WILCOX DEPARTMENT STORE

WHAT CAN WE AFFORD TO EAT THIS WINTER

The man with a family who receives a wage of less than one hundred dollars a month is just now viewing with considerable alarm the constantly increasing cost of his table expenses. With flour selling at $2.50 and $2.65 a sack and another raise probable; potatoes $1.50 per bushel with a certainty of going to $2.00 by the first of the year; eggs at thirty-five cents for storage and forty cents for country fresh; meats so high that a 30-cent steak rolls up like a link of weiner wurst; canned tomatoes, corn, beans other vegetables nearly fifty per cent higher than a year ago; and practically everything going upward with the sky as the probable limit, there is reason for the man of a big family to feel concerned.

Talk with a grocer about prices, and he throws up his hands—he is helpless. He will tell that in certain lines it is not only a question of price, but ability to get the goods at any price. Orders that were placed last summer for fall delivery are only partially filled. Where the grocer contracted for a hundred cases of tomatoes he has received ten cases, and the same applies to other canned goods.

These may be prosperous times for some people, but not for the man who has not had a raise in salary for two years.

Echo of Gothenburg Wreck.

A dispatch from Denison, Iowa, says: Judge Albert, of the district court, today in a vacation decision, found that August Meyer of Lakeview, Ia., died before his wife, Henrietta, upon which question depended the distribution of their $250,000 estate. Meyer and his wife were killed in a railroad wreck at Gothenburg, Neb., in March, 1913. From the evidence the court concluded that the woman was still alive when taken from the wreck, altho death occurred immediately afterwards.

Clothes Line Thieves.

Thieves visited the premises of Fremont Watts and Geo. G. MacKay Monday night and as a result a number of garments disappeared from the lines which contained the family washings. At the MacKay residence a half dozen garments were taken and three from the Watts line. Other garments at the latter place were unpinned but not taken, the supposition being that the thief was frightened away by the appearance of the family dog.

EPISCOPAL GUILD HOLDS VERY SUCCESSFUL FAIR

The ladies guild of the Episcopal church held their annual fair and bazaar at the Lloyd opera house yesterday afternoon and last evening. The hall was artistically decorated in the national colors and nine attractive booths were arranged around the room. Mrs. Asa Snyder was in charge of the American booth where refreshments were served and large shelds and flags were used in decorating. At the German booth Mrs. L. L. Berthe and her dutch girls appropriately costumed served lunches. Dec orations were suggestive of Germany and Holland. Mrs. Frank Hatch superintended the doll booth, where dolls of many varieties, sizes and nationalities were displayed. This booth was draped in white and silver. Mesdames G. J. Field, Charles Edwards and William Stuart served tea and wafers at the Japanese booth which was decorated with lanterns, flowers fans, etc. A unique collection of Japanese articles were on sale. A pretty and interesting stand for ladies was the fancy work department in charge of Mrs. H. A. Lawhead and her efficient assistants who also managed the bundle and rug departments. Mrs. E. A. Garlichs and Miss Irene Stuart in gypsy costumes were the fortune tellers. One of the most amusing features of the evening was the art gallery of Hershey Welsh. The Tillikams girls presided over the candy and flower booth which was cleverly decorated with holly, tinsel and Christmas bells. Home made confections, potted plants, and pretty cut flowers met with ready sale. The wishing well located next to the candy booth in charge of Mrs. Hegarty was much enjoyed by patrons.

During the evening a comic sketch entitled "A Nobleman in Disguise" was rendered by the following artists: Misses Mamie Pizer, Virginia Bullard, Hildegard Clinton, Messrs. Richmond Birge, Thurston Woodhurst, Harris Stuart and Master Willie Weeks. A quartette composed of Messrs. Munger, Clinton, Birge and Turpie rendered several vocal selections.

To the president Mrs. Edmund Dickey and the committee in charge is due the splendid success of the entertainment. The admission and sales at the booths amounted to about $250.00.
