FIRST PICTURE OF THE "RED GUARD"

Miss Nora Bailey, whose singing has cheered thousands of soldiers of Russian army and Soviet fleet, has been in the United States, and the name that the name of the "Red Guard," about which much has been heard during the overturning of the government, is a mystery.

AMERICAN SCHOONER AFIRE OFF FRANCE

Photograph of an American schooner at St. Nazaire, France, whose crew was set on fire by enemy. The ships of the allied fleet are to be reared on the ruins of burning craft, for German commanders have adopted the system of a disabled ship to distract the British in their pursuit within torpedo distance.

IDEAL TRAINING GROUND IN CUBA FOR AMERICA'S FIGHTERS

A division of United States marines is being given intense training in a camp near the battlefield of San Juan, Cuba, and fills the American flag. The photograph shows a Lizzie machine gun being practiced at the camp.

FIRST PHOTOGRAPH OF THE PEACE PARLEY AT BREST-LITOVSK

First photograph recorded in America of the Brest-Litovsk peace conference at Brest-Litovsk, showing the conference in session and Prince Leopold of Belgium signing the agreement for an armistice.

DIGGING FOR COAL IN THE ASH HEAPS OF NEW YORK

Some idea of the scarcity of fuel in the East is given from this photograph, showing poor people of the East State of New York digging for coal in the city ash heaps on the site of the ELLIS ISLAND courthouse that is to be erected.

IDEAL TRAINING GROUND IN CUBA FOR AMERICA’S FIGHTERS

A division of United States marines is being given intense training in a camp near the battlefield of San Juan, Cuba, and fills the American flag. The photograph shows a Lizzie machine gun being practiced at the camp.

FIRST PICTURE OF THE “RED GUARD”

Miss Nora Bailey, whose singing has cheered thousands of soldiers of Russian army and Soviet fleet, has been in the United States, and the name that the name of the “Red Guard,” about which much has been heard during the overturning of the government, is a mystery.

AMERICAN SCHOONER AFIRE OFF FRANCE

Photograph of an American schooner at St. Nazaire, France, whose crew was set on fire by enemy. The ships of the allied fleet are to be reared on the ruins of burning craft, for German commanders have adopted the system of a disabled ship to distract the British in their pursuit within torpedo distance.

IDEAL TRAINING GROUND IN CUBA FOR AMERICA’S FIGHTERS

A division of United States marines is being given intense training in a camp near the battlefield of San Juan, Cuba, and fills the American flag. The photograph shows a Lizzie machine gun being practiced at the camp.

FIRST PICTURE OF THE “RED GUARD”

Miss Nora Bailey, whose singing has cheered thousands of soldiers of Russian army and Soviet fleet, has been in the United States, and the name that the name of the “Red Guard,” about which much has been heard during the overturning of the government, is a mystery.

AMERICAN SCHOONER AFIRE OFF FRANCE

Photograph of an American schooner at St. Nazaire, France, whose crew was set on fire by enemy. The ships of the allied fleet are to be reared on the ruins of burning craft, for German commanders have adopted the system of a disabled ship to distract the British in their pursuit within torpedo distance.

IDEAL TRAINING GROUND IN CUBA FOR AMERICA’S FIGHTERS

A division of United States marines is being given intense training in a camp near the battlefield of San Juan, Cuba, and fills the American flag. The photograph shows a Lizzie machine gun being practiced at the camp.

FIRST PICTURE OF THE “RED GUARD”

Miss Nora Bailey, whose singing has cheered thousands of soldiers of Russian army and Soviet fleet, has been in the United States, and the name that the name of the “Red Guard,” about which much has been heard during the overturning of the government, is a mystery.

AMERICAN SCHOONER AFIRE OFF FRANCE

Photograph of an American schooner at St. Nazaire, France, whose crew was set on fire by enemy. The ships of the allied fleet are to be reared on the ruins of burning craft, for German commanders have adopted the system of a disabled ship to distract the British in their pursuit within torpedo distance.

IDEAL TRAINING GROUND IN CUBA FOR AMERICA’S FIGHTERS

A division of United States marines is being given intense training in a camp near the battlefield of San Juan, Cuba, and fills the American flag. The photograph shows a Lizzie machine gun being practiced at the camp.

FIRST PICTURE OF THE “RED GUARD”

Miss Nora Bailey, whose singing has cheered thousands of soldiers of Russian army and Soviet fleet, has been in the United States, and the name that the name of the “Red Guard,” about which much has been heard during the overturning of the government, is a mystery.

AMERICAN SCHOONER AFIRE OFF FRANCE

Photograph of an American schooner at St. Nazaire, France, whose crew was set on fire by enemy. The ships of the allied fleet are to be reared on the ruins of burning craft, for German commanders have adopted the system of a disabled ship to distract the British in their pursuit within torpedo distance.

IDEAL TRAINING GROUND IN CUBA FOR AMERICA’S FIGHTERS

A division of United States marines is being given intense training in a camp near the battlefield of San Juan, Cuba, and fills the American flag. The photograph shows a Lizzie machine gun being practiced at the camp.

FIRST PICTURE OF THE “RED GUARD”

Miss Nora Bailey, whose singing has cheered thousands of soldiers of Russian army and Soviet fleet, has been in the United States, and the name that the name of the “Red Guard,” about which much has been heard during the overturning of the government, is a mystery.

AMERICAN SCHOONER AFIRE OFF FRANCE

Photograph of an American schooner at St. Nazaire, France, whose crew was set on fire by enemy. The ships of the allied fleet are to be reared on the ruins of burning craft, for German commanders have adopted the system of a disabled ship to distract the British in their pursuit within torpedo distance.

IDEAL TRAINING GROUND IN CUBA FOR AMERICA’S FIGHTERS

A division of United States marines is being given intense training in a camp near the battlefield of San Juan, Cuba, and fills the American flag. The photograph shows a Lizzie machine gun being practiced at the camp.

FIRST PICTURE OF THE “RED GUARD”

Miss Nora Bailey, whose singing has cheered thousands of soldiers of Russian army and Soviet fleet, has been in the United States, and the name that the name of the “Red Guard,” about which much has been heard during the overturning of the government, is a mystery.

AMERICAN SCHOONER AFIRE OFF FRANCE

Photograph of an American schooner at St. Nazaire, France, whose crew was set on fire by enemy. The ships of the allied fleet are to be reared on the ruins of burning craft, for German commanders have adopted the system of a disabled ship to distract the British in their pursuit within torpedo distance.