The Soldier.
We have heard from one of our correspondents abroad—somewhere in darkest England, says an exchange. And he relates that an American soldier accompanied him to a shop in London, where he wished to purchase a book. And while the soldier was waiting, he, too, saw a book he thought he'd like, and he asked the young woman his price.
"Three and six, sir," answered the shop assistant.
"Which is the three and which is the six?" asked the soldier.
"There aren't two sorts, sir—this book is three and six."
"Well, that makes nine," said the soldier. "Can't you add? I'll take it. Nine what—pennies or pounds?"

Laundered Soldier's Watch.
Being laundered didn't hurt a watch at San Antonio, Tex. The watch was thoughtlessly left by the owner in the pocket of his army shirt. In the pocket it was carried to the laundry and went through the big washing machine. One of the laundry employees felt it in the pocket just in time to save it from going through the wringer. The watch was still marking time.

A Christmas Blessing
By Rev. Dr. Howard Buffield

MAY the blessing of the light that shown at midnight come to the hearts that are shadowed and the homes that are dark.

¶ May the blessing of the Manger Cradle come to that innumerable company against whom the doors of hope and peace and rest are shut.

¶ May the blessing of the Holy Child come to every one who has forgotten that thou, O God, art his father and that all men are brothers.

¶ May the blessing of the Guiding star come to those who wander in the night and cannot find the homeward way.

¶ May the blessing of the Stable come upon all hearts, wakening a kindly sense of kindred with every living thing that walks the field and forest or wings the air or passes along the paths of the seas.—New York World.

Christmas Observance

THERE is very little of the right motive in commemorating the birth of Jesus the Savior. The spirit of the modern Christmas is to have a good old time, feasting and business activity, with the Holy Child Jesus a figurehead.

Such is a very great offense to Almighty God. An offering to God in the spirit of righteousness, by humility, worship, mortification, in self denial and good works, should be the first duty in celebrating Christmas.

Really a number of hours similar to Lent ought to be considered, after which would come the feast and rejoicing.

Respectful thankfulness to the Lord God of Hosts for his love and pity for a sinful race in his priceless gift of a Savior—such would be a fitting grace before partaking of the good things and many blessings that he has pleased to bestow on all people. What would a person think in giving a reception and supper to have the guests hasten to the dining hall and devour the food without giving the honor and respect due to the host first? Almighty God is treated in a similar manner in celebrating the modern Christmas.—George Cashel in Philadelphia Press.

The Old Christmas Hymns.
Happy is the man or woman who, having left behind the schooldays and the home gatherings, still sings the old hymns and joins in the readings of the Christmas chapters in some simple church service designed to perpetuate the true spirit of the day.

Mother Mary

Soft, soft, so sleeps the little stranger;
Croon, croon in tender notes and mild!
Lovingly beside the lowly manger
Broods the Mother Mary o'er the Child.
Hush, hush, for far away lies danger!
See, see how winsomely he smiled!
Yearningly beside the lowly manger
Bends the Mother Mary o'er the Child.
Time, thou art the ruthless reaper,
And yet we all must needs be reconciled,
For still for us beside the lowly manger
Leans the Mother Mary o'er the Child!

—Clinton Scollard in Ainslie's.

Christmas Carol
What Child Is This?

t. What Child is this, who laid to rest, On Ma-ry's lap is sleep-ing? Whom an-gels greet with an-thems sweet, While shep-herds watch and keep-ing?

Chorus.
This, this is Christ the King; Whom shep-herds guard and an-gels sing: Haste, haste to bring Him laud, The Babe, the Son of Ma-ry!

Why lies He in such mean estate,
Where ox and ass are feeding?
Good Christian, fear! for sinners here
The silent Word is pleading:
Nails, spear, shall pierce Him through,
The Cross be borne, for me, for you;
Hail, hail, the Word made flesh,
The Babe, the Son of Mary!

So bring Him incense, gold, and myrrh,
Come peasant, King to own Him;
The King of kings, salvation brings;
Let loving hearts embrace Him.
Raise, raise, the song on high,
The Virgin sings her lullaby;
Joy, joy, for Christ is born,
The Babe, the Son of Mary!

Had To Give Up
Was Almost Frantic With the Pain and Suffering of Kidney Complaint. Doan's Made Her Well.

Mrs. Lydia Shuster, 1838 Margaret St., Frankford, Pa., says: "A cold started my kidney trouble. My back began to ache and got sore and lame. My joints and ankles became swollen and painful and it felt as if needles were sticking into them. I finally had to give up and went from bad to worse. My kidneys didn't act right and the secretions were scanty and distressing. I had awful dizzy spells when everything before me turned black; one time I couldn't see for twenty minutes. Awful pains in my head set me almost frantic and I was so nervous, I couldn't stand the least noise. How I suffered! Often I didn't care whether I lived or died. "I couldn't sleep on account of the terrible pains in my back and head. Nothing seemed to do me a bit of good until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. I could soon see they were helping me; the backache stopped, my kidneys were regulated and I no longer had any dizzy spells or rheumatic pains. I still take Doan's occasionally and they keep my kidneys in good health." "Sworn to before me." F. W. CASSIDY, JR., Notary Public.

A Touch of Nature.
The scene is a crowded bus. A soldier, back from the trenches, sitting in a corner near the entrance, puts his hand into his pocket for his fare, and pulls out a shilling and some coppers. The bus jolts violently and, to the soldier's dismay, the shilling slips from his fingers just as lights go out, as they always do in London, in these days, when a bridge is being crossed. The passengers with one accord begin to grope for the soldier's shilling. "Fraid it rolled off, mate," says the conductor. Then lights go up again, and discover three passengers each holding out the shilling.—Christian Science Monitor.
