COMPANY E ORDERS TO LEAVE CANCELLED

At noon Tuesday Capt. P. R. Halligan received a message instructing him to have Company E in readiness to leave for Ft. Deming in twenty-four hours. The company made all preparations to leave and ordered the following rations: 300 pounds bread, 175 lbs roast beef, 100 lbs coffee, 100 lbs sugar, 8 cases pork and beans, 8 cases tomatoes, 4 cases peaches, 2 cases jelly, 6 boxes oranges, 75 lbs mincemeat ham, 50 lbs cheese, 8 bushels potatoes, 4 boxes crackers and 5 gallon of dill pickles. Wednesday afternoon the orders to leave were cancelled and word received that the company would not entrain until the regiment was called. The bread, meat, and perishable food were therefore sold at private sale that afternoon.

From the mess fund Harold Langford treasurer, has placed an order for $12 worth of gum, $60 worth of tobacco and $55 worth of candy which order will be held until the company leaves.

Prepare for County Fair

Lincoln County's Fifth Annual Fair to be held by the Agricultural Society from September 26th to 29th will be the best ever held in the county. The exhibits will be larger than before, the race track has been put in first class condition and the race horse program as well as the automobile and motorcycle races have been arranged. The race program will be held in conjunction with Kearney and Lexington and J. L. Case will be in charge of the bucking mule which many have tried to ride without success.

A splendid musical program will be given during the afternoon performances. Several new buildings will be erected for stock and farm products and the two former buildings and grand stand have been repaired. The new horse barn will be 30 by 80 feet and the race horse house 16 by 120 feet.

Officers in charge of the fair are: E. C. Pfeisterer president, J. C. Wilson vice-president, J. C. Fowler treasurer and B. M. Stackhouse secretary. Premium lists can be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Colored Men Arrested.

Eight colored men who came in from western points Tuesday were arrested Wednesday morning and arraigned in Justice Miltonberger's court. They were charged with entering the former round house building, now used as a mess house for the extra section gang, and stealing a large quantity of food. Three were fined five dollars and costs and the remainder three dollars and costs. Being unable to pay they were ordered out of town. Yesterday morning two colored men were arraigned in the same court for stealing a ride on the mail train. They were fined five dollars each.

Farmer Prevents Wreck.

John Moore a farmer living in the vicinity of Richland, Nebr., a small station east of Columbus prevented a serious wreck of train No. 20 the first of this week. He was working in the field near the track and noticed that as a train passed by a six inch section was broken out of the rails. He tied a red handkerchief to a corn stalk and placed them in the gap in time for Conductor Warren and the engineer to stop train No. 20 with 300 passengers on board.

Frank Campbell, James Morgan and Lawrence Peterson of Company E went to Paxton yesterday morning to spend the day with home folks.

A HEALTHY DEMAND

I am receiving more than my schedule of Dodge cars every month but at no time since last spring have I been able to carry cars in stock for immediate delivery.

The lesson that you should draw from this is that if you want a Dodge Bros. car it would be advisable for you to get your signed order in at once.

Ask any owner about Dodge service and economy of operation and up-keep.
