FORD LICENSES GREATER THAN OTHERS COMBINED

You may hoot at the Ford, you may get off your punning jokes on the Ford, but when it comes to selling an automobile the Ford is the popular car. No, we are not selling cars, neither is Bill Hendy paying for what is here written—this is just a news item recording the fact that during the month of June the total number of licenses issued for new cars in Lincoln county was forty-three, and of these twenty-eight went to purchasers of Fords. In other words more licenses were issued to Ford buyers than to purchasers of all other makes combined. That's some idea of the popularity of the Ford—the general utility car for western Nebraska.

Cash, Carranza and the Future.

Now we are to be given the first glimpse of the final act of the farce of "watchful waiting." Carranza's poverty-stricken government is to make a settlement with the United States, and in return the Federal Reserve banks, or some similar agency will be permitted to loan the de facto government funds on which to operate. This isn't bribery in any sense, merely a neighborly act to assist the unfortunates across the gorder. Back of it all lies a far more weighty responsibility than is involved in helping Carranza out of a temporary difficulty. The European powers, gleefully recognizing the Monroe doctrine, kept their hand off all through the Mexican turmoil, from its beginning until now, putting the whole question squarely up to the United States. This means but one thing, that all claims held by foreigners against Mexico will in good season be presented to the United States for settlement. It may be that President Wilson did not fully realize the tremendous responsibility he assumed for this country when he interfered with Huerta, and secretly espoused the cause of the rebels, but he took that responsibility and the United States will be forced to abide by his actions or recede from the Monroe doctrine and see Mexico dismembered as China has been.

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC AT MAXWELL.

There will be a big picnic in a grove near Maxwell Friday, July 21st, on the occasion of the Lincoln County Sunday school convention. This picnic and convention is for all. All who attend are asked to bring well filled baskets, and go prepared to stay all day and hear W. H. Kimberly and Miss Margaret Brown of the State Sunday School Association. Miss Brown will give a brief history of her trip around the world, and relate her experiences in Korea and Japan. This lecture will be given in the evening and will be illustrated with stereopticon views. The convention will commence at 10 a. m. and continue throughout the afternoon and evening.

Sunday schools in all parts of the county are expected to send delegations. In localities where Sunday schools are not running at present, come anyway and learn what is being done in the great Sunday school work in Lincoln county and all over the country.

We want the fifty Sunday schools of Lincoln county to be represented. Be sure your school is not left out.

Another Poet (1) Breaks Loose.

Talk about your idle prattle
By folks you think don't know,
Of you'll hear the loudest rattle
From the superficial "bo."
We're told in what is called rhyme
By folks we think don't know,
Where and when and in what clime
Plants for sauer kraut will grow.
And then a little further on
In this brainless rhymeless jumble,
Tells us how the Celtic crows
The Fritzieles into jail will tumble.
How they'll eat the Kaiser's kraut
And drink up all his wine,
But fails to tell us much about
When this will happen on the Rhine.
He says they're poking fun at Pat,
I'm sure that's nothing new,
For the Tommies treat him like a brat
And always have, I think, don't you?
If fun's the only thing they'd poke
At Patrick at the present time,
We'd call it just a little joke—
Same as his little foolish rhyme.

But Kaiser Bill got in his spiel
To show he was not joking,
Now Patrick can the difference feel
Twixt fun and cannon poking.
Now let's get back to earth again
Where war talk into flame is fanned
Where Casement now is suffering pain
For leaving foot-prints in the sand.
Now Kaiser Bill with but one go,
Helped the Irish clip their noses,
Yet he has another throw
Before he equals Colonel Moses.
Thus ever 'tis the way with war,
Many must die that few may live,
While war's a thing we all abhor,
To the hungry maw of nature all
Must give.

J. W. LeM.

Thaviu's Band

Can you name over the half dozen bands that have appeared in this county within the past decade? There are Sousa and Ellory, Pryor, Creator, Innes, The Marine Band and Thaviu. And it would not be amiss to say "and the greatest of these is Thaviu." Thaviu is the surprise of the Chautauqua. Nothing too praiseworthy can be said of him. He plays the greatest music in the greatest way. And here is one of the unusual things about the great Thaviu Band, so perfectly is it trained, so familiar is each player with, not alone his own instrument, but with the music for the other instruments, that practically any man in the big organization is capable of taking the baton, and directing the music. That is a remarkable assertion, but remarkably true. Thaviu's band is one of the attractions of the North Platte Chautauqua.

La Follette Endorses Hughes

Senator La Follette has issued a statement on the results of the Chicago convention which will go far toward satisfying progressive men everywhere. He says:

"The nomination of Mr. Justice Hughes will be acceptable to the great body of the progressive republicans of the country. There was probably no other man upon whom so many republicans of all elements could have been joined in support. He was not the choice of the reactionary element, which framed the platform and otherwise controlled the convention. It is a source of hope and encouragement that his selection came in response to the insistent demand of the masses of republicans for a candidate on whom the party might reasonably unite and agree. The choice is not unlike that of Benjamin Harrison after the first Cleveland administration. Hughes is somewhat the type of man that Harrison was, but with more warmth and personal magnetism. He is able, independent, fearless, and possessed of high civic spirit. There is no question of his personal and political integrity. He will go as far as his convictions carry him, and no ulterior influences can stop him."

Real Shaves in India.
The natives of India go to a great deal for shaving and do not confine themselves to merely shaving the chin, but on occasion will shave the eyebrows as well, and in the case of certain rites and ceremonies the head, too, is completely shaved. No soap is used, but the beard is softened by being rubbed over with a little cold water. The razors employed are generally of native manufacture and have fixed handles that do not fold. Moreover, they are very much heavier than those of European make. The strop consists of a small piece of leather the size of a man's palm and is held in the open hand during stropping. The recognized cost of a shave is 1 pie, which is the exact equivalent of 1 farthing.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Changed Words.
The English language presents a large number of words that have been completely changed in their significance since they first came into use. In some cases their meaning has been exactly reversed. A conspicuous example of this is the word "let," which Shakespeare uses several times with the meaning "to hinder." Hamlet exclaimed, "I'll make a ghost of him that lets me," of course "him that stops me."

The word is used in the same sense in the Bible, as in II Thessalonians II, 7—"He who now letteth will let until he be taken out of the way."
"Ravel" and "unravel" mean exactly the same thing, although at one time to unravel probably meant to reduce confusion to order. Compare the words "valuable" and "invaluable" and "loose" and "unloose."

As used frequently in the Bible "prevent" instead of meaning to "hinder" means to "precede" or "go before," which is, of course, its etymological meaning.—Los Angeles Times.

Holy Lands of All Religions.
Christians call Palestine the Holy Land because it was the birthplace of the Christian religion on earth as well as that of the Saviour, whose birth, ministry and death are inseparably associated with the history of Jerusalem and vicinity. To the Mohammedans Mecca, in Arabia, is the holy land, it being the birthplace of Mohammed, the saviour of the followers of that faith.

India is the holy land of the Chinese and other oriental Buddhists, it being the native land of Sakya Muni, the supreme Buddha. Ellis, one of the several divisions of the ancient Peloponneseus, was the Mecca and the Jerusalem of the ancient Greeks. The temple of Olympus Zeus was situated at Elis, and the sacred festivals were held there each year. The believers in the Shinto religion make annual pilgrimage to Sitsa Kara, the immense stone pillars where their supreme ruler last stood while talking to men.

It is a great evil as well as a misfortune to be unable to utter a prompt and decided no.—Simmons.

Some people are so fond of ill luck that they run halfway to meet it.—Douglas Jerrold.
