OREGON TRAIL MONUMENT DEDICATORY EXERCISES

Three monuments marking the Oregon trail in Lincoln county were formally dedicated at a meeting held in this city Saturday afternoon. This meeting, held on the court house lawn, was largely attended, the greater number of those present coming from the country.
Judge Hoagland presided at the meeting and first introduced Mr. Harvey, of Lincoln, whose first visit to North Platte was forty-seven years ago. In his presentation address he told of the location of the Oregon trail through Nebraska, which passed through this section just south of the river, of the efforts which had been made to mark this famous trail to the northwest, and stated that it is estimated that more than 3,000,000 people passed over it from the days of Marcus Whitman until the advent of the railroads.
T. C. Patterson, in behalf of the county, accepted the monuments in brief remarks in which he referred to the wonderful growth of the west since the days of Oregon Trail travel.
H. M. Rushnel, of Lincoln, representing the state historical society, spoke at some length on the historical features of Nebraska and how they should be preserved; of the sturdiness and honesty of the pioneers; the effect they had upon the settlement of the west, and in closing appealed to his auditors to keep alive the memory and deeds of the people who blazed the trail for civilization.
Governor Morehead was next introduced, and spoke of the prosperity of Nebraska, the savings that had been effected during his incumbency of the office, and the need of electing good, honest men to office. He briefly referred to the candidacy of Keith Neville in complimentary terms.

Entertain at Pre-nuptial Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Donegan entertained the Schram-Donegan bridal party and a number of immediate relatives at a pre-nuptial dinner Sunday evening. Twenty-five guests were present. The table was beautifully decorated with a large center-piece of American Beauty roses and bordered with smilax. The German flower, the white iris was used in honor of the nationality of the groom and the shamrock was used in abundance as a tribute to the bride-to-be. The young people will be married early Wednesday morning and leave for South Dakota to spend their honeymoon with relatives.

Danes Will Celebrate
Peter Jepson, of Fox Creek, was in town yesterday inviting people of Danish parentage, as well as others, to attend a bazaar which will be held at the Danish Lutheran church in Fox Creek June 6th. June 5th is the Danish national holiday, and it was the intention to hold the bazaar on that date, but the speakers could not be secured, and the event was postponed until the following day, June 6th. Among the speakers will be Rev. Sorenson, of St. Paul and Rev. Smith of Mason City.

Sues for Divorce
Homer F. Fort has filed his petition in the district court praying for a divorce from Nina Fort to whom he was married June 24th, 1912, at Cherokee, Iowa. The charge is cruelty. The plaintiff states that the defendant was a woman of unusual beauty and would stand in the doorway of their home to attract men who were passing and when advised not to do so would strike and abuse plaintiff and use profane language and also that she refused to reside with him.

Lochiel Johnston received word that a brother at Grand Rapids, Mich., had suddenly passed away. This news was especially sad as the brothers had not met for several years and Mr. Johnston was expecting to make him a visit within a few weeks.

Take medicine for eye-strain headaches and you do yourself injury. Remove the CAUSE and the EFFECT with proper glasses. C. S. CLINTON, Registered Optometrist, the sign with the Big Ring.

Mrs. John Oestrich entertained a score of friends the latter part of last week in honor of Mrs. F. D. Westfield who received many beautiful gifts. The occasion was the anniversary of her fifty-seventh birthday.

Attorney-General Reed, of Lincoln, spent yesterday in town looking up certain phases of irrigation work. He was enroute to Lincoln from Scotts Bluff, where he had been on a similar mission.

Master Floyd Harris returned from Lexington where he finished his school term. He was accompanied here by Miss Faye Davidson who will leave shortly for Tryon to visit her sisters.

Methodist aid society will be entertained next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. S. Davis, assisted by Mesdames Will Reynolds, J. E. Evans, Aldrich and F. Farmer.

Mrs. Edward Ogier and Mrs. Leonard Dick will entertain at afternoon parties at the home of the former on Thursday and Friday of this week.

Miss Emma B. Smith, principal of the Lincoln schools, left the latter part of last week for Farley, Iowa, to spend the summer with relatives.

NORTH PLATTE, NEB.

LINCOLN LEAGUERS WILL BE HERE THURSDAY.

The Lincoln ball team of the western league will play the local team Thursday afternoon, the game to be called at three o'clock. While North Platte does not have a Western League quality team, it has a team that can make it interesting for any of the Western Leaguers, and those who think that the visitors will put in their weakest players or not play their best are greatly mistaken in their views. They will find when the game has been played that the Links has by no means a walk-away. North Platte is playing just as good ball today as do some of the Western League teams three days out of six.

The local management is under heavy expense in securing the Lincoln team, and it is hoped that the attendance will be large.

"The Money Master."
George Klein's latest film masterpiece "The Money Master" which visits the Keith theatre next Thursday is a rare example of modern feature film production. "The Money Master" is conspicuous among dramas of its kind for several reasons. It features an all star cast which includes Frank Sheridan, Fania Marinoff, Paul McAllister and Malcolm Duncan—all stars whose names have graced the electric signs of Broadway at various times. The story is beautifully told by those accomplished players who have been surrounded by every aid that genius could invent and money purchase. The interiors are elaborately magnificent and the glimpses of life in New York convincing and powerful.

Banks Buys Stock.
W. T. Banks purchased at public auction yesterday forenoon the residue of the stock of the former Fashion Shop. The greater part of the stock had been closed out last week at a private sale held by Receiver E. S. Davis, and the stock remaining was largely odds and ends. Mr. Banks also purchased the furnishings that had not previously been sold.

"DOLLAR DAY" A BIG SUCCESS SAY MERCHANTS

The Tribune man has talked with nearly all the merchants who participated in "Dollar Day" Saturday and each one pronounced it an unqualified success, the sales for the day being greatly in excess of the average Saturday. The bulk of the sales, however, did not come from the articles advertised at one dollar, but these dollar offerings attracted the buyers to the stores and when once there they purchased not only the dollar articles but more expensive articles as well.

There was a large crowd of country folk in town, the "Dollar Day," the Eighth Grade Graduation Exercises and the Oregon Trail Memorial exercises all contributing to the presence of the more than ordinary number of Saturday visitors.

The Permanent Hog House
No Other Building on the Farm Pays For Itself So Quickly
A Government expert says that "Good hog men average about seven pigs raised to the litter. Many do better. But the general average raised on the farm does not exceed four pigs to the litter."
This big difference is largely in the housing. The question is not so much a matter of cost as the proper design of a hog house. Many hog houses cost enough to be good, but are entirely unfit because the sun cannot shine into the pens. Sunshine and ventilation are absolutely necessary.
On the other hand, inexpensive houses often give better results than more costly ones—because of the better design.
The design is what counts. Here's where we can help you.
