

1916.
Those Who Are Candidates on the Republican County Ticket.

Sheriff A. J. Salisbury
 Treasurer S. M. Souder
 Clerk A. S. Allen
 Superintendent Aileen Gantt
 Clerk of the District Court G. E. Prosser
 County Attorney Rolf P. Halligan
 Commissioner 3rd District S. J. Koch
 Commissioner 1st District Ira Miltonberger

FOR LEGISLATURE
 State Senate, 25th District D. M. Douthett
 State Representative Scott Reynolds
 77th Legislative District Wm. H. C. Woodhurst

SAM M. SOUDER.
 Republican Candidate for County Treasurer.

Sam M. Souder, the republican candidate for County Treasurer, was born in Washington county, Nebraska, in 1886 and moved to Deer Creek Precinct, Lincoln county, with his parents in 1892, where he has since spent most of his time. When reaching young manhood he attended Hastings College. He later returned to Deer Creek Precinct and engaged in farming.

Mr. Souder is a Lincoln county boy, coming direct from the farm to his present position as Assistant County Treasurer. He has been trained along business methods and his records in the office show that he can apply those methods to the county affairs. He has never held office by election, but has had four years experience as Assistant County Treasurer and by the very nature of this work a person is well schooled in the duties of County Treasurer which is one of the best preparatory courses a person could have for the office. His records will show for themselves that he has made good and he is in a position to administer the county affairs in a progressive and business like manner. He has no connection with any other business, therefore can give the office his undivided attention.

When a voter casts his ballot for a man he likes to feel that that man is competent. No one will deny that Sam Souder is fully competent, obliging and pleasant, and is always doing his duty fairly. Those who desire to see a practical and competent man in the County Treasurer's office will cast their ballot for Souder.

ARTHUR J. SALISBURY
 Republican Candidate for Sheriff.

Mr. Salisbury has given unusual satisfaction in this office during the past term, and his attention to public business appeals to the voter as a convincing reason why he should be endorsed by election to another term.

In Art Salisbury the public gets value received from a public officer. He works quickly and covers a great deal of ground and comes in contact with all parts of the county. His office is one which necessarily brings about unpleasant situations, but Salisbury has always performed his duty with kindness and consideration to the unfortunate and has saved the County and litigants much expense by helping to settle private differences out of court and his fairness and good sense have taken the "mad" out of many a man. He has kept the jail clean and wholesome and every prisoner has a good word for the treatment accorded him.

There has been no scandal of any kind connected with the office; no trouble over fees or mileage.

He should be elected:
 Because he is a good officer.
 Because public fairness says every good officer should have re-election.
 Because he has furnished good assistants.
 Because his private life is clean.
 Because the public profits by the experience of an officer.

Because he is public spirited and takes an interest in all the affairs of the County and in the welfare of every citizen.

Because he does not allow politics or favoritism to enter his office.

Because there is no reason why he shouldn't be re-elected.

A. S. ALLEN,
 Republican Candidate for County Clerk.

Mr. Allen was born in Omaha in June, 1883. He has been a resident of Western Nebraska for more than 29 years, moving with his parents to Gothenburg in the early part of 1887, and from thence into Walker precinct in the southeast part of Lincoln County, in March, 1895, remaining a continuous resident of the County ever since.

He obtained a High School education at Farnam High School, and received a special training course at Franklin Academy, he has taught school in Lincoln County for six years, and for five years has been Deputy County Clerk, thoroughly acquainting himself with the County Records, as well as with the duties connected with the office of County Clerk.

Being a man of a genial and pleasing disposition, he makes friends with all that he meets, and having a willingness to serve the public to the best of his ability, and if elected County Clerk he will do his best to conduct the affairs of the County Clerk's office in a business-like manner. He having no other interests or business connections, places Mr. Allen in a position whereby he can and will devote his whole time to the duties of the office, and give to the public the best of service.

A vote for Mr. Allen for County Clerk on November 7th will be a vote for a qualified man and a man of experience in public service.

P. R. HALLIGAN,
 Republican Candidate for County Attorney.

Captain Halligan was born in Ogallala in 1887, came to North Platte in 1895 where he has since resided. He graduated from the North Platte High School in 1906; from the Academic Department of the State University in 1910, and from the Law Department of the State University in 1912; after his graduation he became associated with the firm of Wilcox and Halligan and has practiced law in Lincoln County in connection with that firm up to July 1st, 1916, when he enlisted in Company E, 5th Nebraska infantry, and was by the company elected Captain, with his company he was mustered into the United States Army shortly after and was sent to the border where he is at the present time.

When the Company was mustered into the United States service it was thought war with Mexico was inevitable, but it is now conceded that there will be no war with Mexico, and Captain Halligan is expected to be home before election.

The Nebraska troops are the next troops in line to be ordered home, and it is now expected that they will be sent back not later than November 1st; in any event it may be stated positively that if elected Captain Halligan will be on hand to assume the duties of his office January first, 1917.

Captain Halligan was appointed County Attorney of Arthur County in 1914 and has acted in that capacity for that County up to the present time. He had charge of a case in the Supreme Court for Arthur County involving the legal existence and organization of Arthur County, and after a hotly contested case won against distinguished counsel; and at this time he has charge of a case for Arthur County in the Supreme Court involving a strip of territory about four miles wide running the entire length of Arthur County and claimed by both Arthur and Garden Counties.

Should Captain Halligan be elected he will conduct the legal affairs of this county without the county being put to the expense of hiring extra legal talent to assist the County Attorney, a thing which has cost Lincoln County large sums in the past.

