstairs?

The living room and dining room are fine large rooms opening into each other. The pantry and kitchen are arranged to the housewife's convenience—they save many a step in the daily work of preparing the meals. All the rooms are well lighted and well ventilated.

Come in and let us show you the second floor plan of this home. We can also show you designs of other modern homes that can be built at a very reasonable cost.

It's no obligation on your part. Our complete plan illustrations are at your disposal.
