THE GREATEST FERTILIZER

Money, when needed, is the greatest fertilizer in the world. It enables the farmer to obtain what he actually needs for the profitable development of his business.

No progressive farmer would think of farming without fertile soil.
No more should he think of doing without sufficient ready money for farm development.

An Old Time Card.

E. F. Seeburger brought with him from Omaha a photographic reproduction of a time card issued by the Union Pacific August 30, 1898. At that time one passenger train each way ran between Omaha and North Platte and three freights. The passenger trains were N. 3 and 4. No. 3's time between Omaha and North Platte was fourteen hours and ten minutes and going east No. 4's time between the two terminals was thirteen hours and thirty minutes. The freight trains were twenty-three hours on the road between Omaha and North Platte.
At the above date S. H. H. Clark was division superintendent.

Frank M. Stuart and Fern A. Wetzel, a very charming young lady of Lone Rock, were married at Mason City, Iowa, Monday, May 21st, by the Rev.
Hugh Moore. The bride was attired in a pearl gray taffeta travelling suit and carried a bouquet of yellow jonquils.
They left on the evening train for Pond du Lac, Wis., where Mr. Stuart is employed with one of the parties under the inter-state commerce commission on rail way valuation and is in Wisconsin for the summer assignment. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs.
J. T. Stuart of his city and has made good in his vocation of civil engineer.

Guy J. Congdon, of Chicago, formerly of this city, has resigned from the Hygonic Co. (Is) and has accepted a position with the Illinois Central railroad, with an increase in salary. He is now traveling agent of brother of Mrs. Ross Hosford of this city and has been employed with the Union Pacific for some time. They will leave next week for Grand Island to make their home.

Nebraska's apportionment of subscriptions to the federal war loan is $22,000,000. The banks of Omaha will take $4,000,000 of this amount. North Platte's share is in the neighborhood of $125,000. So far about one-ninth of this sum has been subscribed with applications for the bonds being made daily though in rather small denominations.

COMPANY E WILL GIVE MILITARY BALL JUNE 5.

Company E, Fifth Nebraska Infantry, will give a military ball at the Lloyd opera house Tuesday evening, June 5th, the proceeds of which will go into the company's mess fund.
Here is an opportunity for everybody to "do their bit" by purchasing at least one ticket, for the funds thus provided will be used for purchasing equipment not furnished by the government in its daily rations, thus serving to make camp life for the boys a little more enjoyable. If we all do our share in helping out the boys in this particular, at least 500 tickets will be purchased. When one of the boys solicit you to buy a ticket, show your colors.

Breaking Up the Sod.

L. S. Smith, of Du Quoin, Ill., who owns 1280 acres of land south of the experimental farm, arrived in town a few days ago in a Stutz roadster. He comes here to put the land under cultivation and his first move in this direction was to purchase of Dorryberry & Forbes a ten horse power Titan tractor with which he will break out 1,000 acres. He has provided the tractor with a headlight and if he can secure the necessary help will run it day and night. The tractor will pull three plows. The 1000 acres will be seeded to wheat this fall.
