"I am really living this picture," Douglas Fairbanks was heard to remark recently between scenes of "Wild and Woolly," his newest Artcraft film, coming to the Keith theatre next Monday and Tuesday. "I'd rather play western pictures than eat and when I retire from the amusement world I hope to gather a gang of cowboys around me and live on the great plains. That's the life. No cabarets, limousines or elevator apartments for me." The fact that Douglas meant what he said will be readily evidenced in this film. Judging from advanced reports which indicate that it out-Fairbanks anything this athletic screen star has ever displayed.

DRAFTED MEN ARE GIVEN AN ENTHUSIASTIC FAREWELL.

Forty stalwart and sturdy young men, representing the second call of men from Lincoln county, left for Ft. Riley yesterday morning. The departure was marked by a fitting demonstration in which hundreds took part, and each man going could not help but feel that he was leaving behind many friends—some unknown to him—who wished him well.

The drafted men assembled at the court house at 7:30, and with members of the G. A. R. and S. W. V. as color bearers and escort and headed by the municipal band, the large procession moved down Dewey street to the depot. Along the line of march the sidewalks were well crowded with people and at the depot there was a crush. The men were formed in line and while the good-byes were said the band rendered several selections.

While the boys were in line at the court house they were presented with comfort bags by the Red Cross Society and enroute to the depot were showered with flowers and presented with button hole bouquets by girls of the parochial and public schools.

There were some weeping mothers, sisters and sweethearts, but generally speaking relatives stood the parting stain well. Practically all the assembled people grasped the hands of the boys and wished them well. As the train pulled out the band played the national air, there was much cheering and waving of hats and the departing boys heartily responded to these last farewells.

On the train were the contingents from Sedgewick county, Col., and from Keith county.

TO TRADE

Eighty acres of land in Morrill County to exchange for city property. C. J. Stevens, 121 W. Tenth St., North Platte.

The Sammy Girls' Club met Wednesday evening at the McGraw home. A patriotic talk was given by Rev. J. McDaid. Dr. T. J. Kerr will give an address at the meeting September 30th. The membership has increased from twelve to thirty-four.

It required a 4,000-word telegram for Postmaster McEvoy to tell the federal government what he had learned in regard to the coal situation in North Platte and at that he only furnished the information which the federal authorities asked that he ascertain. The present prices of all qualities of coal was quoted, as well as the price one, two, three and four years ago, the freight charges from the different mines and a lot of other information which will be useful in determining whether we are paying more for coal than we should. People generally will be glad to know that the government has taken up the matter of coal prices in the west as well as in the east.

Mexicans are Deserters . . .
Five Mexicans who had been summoned to the colors and were to have left yesterday for Ft. Riley failed to show up, and can now be classed as deserters. They will be reported to the federal authorities and it is probable an effort will be made to locate them. Through their failure to appear alternates were compelled to take their places.

Three others scheduled to go yesterday were excused. They were: Frank Stuart, of this city, who is sick in a Cheyenne hospital; John Gilman of Brady had a brother injured and was allowed to remain for a time, and George Roberts, an alternate, suffered the fracture of a collar bone and could not go. To fill these three vacancies and the places of the five deserters, eight alternates were sent as follows: Milo Dancer, Leonard Banks, Otto Gewecke, Jerry Snyder, W. J. Huebner, Dave Clark, Howard Diener and Ernest Berry.

Patriotic Meeting

The floor of the Franklin auditorium was well filled and quite a few gallery seats occupied at the patriotic meeting held Wednesday evening in honor of the drafted men who left for Ft. Riley yesterday morning and given under the auspices of the County Defense council and the Red Cross society. F. C. Patterson presided and the program included a reading by Mrs. W. E. Owens, violin solo by Trevlyn Doucet, reading by Miss LeDioyt, vocal solos by Miss White and addresses by J. G. Beeler, J. E. Evans, and Judge Hoagland. The audience was very enthusiastic and applauded heartily.

Nearly all of the forty-six drafted men were in the room, and at the close of the program the audience filed by shook the hands of the boys and wished them good luck.

One Year Ago

I came to North Platte and started selling Dodge Brothers cars in a small place on West Sixth Street. In the past year I have sold over 200 cars in this territory, and have tried to give my buyers good honest cars and real service after they had purchased.

Last month we moved to our new building on the corner of Sixth and Locust, where we have better facilities for the sale and care of our cars and cordially invite you to come in and look around at any time. I believe in the cars I sell, and I want you people to believe in my willingness to treat you fairly at all times!

I stand for the sale of honest cars at honest prices, no gifts or rebates, the same deal to everyone, the same price to everyone, and the same real service to everyone after they have bought. We carry repairs for the cars we sell, an accident does not mean long delay in getting parts.

I have hopes of deserving your patronage for another and many other years, and I thank you all for the satisfaction that my first year in North Platte has been to me through your help.
