SCASOT:

The quail season was formerly tor Sawyer of Lancaster offered the amendment which closed the season on doves.

The prairie chicken season, which was formerly from September 1 to November 30, is changed so that hunters may try their luck from September 15 to November 15.

The open season for trout not less than eight inches long remains the same, from April 1 to October 1.

The open season for bass not less than eight inches long and all other fish protected by law remains the same as before, from April 1 to Navember 15. than eight inches long remains the 328 R. November 15.

Bass and other fish-April 1 and ending November 15. No open season on quail or doves, swans, white crane, Chinese pheasported for propagation. The old law permitting the seining of fish during June, July, August and September on licenses issued by the chief game warden has been changed somewhat. The game warden is given discretionary power to issue seining licenses for the taking of buffalo, carp and gar with seines of will probably decline to issue such licenses. The seining law is amended in one important respect. It no longer permits the seining of catfish.

Section 2679 of the statutes, relating to unlawful possession or sale of game birds and fish, has been amended so that it is quite plain that catfish may be sold. For several years the law has permitted the sale of catfish, but game wardens have en deavored to conceal the fact from the public by omitting the provisions from the game laws printed for general circulation.

Two Institutions Consolidate

Dr. W. H. Crutcher, who has been appointed superintendent of the home for dependent children and the Orthopedic hospital, under the new plan of consolidation of managements of the two institutions by the board of control, has taken charge.

Dr. Crutcher was formerly em ployed at the Hastings asylum. Mrs. Benbrook, matron of the Orthopedic hospital, will serve as matron of both institutions and Mrs. Ollie Emsler of Staplehurst becomes supervisor of the children's home.

The board has announced that, except in extreme cases, it will abandon the policy of going out in the state and bringing children to the home who have been committed by the courts. The counties will be expected to bring the children in thereby effecting a material saving of state funds.

Professors Pugsley and Skinner of the college of agriculture of the University of Nebraska held a conference with the members of the South Omaha Live Stock Exchange regarding ways and means of increasing the production of live stock and other fod products. Both of these gentlemen are taking a most active part in the agricultural and live stock development of the state and as the exchange is vitally interested in all matters having to do with the prosperity of the farmers and stock applicant the latter may appeal to-

STATE APPROPRIATIONS

Registration Breaks Record For the first time in her history the registration at Nebraska University has passed 5,000, totalling 5,405, May 1, according to figures given out by Miss Florence McGahey, acting registrar. The net increase for the past year is 579. Of the total number of students, 3,141 are men and 2,264 are women. Half the number are in the freshmen class of the arts and science college, with a total of 2,584, 1,227 men and 1,357 women. Two women are registered

Wholesale and retail druggists who desire to buy and sell alcohol must apply to the governor for a permit. Twenty days before doing so, however, they must file with the county judge notice of their intention to make such application. If there is no protest the county judge shall so certify to the governor, who will grant the permit. Any person desiring, however, may file a protest and a bearing will be had before the county judge. If he decides against the the district court.
