

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Guy Granger spent Sunday with relatives in Gothenburg.

Mrs. Allin Tift came from Omaha yesterday morning.

F. C. Pielsticker is transacting business in Omaha this week.

Mrs. E. W. Cross has gone to Overton to visit for some time with friends.

Attorney W. T. Wilcox returned yesterday morning from a visit in eastern points.

For Sale—Apple orchard of 10 acres. For particulars see C. H. Shin on the Jim Wilson farm. 63-4*

Miss Hazel Feeny, of Kearney, arrived the latter part of last week to visit at the Nolan home.

Earl Toile, of Cheyenne, came a few days ago to visit his father Charles Toile for a week or longer.

George Sizemore left Friday night for Salt Lake, Utah, and Los Angeles, Cal., for a two weeks' vacation.

Thurston Woodhurst has accepted a position in the Dixon jewelry store and began work there yesterday morning.

Phillip Schwartz, of Dawson, N. M., was called here Sunday by the death of his sister the late Mrs. Laura Donaldson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Moore, who spent last week visiting in Denver and Colorado Springs returned home Sunday evening.

A ten pound baby girl was born Friday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. William Metcalfe. Mother and babe are progressing nicely.

Miss Marie Schatz, of the Gibbs-Schatz office, has taken a two weeks' vacation which she will spend in Denver with her sister.

Mrs. Harry Pell, of Maxwell, who visited local friends for several days, left yesterday morning for Gering to spend a short time.

F. C. Hoxie returned to Ogalala yesterday morning after spending a few days here.

Misses Ethel Frye and Maud Miller, who have been visiting in Colorado and Wyoming for a couple of weeks, returned last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Siver, of Garfield, were here the latter part of last week enroute to Colorado and Wyoming points of interest by car.

Judge and Mrs. H. M. Grimes returned Sunday afternoon from an extended visit with relatives in Indiana and other eastern points.

Miss Essie Wessburg, of the county judge's office, who spent several weeks in Ogden visiting her sister, returned home Sunday morning.

Mrs. James Hayes and Mrs. William Kennedy, of Kearney, arrived here Friday evening to visit with their niece Mrs. Glen Miller for ten days.

Nicholas C. Dimantz, the eight months old child of a Mexican family living north of the old round house building, died Saturday morning.

Walter Armstrong of this city was awarded twenty-five dollars Friday at the Elm Creek Round-Up as third prize in one of the riding contests held there.

Mrs. Fred Owings, formerly of this city, spent the week end here visiting friends while enroute to eastern points by auto from Sidney. She is accompanied by her brother C. Burling.

Mrs. Kate Cantrell, of Industry, Ill., Mrs. Belle Miller and daughter Mildred, of Trinidad, Col., and A. Colby, also of Trinidad, who spent a week at the home of P. H. McEvoy, left for Colorado yesterday morning.

J. Loren Hastings who for the past several months has been with the Naval Training Association in the recruiting service and the Department of Justice, has been awarded with a commissioned office in the commissary department. He has orders to leave Monday for the western coast.

RAILROAD NOTES

Charles Rincker began work as night ticket agent in the Union Pacific depot a few days ago.

Conductor William Hubbard left Saturday morning for Cheyenne to spend a few days on business.

District Foreman J. W. McGraw went to Cheyenne Friday evening on business for the Union Pacific company.

Engineer James McNeel who has been working on the Laramie division for several months returned here Friday evening for a short visit.

Dell Smith of Omaha, grand chairman of the B. of L. F. and E., was here Friday and addressed the local lodge at their meeting that evening.

Asa Wright, formerly of the local shops who has been employed in Grand Island for several months came a few days ago to visit Vous Curtis for a week.

Joseph Larson, formerly of this city who was recently transferred to Green River to take a position with the Union Pacific Co., spent the week end here visiting friends.

Special to Washington

A special train of five cars and twenty passengers passed through this city yesterday morning enroute from San Francisco to Washington, D. C. On board were Assistant Secretary of State Long, Viscount Ishii, of the Japanese commission, Brigadier General Iron, U. S. A., J. N. Nye, chief of secret service of the state department U. S. A., and a Japanese and U. S. admiral. General Louks was in charge of the train. The general was agent at Lexington in 1867 when that station was known as Plum Creek. The party will confer with President Wilson on war conditions. At small stations along the route the party leave the train for one hour for exercise.

Socialist Lecture.

W. B. McDougal the socialist who delivered an address at the court house Saturday evening to a large and appreciative audience will return to North Platte and deliver lectures at the following places:

- Bignell School House Aug. 21.
- Hall School House Aug. 22.
- Osgood School House Aug. 23.
- North Platte Court House Aug. 24.
- Hershey Aug. 25.
- Everybody invited to these lectures.

Autos Collide South of Town.

G. S. Jewett, of Lodgepole, who was returning from Omaha Friday afternoon in a new Dort car, collided with an Oakland car driven by C. E. Warden on the irrigation bridge south of town. The Jewett car has a broken right spindle, fenders smashed and a front axle bent while on the Oakland car the fenders, crank shaft and one wheel were damaged. The force with which they met threw the cars to the south side of the bridge.

New Directories Out Yesterday

The new Hoffline directory of this city was distributed yesterday. It contains on alphabetically arranged list of business firms, private citizens, street directory and miscellaneous information in addition to a list of taxpayers of Lincoln county outside of North Platte giving their location by section township and range with post-office address.

Change in Parking Cars.

New parking rules went into effect Saturday on 6th street between Dewey and Locust and on 4th street between Pine and Dewey. Cars will be parked similar to the manner used for parking cars at the Hendy-Ogier and Davis garage. The south side of the street will be used for this purpose.

