CAPTAIN HALLIGAN TELLS OF LIFE ON TEXAS BORDER.

In a letter to The Tribune from Liano Grande, Texas, dated August 2d. Captain P. R. Halligan, of Company E. Fifth Regiment, writes as fol-

I had intended writing you soon af ter we left North Platte but we find our time pretty well taken up with instructions and routine work. We are getting better situated every day. Our new equipment will soon be here and we wan then feel that we are regular soldiers.

The company has made wonderful progress since our arrival in Texas. We had regimental parade last nigh and you could not have distinguished our companies from the older companies. In fact I believe we now are in better shape than some of the companies that were organized at the time of the call.

Last Sunday night it was our turn to go on guard. Formal guard mounting was called off by reason of heavy rain so guard was maintained informally. The night passed very quietly and without any excitement.

Last Friday our battalion took its first practice march of some ten miles. Every one came through in good shape, no one falling out during the entire march.

Last week General Parker, commander of the Brownsville district, talked to the officers of the Fourth and Fifth regiments. He gave us to understand that we were not brought to the border for training but for service and if it developed that we were not needed that we would be sent home at

Our instruction is in charge of regular army officer who is detailed to each regiment. Besides four hours drill a day we have privates' school, non-commissioned officers' school and officers' school. The troops are al- School land bonus ready beginning to show the results of

We notice that you have been hav ing a very hot wave. It is hot in the sun here but this last week we have had a shower nearly every day. Also in the evening there is always a cool breeze blowing from the guif.

It might be interesting to know that we pay forty-five cents a pound for butter, thirty-five cents for eggs and fifteen cents a quart for milk. On the other hand we purchased two dozen egg plants for the company for fifty-cents. This is a great vegetable country. The summer crop has been harvested and in a short time they will plant another crop for the win ter market. Last Friday we saw, in the same field, cotton being picked and cotton growing, the latter to be picked in the fall.

with kindest regards P. R. HALLIGAN.

11011 Circus and Parade. A parade and circus under the management of iMss Hungate, of the Chautayqua management, was given yesterday. Both the parade and the circus. which children figured, were unique. In the parade were an im-provised giraffe, zebra, elephant and two cages of "wild animals," a number of clowns, fairies, and other attractions, the whole forming an amusing assemblage. The circus held at ten o'clock, was attended by about 400 adults and children, and a number of very clever animals." The hour's performance was enjoyed by all. The receipts were $33.13, the expenses $10.58 and the balance of $22.58 was turned over by Miss Hungate to the city park board to assist in buying equipment for a children's play ground.

Sidney 2, North Platte 4. North defeated Sidney Sunday in a well played game on the local diamond by a score of eight to two. In order that the visitors take No 17 home, but eight innings were played. Reeves pitched for the Sidneyites and Wal-worth for the locals, the former allowing six hits and the latter five. The visitors secured their two runs in the first inning, while North Platte scored two in the first, one in the fourth and one in the eighth. While the game was devoid of sensational plays, it was steady and heady and practically errorless other than a wild pitch or two by Reeves.

No Drouth at Brady. It is evidently not dry at Brady. The saloon man there reports the sale of twelve carloads of beer since he re-opened his thirst-quenching parlor the early part of May. Much of this beer has been shipped in case lots to points between Kearney and Ogalalla, hundreds of cases coming to North arms, tries to sleep.

No Danger of That. Mrs. Etubbs-John, no true man will smoke up his wife's curtains. Mr. Stubbs-1 should say not. Anybody that smokes curtains would be a freak. I prefer cigars.-Chicago News.

Well Off. Fred-I proposed to Miss Dingley last night. Joe-Don't believe I know her. Is she well off? Fred-Yes, I guess so. She refused me.—Stray Stories.
