Eighty-one barrels of beer were unearthed in the basement of the Millard hotel in Omaha. The "find" is valued at $5,832 as beer prices now prevail in Nebraska. Paul Kruger, manager of the hotel, was sentenced to sixty days in jail for having the beer in his possession.

J. O. Thompson and family, of Luzerne, Col., are visiting old time friends in Nichols and Hinman precincts. Mr. Thompson was one of the early settlers in the irrigated section west of town, moving back to Colorado a number of years ago. That he is successful is attested by the fact that he sold his 1918 potato crop for twenty-six thousand dollars.

Oscar Neale Visits Friends.

Oscar Neale, formerly of this city, now head of the rural school section at the normal school at Stevens Point, Wis., visited friends in town Wednesday. He has been in Nebraska for a month delivering addresses before teachers' institutes. For several years Mr. Neale was a member of the faculty at the Kearney state normal.

Adjudged Insane

Miss Annie Miller was tried before the board of insanity Tuesday afternoon and will be taken to Engleside in two weeks at which time the quarantine for small pox will be raised from the asylum there. Miss Miller is forty-seven years of age and has been in a demented condition for a number of years. She was taken to Lincoln in 1911 and returned here in 1912. Her present condition necessitates her removal from the home of relatives at Garfield with whom she had been residing.

Demand For Cars Heavy

War conditions have no terror for the man who needs, or thinks he needs, a car, and the local demand for those of certain makes far exceeds the supply. Hendy & Ogler, the Ford dealers, have none, are away back on orders and are not certain when they can get any; J. V. Romigh received a car of Dodges this week, but is still six carloads short of filling orders; and the Davis Auto Co. could use a hundred or more Buicks that they can not get.

As a result of the inability to get cars of these makes, naturally some of those who placed orders are buying cars of other makes.

Brady News.

(From the Vindicator.)

Vincent Soderman had so far recovered from his rheumatic attack last Saturday that he was able to leave the hospital at North Platte. He came down to Brady Sunday morning.

Soderman Bros. finished the Craig school house on the south side last Saturday. It is said to be a handsome little country school building. Joe and Justus Soderman, accompanied by Chas. Nelson, went to Brule this week to build a new residence on one of Gus. Schulz' section near that town.

Ed Gilman, who has been visiting relatives at friends in and around Jamestown, Colo., for the past few weeks, while there went out and relocated an old silver mine that he had abandoned in the early days. He has filed his claim and made his improvements and will go back again next spring and work the mine for all it is worth. He brought back a number of fine samples of ore.

A petition is being circulated this week to retain Rev. Botkin as pastor of the Brady M. E. church for another year. Rev. Botkin has proved to be the most popular minister the church has ever had, and the petition is being signed by nearly everyone in this vicinity. Rev. Botkin preaches his last sermon before going to conference next Sunday. All the signers should come out and attend church Sunday evening.

Henry Irving Dodge's story, "Skinner's Dress Suit," which made hundreds of thousands of readers of the Saturday Evening Post purr with pleased satisfaction and indulge in hearty laughter of the most approved type, will be the feature attraction at the Crystal tonight. When one is not smiling inwardly or laughing outwardly, his heart is stirred by some trait of character that shows the best in human nature.
