

"Eyestrain Disturbances of Human Machine"

(From the Review of Reviews.)

"High authority asserts that probably one-fourth of all the educated people in America suffer from various kinds of disturbances more or less due to eyestrain." Strange though it may seem, eyestrain is capable of disturbing our whole organism, because of the reflex relation between eyes and the vital parts of the human machine. Constant exhaustion and strain of these vital centers will frequently cause disturbances of the most extensive character. This follows because the strain of civilization rests heavier upon the eyes than upon any other organ. School life is responsible for deformities of the eye, and approximately, one-third of all the children in the upper grades of the elementary schools have eyes that rather seriously need correction."

LOU J. KNOLL WEDS MISS MARIE VON GOETZ.

An elaborate wedding occurred Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at the Episcopal church when Miss Marie Von Goetz, of this city, became the bride of Lou J. Knoll, of Raiston, Neb. The ceremony was performed by Dean J. J. Bowker in the presence of a large number of invited guests.

Large bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums were used in decorating the altar and also arranged in jardiniere at the altar steps where the bridal party stood. Albin Sandall and Chas. P. Clinton acted as ushers and the wedding march was rendered by Mrs. Earl Stamp. The groom and his attendant, H. E. Harvey, of Omaha, met at the church the bride, who was escorted by her father and her three maids, Misses Charlotte Koop, of West Point, Marion Pettis, of Lincoln, and Mary Rathke, of Glenwood, Iowa. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white messaline combined with georgette crepe, and carried an arm bouquet of lilies of the valley, roses and orchids. Her veil was held in place with small white flowers. Each of the maids wore gowns of yellow silk with trimmings of yellow georgette crepe, and dainty wreaths of yellow pleated maline. They held large shower bouquets of yellow and white flowers. Masters Dallas Garrard of this city and Lyle Knoll of Crete, were flower and ring bearers.

After the ceremony one hundred guests were entertained at a reception at the home of the bride's parents which had been artistically decorated in yellow and white. Assisting in serving were Misses Catherine Hall, Hazel Barebr, Cora Souser, and Maude Owens. Mr. and Mrs. Knoll left the same evening for eastern points on a wedding trip.

Mrs. Knoll was born in this city. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor VonGoetz Sr., and for several years was employed as principal in the West Point schools. She is a talented young lady and justly popular. The groom was formerly superintendent of the West Point schools, but recently accepted the position of cashier of a bank at Raiston. Out of town guests were Mrs. W. C. Patterson of Minneapolis, Mrs. O. R. Handley and Mrs. Clyde Drew, of Omaha, Mrs. Charles B. Winegar, of Lebanon, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Palmer ended his life at the home of his daughter, and before sending a bullet through his own brain, fired at his wife who was sitting in a chair opposite, the ball inflicting a scalp wound. Mrs. Palmer stated that she was unable to account for her husband's action other than that he was insanely jealous of her, and that a detective had been employed to "shadow" her, but the detective stated that at no time had he found anything to justify Palmer's suspicions of his wife.

Later it was learned that on the day following his death a charge of embezzlement was to have been preferred against Palmer, and knowing of the charge, concluded to evade it by taking his life. The amount embezzled was less than $300.

Mutual Building & Loan Ass'n.

OF NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA.

ASSETS $840,000.00

To Prospective Building & Loan Borrowers:

Non-resident Building & Loan Companies are advertising the fact that they have reduced the monthly payments of borrowers to $1.10 per month on each $100.00 borrowed, making the monthly payment the same as the Mutual Building & Loan Association of North Platte. They fail to state that of the $1.10 paid to the non-resident company, there is only thirty-five cents credited as a principal payment, the balance seventy-five cents being taken for interest. Of the $1.10 monthly payment to this association on each $100.00 borrowed sixty cents is for interest and fifty cents is credited as a principal payment.

This difference in the amount credited the borrower will result in the borrower in the non-resident company being compelled to pay not less than $25.00 more on each $100.00 borrowed in order to discharge the debt than they would if they were doing the business with this Association.
