Is there any such thing as a totally unselfish love—a devotion that gives all and asks nothing in return? Can a girl so love a man that she suffers in silence while she sees him throw himself away on another that is not worthy of his consideration? That is the theme of "The Reward of Patience" in which Louise Huff is seen as the little Quaker girl at the Keith Saturday night.

DR. RUSSELL H. CONWELL

Will Deliver the World's Most Famous Lecture,

"ACRES OF DIAMONDS"
—at the—
Chautauqua, Saturday Evening,
August 4th.

This lecture has been delivered over 5,300 times, by its author, Dr. Conwell.

Dr. Conwell brings to his hearers a rich harvest of help and inspiration gleaned from a half century in the service of humanity. This is a rare opportunity to hear this wonderful speaker deliver this lecture, famous throughout the civilized world.

Other Famous Lecturers

Other famous lecturers on the program include Edward Amherst Ott. He is a great lecturer and educator, with themes pertaining to individual and community betterment.

There will be Lou Beauchamp, who gives "Take the Sunny Side." It is a new lecture with the same name under which he has given it over 5,000 times. This is a funny lecture.

Brooks Fletcher is the noted newspaper editor and lecturer. Three years ago he was on the Redpath-Horner circuit and the demand for his return has been so urgent and continuous that he will be with us again this season.

William Rainey Bennett is "The Man Who Can." His entertainment—for that is what his lecture really is—is a series of song, story and solid substance, mingled with the touch of a master.

There will be musical attractions superb, including the Althea Players, the Metropolitan Men Singers, W. S. Ellis and his Hawaiians, Harrison Keller, Violinist, and Stewart Wille, pianist. Then the entertainers include the funny Ada Roach, Ducrot, the magician, Jane Dillon, the reader, and others. The climax of all will be the great drama, "Little Women," and the opera "Pinafore."
