GRAND CHIEF STONE CRITICIZES THE RAILROADS.

Lack of preparation by the railroads appear to to meet the winter weather was the cause of the great traffic congestion, Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, told the airroad wage commission Wednesday in asking a minimum wage of $6 a day and ponalty time and a half

"Many roads went into the winter with no provision for taking care of their motive power," he said. There were no doors on round-houses, no means of heating. "I know one instance where 25 to 30 engines were kept burning all night, using perhaps one ton of coal each an hour to keep them from freezing.
