RED CROSS DRIVE WILL START TODAY

Not discouraged by the small attendevening and Sunday afternoon, the ons local Red Cross Chapter, aided by a big committee of business men and by fifty or more solicitors, will start the Red Cross campaign fund today. We know many will say "It is give. J. W. Gray left Friday night for give all the time," but as the World- a visit with his parents in Clarksburg. Herald said editorially yesterday, the West Virginia. one hundred million dollars that the country is asked to give to the Red Cross is not one per cent-it is probably not one-fifth of one per cent-of the tax that a victorious and arrogant autocracy master of the world, would levy on this country, as punitive in-demnity if it should win this war. AND IT WOULD WIN IT IF IT WERE NOT FOR THE FIGHTING MEN, our own and those of our allies, who are and (will be stronggling and dving in the red hells of Flanders and northern France. Just put a pin there.

Bonds Oversubscribed. The two billion Liberty bonds were mother Mrs. Anna Seyferth. oversubscribed by $700,000,000.
