An Appropriate Christmas Present. In giving a Christmas present why not give one that will give the greatest comfort and pleasure, and what can give more comfort and pleasure at a time when they are needed than an insurance policy payable to the wife and children? Especially is this true of our 60 Year Installment Endowment Policy, that not only protects the family during the period of life that they need protection, but if you live through that period the same money that you have paid for this protection comes back to you at age 60 in the form of a saving account, which assures you maintenance in your old age.

Why not call today and let us explain this policy in detail?

Passing Out the Pie.

Governor-elect Keith Neville is just now having the time of his young life trying to evade the clamorous horde of hungry democrats, each claiming the right to sit at the table and partake of the bounty that has again fallen into the clutches of the party. Those who are closest to the governor-elect admit they know very little of his plans. Those who have hitherto posed as prophets for the donkey are also at sea, while the rebuff encountered by Chairman Langhorst gives color to the belief that Mr. Neville either has a mind of his own or a machine of his own and doesn't feel the need of advice or assistance from outsiders. Add to this the fact that so far as his personal appointments are concerned he will be replacing one democrat with another and that the places are far too few to anywhere near meet the demands, and the perplexity of the pie passer may be appreciated. It is one of the penalties of winning, though.—Omaha Bee.

Closer and closer the savage Indians crept to the little band of settlers. Women and children were falling on all sides and the only chance for rescue was relief from the fort. Charles Ray risked his life for the sake of the brave comrades behind him, in the play "The Deserter" at the Keith Thursday night. Under cover of night he eluded all the savages but one and then it was a race for life. Up hill and down the race continued and finally ended in a plunge over a 70 foot cliff. The comedy part of the program will be "His First False Step" with Chester Conklin, 10 and 15 cents.
