

Watch Repairing well done

That's what you get at Clinton's. No apprentice putters over your timepiece. A skilled watchmaker of long experience takes care of it. It's the work of a mastercraftsman, done with painstaking care. Materials and parts used are supplies secured from the factory which made your watch. Charges are as low as the best work can be done for. If your clock is out of order, phone, or write, and we will send for it.

STATE DRUGGISTS MEET IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

The thirty-sixth annual convention of the Nebraska Pharmaceutical Association was held in this city Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday with an attendance of about 300, a number of whom were accompanied by their families. The opening session was held Tuesday evening and took the nature of a reception and welcome. J. H. Stone making an address of welcome, which was responded to by President O'Brien, of the association.

The first general session was held Wednesday morning at which President O'Brien gave the annual address; reports of committees read and an address delivered by Prof. Kraemer, of Philadelphia. A business session was also held in the afternoon, and in the evening a banquet was served in the Masonic hall. John Fetter presided as toastmaster and five minute talks were made by a dozen of the attendants. Following the talks an enjoyable cabaret was given.

At the session yesterday forenoon of officers for the ensuing year were elected and the work of the convention completed.

In the afternoon the delegates marched to the city park where they were entertained by wild west stunts.

Last evening the social features closed with a dance and card party at Masonic hall.

Wednesday forenoon the lady visitors were driven to the National Cemetery and later served with a lunch at the state farm.

The following officers were elected: president, A. S. Mikkelsen, Holdrege; vice-presidents, W. R. Wingert, Callaway, J. H. Stone, North Platte, A. Brooks, Hastings, Wm. Milder, Omaha, Chas. Rutherford, Aurora; treasurer, D. D. Adams, Nehawka; secretary, J. G. McBride, University Place; Board of pharmacy, E. C. Felton, York, Jos. Cording, Litchfield, J. W. Fetter, Maxwell. The state convention will be held in Lincoln next year.

Ready for Queen's Ball.

Preparations for the queen's ball Friday evening of next week have been completed and indications point to a large attendance of both dancers and spectators. The big tent which will accommodate 500 couples on the floor and 2500 spectators was erected on the grounds Wednesday, the seats placed, and the floor is now being laid. The orchestra which will furnish the music will consist of twenty first class musicians under the direction of Trevlyn Doucet, and an exceptionally fine program will be rendered. This program will of itself be worth the price of admission. One feature of the ball will be the crowning of the queen, Miss Janet McDonald, amid the retinue of her maids of honor.

Never Too Late to Do Good.

Albert LeDoyt, of Paxton, for a number of years a local railroad man, who everybody considered a confirmed bachelor, surprised relatives and friends Wednesday when he was united in marriage to Miss Gladys Burton. The bride has lived on a farm near the one on which Mr. LeDoyt resides, and Wednesday's happy event was a culmination of a neighborhood acquaintance. We commend Albert for the step he has taken and we are certain he will now find life really worth the living.