Resumes Former Business

Dr. Walter Crook, formerly of this city, who has resided in Omaha for a couple of years, has returned to this city to make his home, having purchased his former business lately conducted by Dr. Charles Adams who has entered the military service. Mrs. Crook and the children will return here in the near future.

Former Teachers Receive Commissions

George Davies, formerly of the local high school faculty, who has been in training at Fort Snelling for several weeks, was appointed a captain last week. Mr. Hanner, who was also a local instructor was appointed second lieutenant in the artillery.

Mrs. Frank Buchanan was hostess to the M. M. M. club last week at a farewell party in honor of their president Mrs. J. H. Hegarty. Mrs. Leslie Baskins was elected to fill the vacancy caused by Mrs. Hegarty's departure.

Funeral of Mrs. Laura Donaldson

The funeral of Mrs. Laura Donaldson, of Sedgwick, Col., who died the latter part of last week at a local hospital, was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her mother in the Fourth Ward. Death was caused by a severe attack of gall stones. The deceased was born in this city in 1883 and was the daughter of Mrs. Anna Schwerdt. Other surviving relatives are her husband and five children of Sedgwick, Col., brother Phillip, of Dawson, N. M., two brothers George and Loren and two sisters Mrs. Theodore Lowe, Sr., and Mrs. William Adamson of this city. Interment was made in the North Platte cemetery.

Change in Passenger Trains

Beginning tomorrow several changes in time and make-up of a number of Union Pacific passenger trains will be made in order to conserve passenger equipment and reserve engines for handling freight for war purposes in future. Train No. 15 which now leaves for Denver at 11:30 p. m. will consolidate in Omaha with No. 3 which arrives here at 1:20 a. m. and local work will be done east of this city. The trains will divide here and proceed as formerly. No. 14 from Denver and No. 10 from Cheyenne will combine here between 5:30 and 6:00 p. m. and do local work to Omaha. No. 4 will do local work through Nebraska and reach Omaha at 7 a. m. On trains Nos. 1 and 2 and 7 and 8 now all Pullman, tourist and chair cars will be used and regular fare charged instead of extra fare formerly asked on these trains. By these changes a dozen or more engines can be put in freight use.

Master Gordon Whelan entertained fifteen boys and girls the latter part of last week at a party in honor of his fourth birthday. The afternoon was spent in outdoor games and Gordon received many remembrances.

E. L. Doran, of Toppenish, Wash., is expected here today to visit his brother Charles Whelan for a few days after which in company with Mr. Whelan he will leave for New York to visit with their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Stotts, Mrs. Downing and Dr. Thornburg, of Yale, Iowa, an auto party enroute to western points, will visit at the Frank Buchanan home this week.

The Thomas Healey property on west Fifth street was purchased last week by Mr. and Mrs. George McGinley, of Keystone.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Josephine McKeown began work in the O'Connor store yesterday morning.

Mrs. Giddeon and daughter Ruth, of Doonaphin, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Giddeon, left Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. H. Hegarty left the latter part of last week for Denver to make her home in future.

Frank Buchanan will leave shortly for Omaha and combine business and pleasure for a few days.

Mrs. Scott Shaner was arraigned in the county court Friday for assaulting her husband. She plead not guilty and the case was set for Monday August 27th.

Claude Weingand and son Alvin returned yesterday morning from Denver where they went by auto last week. Mrs. Weingand will visit in Estes Park before returning.

A complaint was filed in the county court yesterday against Oliver H. Wayman for assaulting Fred Nelson.

Fourteen Lincoln county teachers were here the latter part of last week to take examinations.

Walter Hoy was arrested at Shelton Saturday and brought to the local jail. He was charged with forging a check for $17.00 on a Mr. Bentley of Shelton. He remitted the amount and was released Sunday evening.

The Presbyterian congregation and Sunday school will hold their annual picnic, Friday, August 24, at the city park. There will be conveyances at the church at three o'clock for those needing them. Supper will be served at 6:30.

Rooms will be needed for the accommodation of teachers attending the Lincoln County Teachers' Institute to be held in North Platte September 3 to 7. If you have a room which you can rent, please phone Black 502. 62-4 AILEEN GANTT, Co. Supt.

FINAL CLEAN-UP SALE

OF

Wash Goods

We are offering what we have left of Wash Goods at greatly reduced prices to move them all out quickly.

- LOT 1. Striped and Floral designs in good quality Batiste per yard. . . . . 11c
- LOT 2. Fancy Striped Voiles and printed patterns regular values 25 and 35c per yard. . . . . 19c
- LOT 3. Fine quality Wash Goods selling at 50c in a regular way price. . . . . 29c

There is only a limited amount of these goods left so come early and make your selection.

Wilcox Department Store.

Cool Breeze Indoors

The cool breeze of the mountain and sea shore may be enjoyed in the home or office equipped with an electric Fan. A wonderful sleep producer. Insures the baby's health in hot weather. Operating cost is but a fraction of a cent an hour.

North Platte Light & Power Co.

Clothes don't make a man, but

Many a man owes his success to the fact that he is particular about his personal appearance. First impressions often determine a man's future standing and a good appearance materially assists in making a good impression.

Hence the importance of selecting clothes with care; of selecting styles which best suit your type of figure; of obtaining a perfect fit.

When you buy clothing here you are served by intelligent salesmen who study your particular needs and sell you apparel that meets your individual requirements.

That isn't all; you get full value for every dollar you spend. Style, fit, quality and workmanship is always A number one. Don't take our word for it. Come in and see the splendid line of suits we are showing.

ADLER'S COLLEGIAN CLOTHES

$15.00 to $35.00

Ask to see the New Oak Park Model.

Harcourt Clothing Co.

Many a fellow who is "at sea" about clothes finds just what he wants when he lands at this store.

(To be continued)