"He fell in Love With His Wife" may sound like a queer title for a photoplay but if you like a story well acted, well staged and with a popular cast, be at the Keith Saturday afternoon or evening and see this picture. Florence Rockwell, Forest Stanley and Page Peters take the leading parts.

The people of North Platte and surrounding territory are very fast finding out that North Platte is one of the best trading points in Nebraska. Just yesterday The Leader Mercantile Co. sold a big bill of goods to people living at Paxton, Julesburg and Sidney.

Several thousand Roman candles ordered for use in the parade Tuesday evening failed to reach here in time. This was a keen disappointment to Uncle Bill Tiley and Cousin Bill Landgraf, and also to the kids who had expected to have armloads of them to shoot.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold their annual sale of fancy work, aprons, home cooked foods, jellies, candies, etc., on Saturday, Dec. 18th, at Berryberry & Forbes store. Food sale commencing at 10 a. m. and the sale of fancy articles at 2 p. m. The public is invited.

A. Ceberly, the former North Side barber, now a resident of Scotts Bluff, spent several days in town this week. He says what North Platte needs to make a real good town is a beet sugar factory. Scotts Bluff owes its wonderful prosperity to the sugar factory located there.

WORTHY COUPLE CELEBRATE 50th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Donehower, of this city, has been given the privilege and pleasure of celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary. This event which comes to comparatively few, occurred Tuesday, and there were present with them their two daughters and two sons, their grandchildren and several other relatives, all surrounding a table laden with the good things that refresh the inner man and cheer the soul.

During the day many friends called to express congratulations and best wishes, many floral tributes were presented and congratulatory letters and telegrams received from friends in distant as well as near-by states. Mr. and Mrs. Donehower were married in Reading, Pa., December 6th, 1866, and their fifty years of married life have been as nearly full of sunshine as this earth offers. To them all clouds had a silver lining; the bitter of life only tended to make sweeter the sweet; a devoted couple to whom the forenoon of life was full of hope and expectation, the noon time a partial realization, the afternoon the full harvest of a good and well spent active life, and now in the eventide they are the same sweethearts as of youth.

Mr. and Mrs. Donehower came to North Platte from Hannibal, Mo., in 1888, and for fifteen years Mr. Donehower was a faithful employee of the Union Pacific. For a number of years past he has lived a retired life. They are and always have been among North Platte's most respected citizens, and all acquaintances unit congratulations on having lived to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

Public Library Notes.
The pupils of the Jefferson school visited the library Thursday so as to become familiar with the books and how to use the library.

NEW BOOKS.

"Fish"—Rhinehart. A series of adventures from which fishmongers are triumphant.

"Romance of a Christmas Card"—Wiggin. Full of the warmth of an old fashioned Christmas.

"Proof of the Pudding"—Nicholson. Characters extraordinarily human and situations interesting.

"Under the Country Sky"—Richmond. An absorbing novel of a real American home.

"When a Man's a Man"—Harold Bell Wright. A truly western story.

"Instead of the Thorn"—Burnham. Abounds in pleasure and inspiration for the reader.

"Bird House Man"—Eaton. A story full of birds, flowers and New England folks.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS.

No matter what your lot may be, there is a period in your life when you experience the feeling of a wild bird in a gilded cage. Then there is another gilded cage and it's dollars to doughnuts that you never heard about it or at least that you never gave it much thought, and that is "The Gilded Cage" visualized in the picture at the Crystal Saturday night. See this story—and you will agree that it is a beautiful play—one that you will want the whole family to be entertained by. Our advice is as Jerry used to say—"Take 'em."

Durbin Appointed Secretary.

At a meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening County Treasurer Albert Durbin, who retires from office the first week in January was appointed secretary to serve until May 1st. Mr. Durbin is one of North Platte's live wires, and as secretary will prove a mighty good man. As soon as he leaves the county treasurer's office he will proceed to "get busy" with matters pertaining to the commercial activities of the city and county.

Knights Will Banquet Tonight.

Members of Palestine Commandery, Knights Templar, and their ladies will hold a banquet tonight at which Mr. and Mrs. Neville will be honor guests. F. E. Bullard will preside as toastmaster, and those who will respond to toasts will be S. H. Donehower, of Peoria, Ill., Albert Muldoon, Dr. Redfield, Saml. Goosee and the governor-elect. These toasts will follow a five course dinner. Stamp's orchestra will render selections during the evening.

Touston Armies Take Bucharest.

Bucharest, capital of Roumania, was captured Wednesday by the Touston armies. This completes the conquest of the southern section of the Romanian Kingdom, embracing a territory of 50,000 square miles. Along with Bucharest, the important railway junction of Ploiești was taken.

Methodist-Presbyterian

Sunday schools at 10 a. m. Young people's societies at 6:30 p. m.

Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Robert White will speak on "The Hell of the Modern Scientist."