Furthermore if elected he will enforce every law upon the Statutes including the prohibitory amendment if the same is adopted.

Captain Halligan is not here during the campaign but is on the border wearing the uniform of his country in obedience to the call of the President for men to protect the border against the murderous invasion of Mexicans.

Surely the patriotic people of Lincoln County will concede that he is excused for not being present in the campaign, and on election day will see to it that his interests are protected.

WILLIAM H. C. WOODHURST,
 Republican Candidate for the 77th Legislative District.
 (Comprising the Counties of Keith, Lincoln and Dawson.)

Mr. Woodhurst is a pioneer resident of North Platte, having moved here in 1868. He was educated in the schools of North Platte, Tabor College of Tabor, Iowa, State University at Lincoln, Neb., and Gem City Business College, of Quincy, Ill. He was Deputy County Clerk, member State Central Committee, Receiver of the U. S. Land Office for two terms, is engaged in the general insurance business, has had 29 years experience as an adjuster, was a member of the 34th session of the legislature and supported and labored for all progressive measures introduced and will do so again if re-elected. His wide acquaintance and general business experience well equips him for the office for which he aspires. His private judgment will govern his vote but will be influenced by the expressed will of his district. His record is good and he deserves re-election and Lincoln County should support him loyally.

S. J. KOCH

Republican Candidate for County Commissioner, 3d District

To the Voters:

As the republican candidate for County Commissioner from the Third District, I am before you not as an office-seeker, but as one who is deeply interested in the affairs of Lincoln county and willing to do my share for the best interest of the tax-payers. I have lived in the county south of Hershey for the past thirty years as a stock raiser and farmer.

I believe the affairs of the county should be in the hands of efficient and trustworthy officials, who will conduct the business of the county in the interests of the tax-payers and I believe they should give a day's service for a day's pay, and I promise so to do if elected. I believe there should be no favorites, but each locality should receive what is rightfully theirs. I believe in good roads and strict economy in their construction.

If successful at the election I shall do my best to render faithful and conscientious service to all the people of Lincoln county.

S. J. KOCH.

IRA L. MILTONBERGER

Republican Candidate for County Commissioner of the First District.

Ira L. Miltonberger, the republican candidate for Commissioner of the first district received the nomination from his party without opposition.

He was born in Warren County, Ohio, in 1858, was reared on a farm and at the age of 21 years came to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, where he engaged in a clothing store for some time. In 1879 he came further west and took a homestead in the south part of the County. Twenty-nine years ago he moved his family to North Platte and accepted a position with W. H. McDonald.

There are few citizens of North Platte who are not acquainted with Ira Miltonberger, and it would be exceedingly hard to find a man who commands respect from the general public more than does Miltonberger. On all sides are heard expressions of confidence in his ability to conduct the Commissioner's office in the way it should be conducted.

He is interested in good roads and the public welfare in general, he will be conservative in handling the affairs of the county.

He should be elected because he will not be controlled by any set of individuals as he will conduct the affairs fearlessly, fairly and thoroughly. The people will have no cause to regret having placed the office with him.

AILEEN GANTT

Republican Candidate for County Superintendent

Miss Aileen Gantt has given unusual satisfaction in the office during the past term. She knows the needs of Lincoln County schools and is putting Lincoln County schools on the front page among Nebraska schools. She has no opposition.

GEO. E. PROSSER

Republican Candidate for Clerk of the District Court.

The administration of the office of the Clerk of the District Court during the past years proves that the Republican party made no mistake in selecting and electing George E. Prosser for that position.

Mr. Prosser is a self made man and gained his present position by his own energy. The demand of today is for efficiency in every line of work. The work in the office of the Clerk of the District Court is not a regular routine, but like lawsuits, is miscellaneous in character, and requires experience, to meet the duties and requirements of the office. It cannot be taken up and learned in a short time. "No better man can be found for this office," is what every one conversant with the duties of Clerk of the District Court says, than is Mr. Prosser. The voters of the County realize this more and more, as they have business in this office, and in casting their ballots for George E. Prosser, know that they are voting for a man who is not only thoroughly experienced, but one who is thoroughly competent and impartial. One who has proven himself true in the performance of the duties of the office.

SCOTT REYNOLDS

Republican Candidate for State Representative.

No man is in better position to know the desires and realize the farmer's interest than a good thorough, broad-minded farmer. Scott Reynolds, Republican Candidate for State Representative in the 68th district, is that kind of a farmer, and he will not hesitate, when in office, to advance the general interests of his constituents by always striving to have them get a square deal.

The office of State Representative is an important one, and the voters and tax-payers should make every effort to secure the election of good square men.

Scott Reynolds was one of the introducers of the Bill for the "Torrens System of land registration." Also the new law governing motor vehicles, which among other things provided that all money for license fees shall be used on the public roads in the county where collected.

Other bills which he introduced were: H. R. 228 authorizing Railway Commission to compel construction of underground overhead, and grade crossings under certain conditions. H. R. 262 relating to construction of highways and bridges. H. R. 593. Providing for fee to State Board of Irrigation by Applicant for Water Power Districts. H. R. 649. Requiring fire and casualty insurance companies to file schedules of rates with insurance board. H. R. 66. Amendments to game laws.

One of the leading daily papers of Omaha, in commenting on Reynolds' record in the last legislature, said that he was "consistent and progressive." If a man is consistent and progressive, he is surely doing about all that can be expected of him.

Lives in Osgood Precinct. Engaged in actual farming.
