WESTERN NEBRASKA SUGAR RUSHED TO THE EAST.

Omaha—Twenty to thirty carloads of new sugar from the beet sugar factories of western Nebraska and Colorado pass through Omaha each day to supply the east, although little if any is stopped to apply the needs of Omaha consumers.

Local dealers explain this rampant neglect of Omaha from the fact that the sugar shortage was greater, of longer duration and more acute in the east than it has been in the west. Thus the first sugar from this year's crop of beets is rushed to the east to check the pinch there.

Among the jobbers and grocers in Omaha, however, there is a feeling that the situation will now be rapidly relieved. For some days many restaurants have taken the sugar bowls from the tables, and have set them out to a guest only when he ordered a cereal or some other food which normally requires sugar to make it palatable. When coffee is served the waiter asks the guest if he cares for sugar. If he does the waiter brings one or two lumps on a little plate.

Most stores have limited customers to 25 cents worth of sugar, and some have on certain days limited them to 10 cents worth. Today, however, Hayden Brothers are selling as much as 30 cents worth to a customer.

At Rest on French Soil

Uncover men, here lie three soldiers brave,
The first to give their lives our Liberty to save,
On French soil we have laid them to rest,
They gave their lives, they gave their very best.

In hallowed ground we've placed their sacred dust,
Their souls are with that God who deals death just,
Their deeds recorded now in song and story,
Through endless years with increasing glory.

Of their own free will they left their happy homes,
To fight for freedom within sight of Pater's domes,
'Tis right we pause a moment to honor the dead,
Renewing our fealty for stern duties ahead.

So we are coming ENRIGHT, GRESHAM and HAY,
If need be five million in battle array,
With determined zeal and unflinching trust,
To fight LIBERTY'S foe, and to win, WE MUST.

Kearney Wins From Locals

The North Platte football team was defeated at Kearney Friday by the high school team of that city by a score of sixteen to nothing. The Kearney team outweighed the North Platte boys eight pounds to the man. Norris and Pizer suffered knockout injuries in the game and were forced to retire. For a time it was feared Norris' injuries were serious but he has since about recovered his normal condition.

Burden on U. S.

London—The fall of Premier Kerensky means an indefinite prolongation of the war, with a heavier burden for the United States and her allies to bear up under, according to views expressed in nearly all of the London press. None go into the situation in detail but there is none that seems to doubt authenticity of the latest Russian revolt and the extent to which it has spread.

Mrs. Geo. B. Dent left Sunday for Omaha where she will visit for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Dent has just recovered from an illness that confined her to the house for two or three weeks.

Erady, which had been without a resident physician, has had that want supplied. Dr. C. E. Vandiver, lately located at Ogalalla, will give the people of Brady and vicinity the benefit of his services.

The Romigh garage received two cars of Dodges last week, which only partially filled the orders on file. The Hendy-Ogier Co. also received shipments of Fords, but that company is still thirty short on filling its orders.

The congestion in the local yards was relieved to such an extent Friday that fifty-seven cars of local freight which had been "buried," was dug out and switched on the depot tracks. Some of these cars had been in the yards for ten days.

Local dealers are receiving more or less coal each day, but none of them are getting stock ahead, the receipts being just about sufficient to supply the demand this warm weather. Should cold and stormy weather come the story would be different.

A representative of a manufacturing confectioner who was in town Saturday stated that this would be his last trip on the road, as the scarcity of sugar would compel his firm to practically go out of business. What is true of his firm, he said, is true of all others. Confections, however, are a luxury that we can get along without.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elliott returned Saturday from a visit with their son Ben and wife at Madison, Wis. Ben is now the head of the mechanical engineering extension of the University of Wisconsin at a salary of $2,800 a year, and has charge of a number of the manufacturing centers in that state.

Coal Costs too Much

When you need a little extra heat about the house, light a Perfection Heater instead of starting an expensive coal fire. The Perfection warms the spot room you want heated for much less than coal costs and without the dust and dirt. Burns eight hours on a gallon of kerosene.

It is clean and dependable; costs little and lasts long. Can be carried from room to room more easily than a small chair. At hardware, furniture, or department stores. More than 3,000,000 Perfection Heaters in use.

For best results use PERFECTION Kerosene.

WHEATLESS AND MEATLESS DAYS FOR NEBRASKA

Governor Neffle has revised the schedule recommending days on which all are asked to abstain from eating meat or wheat foods. This is to get Nebraska into line with the rest of the country under the request from the national food administrator that all voluntarily observe one day each week on which no meat will be consumed and one on which they will eat no wheat product. It is not intended that any should fast on these days, only that they use some substitute for the foods to be conserved. Reiteration of the argument in favor of this saving is warranted by the importance of the need. Wheat and meat must be had for the armies and for the hungry abroad and so the home folks are requested to deny themselves just a little. Along with the observation of the days designated reasonable economy and rigid watchfulness in the care of food should be the constant practice. Food is vital to the boys who are going out to fight for freedom and small savings will make a tremendous aggregate. If victory comes it will be because everybody has done something to help.—Omaha Bee.

Stenographer and Typewriter Exams. Until further notice examination for bookkeeper-typewriter and clerk-bookkeeper, for both men and women, will be given every Tuesday. The commission urges that qualified persons take examination for positions as stenographer and typewriter as the supply is not nearly equal to the demand. Women are especially urged to take the examination if qualified, and if not to take a course of study that will fit them, as this is the only way in which some can do their "bit."

See Mrs. Gleason at the postoffice for information and application blanks.

County News.

Albert Morris sold his quarter section of land south of Hershey the first of the week to a party from the eastern part of the state, receiving for same $30 per acre and $15 per acre for the wheat planted making the total price paid $45 per acre. Albert has now disposed of his holdings south of Hershey and as stated in a recent issue will move south of Cozad in the spring where he owns a farm.—Hershey Times.

Dr. Gordon made a hurried trip to Omaha, Friday, with his thirteen year old son, Lowell, who had swallowed a sandbur. The sandbur had lodged in his throat, and was removed with some difficulty, but the lad is alright now. Lowell was engaged in burning leaves when he annexed the bur, and in attempting to blow it from his mitten drew it into his throat when a gust of smoke momentarily choked him.—Sutherland Free Lance.

Fresh country eggs, even at forty-five cents a dozen, are practically unobtainable. One grocer said Saturday that he had not received an egg from farmers last week. He had attempted to secure them at Cozad, Gothenburg and other towns, but was told that the supply was hardly equal to the home consumption. It is possible, however, to secure storage eggs in about any quantity you desire.

All the teachers in the Lexington schools from the first to the eighth grades, inclusive, filed a petition with the school board last Monday night asking for a twenty-five per cent raise in their salaries. The board has taken the matter under consideration.

Congressman Kinkaid spent Saturday forenoon in town visiting friends while enroute east from Gering, where he had gone to investigate the new Goshen Hole irrigation project which will have a main canal over one hundred miles long and will cost $7,500,000. It will require about three years to complete the work. Congressman Kinkaid, Congressman Mondell and Senator Warren, the two latter of Wyoming, are responsible for securing this project, which eventually will mean much for western Nebraska.
