Blew Up Sawyer's Store.
 The front of the gun shop conducted in Columbus by Fred Sawyer, formerly of this city, was torn out Monday by an explosion of a can of powder. A customer had purchased a gun, placed a cartridge in it to see how it worked, the cartridge accidentally was discharged and the bullet striking the can of smokeless powder caused the explosion. Fortunately no one was injured.

GOOD FELLOWSHIP BANQUET OF 20th CENTURY CLUB

Members of the Twentieth Century Club, sixty-five in number, were guests at the third annual Good Fellowship Banquet, which was given Tuesday evening at 6:30 in the basement of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. Nellie Barron presided as toast-mistress and with wit and grace introduced the following representative women of North Platte: Mrs. Adabelle Hegarty president of the club, Mrs. Carrie Halligan, Mrs. Mary Patterson, Mrs. Mary Roddy, Mrs. Blanche Field, Mrs. Winnie Scott, Mrs. Birdie Frator and Miss Annie Kramph. Mrs. Hegarty in a splendid talk, called "Our Club" outlined some of the future work of the club. Although the titles of the toasts on the programs, were French and Latin the responses were in good English and evoked much merriment. Following a short intermission a program was given consisting of music by Miss Florence McKay and Mrs. Elizabeth Cramer, a carefully prepared report of the State Federation meeting at Hastings by Mrs. Marie Dent and two excellent readings by Miss Elizabeth Hinman. The meeting was an indication in every way of how strong this club has been growing since its organization three years ago.

Much praise was given to the committee in charge for the beautifully decorated tables and excellent banquet. Mr. P. J. Barron deserves an especial vote of thanks from the women of the club, for his thoughtfulness in furnishing the menu card and program for this event in club circles.

MARIE T. DENT, Journalist.

Lilly May Sell Cody Ranch.

Major Lilly, more familiarly known as "Pawnee Bill," owner of the former Cody ranch west of town, has about concluded to offer the ranch for sale next spring. There are 2,600 acres in the property. Whether it will be offered as a whole, or sub-divided into tracts has not yet been decided. Its closeness to town would naturally make 40 acres tracts desirable, and these no doubt would find a ready sale.

File Expense Account.

Keith Neville and Judge Sutton have filed their statement of expense during the campaign. It cost Judge Sutton $273 to be defeated and Mr. Neville $1,134.50 to be elected. This does not include all the personal expenses of the candidates in hiking from one county to another, buying meals, gasoline and other necessities.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Dean J. J. Bowker returned yesterday from Hastings where he attended the Masonic Consistory meeting. Forty-seven were given the Scottish Rite degree.

Friends in town received cards yesterday morning from Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ritter of Fairbury announcing the birth of their fifth son. They were formerly residents here.

Fifty thousand dollars worth of diamonds arranged in necklaces, pins and rings were displayed Wednesday in the window of the Dixon Jewelry store. R. D. Fleck of the Juergens-Anderson Co., of Chicago, was in charge.

Practically all the big railroads of the country have filed suits to test the constitutionality of the Adamson eight-hour law. The United States will defend these actions, contesting each suit as it comes up.

Shake your neighbor's hand and forget it, but remember Woodhurst's Insurance Agency. 87-2

Pennsylvania Anthracite and Rock Springs coal jumped a dollar a ton in Omaha Wednesday the former now selling at $13 and the latter at $8.50. For two or three weeks Rock Springs has sold in North Platte at $8.50 and anthracite at $13. A local dealer said that so far as he at present knew these prices would be maintained, although dealers here would be justified in advancing the anthracite to $14 per ton.

RAILROAD NOTES

Ralph Hansen began work recently as stenographer in the Western Union office.

Assistant Special Agent Cashman of the Union Pacific is spending a few days here on business.

J. A. Douglas, of Green River, came here a few days ago to accept a position in the Western Union office as dispatcher.

U. P. Claim Agent Hamilton has been transferred to Salt Lake City and accompanied by his family will leave in the near future for their new home.

Mrs. N. McCabe pleasantly entertained the Mothers' club Wednesday afternoon. The ladies spent the afternoon in Kensington and social conversation.

Peter Rasmussen of the U. P. baggage room has been confined to his home by illness for a week past. His duties are being performed by David Anderson.

I. L. Bailor, until lately in the employ of the Union Pacific as conductor, has accepted the management of the Nebraska Tire Co., located in the Pizer building on Locust street, and is pushing the business with energy and enthusiasm. The company does tire repairing of all kinds and handles new tires and inner tubes.

"Billy" Keith, a former employe of the local machine shop, writes from Milpetas, Cal., that he is confined in the county almshouse suffering from three fractures of a leg and two of an arm. He inquires the whereabouts of Alex Streitz, John Worthley and others who were well acquainted with him when he resided in North Platte.

Several cars of lumber for making the concrete forms for the foundation of the new depot were unloaded this week. The excavation work is proceeding rather slowly, the force of men employed being small. The basement of the building will be in the west end, but this will not be excavated until the foundation walls are completed, and the dirt will be removed with a steam clam shovel.

Mark Twain's story, "Pudd'nhead Wilson," will be the story shown at the Keith Saturday night. This production put out by the Paramount and featuring Theo Roberts was taken in small Missouri town in which Mark Twain laid the scenes of his immortal story. Some of the buildings of that period still stand and the slave quarters which are shown are what are left of the historical old plantation near the town.
