NEW MOVIE SHOW FOR THE BENEFIT OF RED CROSS.

W. J. Tiley and Ed Dickey have been in Omaha this week making contracts with film companies and purchasing apparatus for a new moving picture show that will be opened in the Lloyd opera house, which has been leased for that purpose, and which will be operated for the benefit of the Red Cross chapter of this city.

The work being done by the Red Cross chapter has reached such enormous proportions that the finance committee has for some time past been up against the proposition of how to secure funds with which to buy material for the army of workers. At the present rate material is being worked up, practically one thousand dollars is needed each month to purchase these supplies. With the view of assisting in furnishing these funds a picture show was suggested, hence the visit of Messrs. Tiley and Dickey to Omaha and the authority given them to contract for films and buy the necessary apparatus.

The work connected with the operation of the show will be largely donated by citizens, thus reducing the cost to a minimum, and providing, it is hoped, quite a monthly fund for the Red Cross.

There is no spirit of antagonism to existing picture shows in the city in this move. The only desire is to create funds for a phase of the war work that is absolutely necessary and in which the women of the town are engaging with such great enthusiasm.

"Father and Son" Banquet.

Seventy-five fathers and sons were present at a "father and son" banquet held at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, enjoyed an excellent dinner served by the ladies of the church, and listened to several toasts.

The attendants were members of the congregation, and each one seemed to thoroughly enjoy the evening. Rev. Curry presided as toastmaster, and in his introductory remarks spoke of the Big Brother movement in many of the churches in which young churchmen throw a protecting arm around the younger boys of the community.

The toasts proposed by Dr. Curry were responded to as follows: "My Boy and I," Elmer Coates; "My Dad and I," Will Rittner; "If I had a Boy," W. H. McDonald; "The Making of a Man," W. P. Snyder. A short talk was also made on camp life by Butler Miltenberger.

Mrs. Harry James arrived from Denver yesterday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Tatum.

BIG ATTENDANCE AT FOOD MEETING LAST EVENING.

The floor of the Franklin auditorium was packed and the gallery well filled by an audience that assembled to hear Mrs. Meyer, of Iowa, and Senator Colby, of New Jersey, tell of food conditions abroad and the necessity of self-denial on the part of the people of the United States in order that our boys abroad as well as the people of the countries at war might not suffer. County Food Administrator Goodman presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers. Mrs. Meyer, who has a son under the colors in France, is a dramatic and forceful speaker, and she did not hesitate to call a spade by its rightful name. She chided the American people for their lack of patriotism in not more fully complying with the food administrator's requests for greater food conservation, and strongly intimated that as people we have a yellow streak that is quite noticeable. We are unwilling, she said, to make the sacrifices the conditions require that we should make because we do not realize that we are at war. Mrs. Meyer made a strong appeal to the audience to help win the war by practicing economy of food supplies.

Senator Colby, who was a member of the U. S. commission sent to France to investigate food conditions, told of his experiences in Belgium and France and of the conditions as the commission found them. As a result of the investigations, he urged the absolute necessity of food conservation on the part of the people of this country. At the close of his address, which was very interesting throughout, he asked that the audience go on record as to their willingness to practice food conserving by standing, and every one stood.

The meeting will no doubt result in good in North Platte; we are pretty certain to exercise greater economy in the use of those foodstuffs which are essential to the success of our boys in the trenches.

Will Talk to Fathers and Sons.

If you believe the old saying "Fine feathers don't take fine birds," just see Olive Thomas at the Crystal Saturday afternoon and evening in "Betty Takes a Hand," in which she appears first as a poor little girl and then as a fine lady. The transformation worked by the "fine feathers" in this picture should prove convincing. Incidentally Miss Thomas wears a black gown that is stunning.

I. E. Gilbert was called to Callaway last week to attend the funeral of his brother O. O. Gilbert, who died at Rochester, Minn., February 16th, of tumor on the brain. He had been taken to Rochester for a possible operation, but his condition was such as to preclude hope of recovery. Prior to being taken to Rochester he had been under care of physicians in Omaha and elsewhere. The deceased was a well known resident of Callaway.

MEN WILL LEAVE FOR FUNSTON MONDAY NIGHT.

Ten Lincoln county boys will leave next Monday night for Camp Funston on train No. 4, there to go into training for subsequent service in France. Eight men from McPherson county will come here to entrain at the same time. On train No. 4 will also be one man from Banner county, two from Kimball county, eleven from Cheyenne county, four from Deuel county and two from Keith county.

The Red Cross chapter has provided comfort bags for the ten Lincoln county men which will be presented to them before they leave.

Several men from Garden and Morrill counties will come down on the branch train and leave with the Lincoln and McPherson counties contingent.

Train No. 4 leaves at 11:30 p. m. and though the hour is somewhat late, we trust that a large number of our people will be at the depot to bid the boys good-bye.

Under the quota fourteen men were to have left Lincoln county, but when the exemption board figured the enlistments and inductions, it cut down the number to eleven, and this was further reduced by the absence of Jesse R. Naftzinger, who is at Jerry, Wash. and will go to camp with men from that state.

The ten men who are to report at the county jail at four o'clock Monday afternoon and to entrain on No. 4 are:

Ralph B. Henderson, North Platte

Art Exhibit Opens.

The Elson Art Exhibit opened Wednesday afternoon in the Franklin auditorium. The attendance was small owing to the inclemency of the weather. A much larger number was present yesterday afternoon and all express themselves as being highly pleased.

The pictures are excellent copies, and are very well hung. The lighting in the Auditorium could not be better and the great diversity of subjects makes it possible for all tastes to be gratified. A large crowd is expected in attendance this evening, the only evening the exhibit will be open. There will be a very interesting program and ample time will be had to see the pictures between 7:00 and 10:30 p. m. The program will begin promptly at 8:00 p. m. ## NEW DEPOT WILL BE OPENED ABOUT MARCH 10th.

General Manager Jeffers spent Tuesday evening in town, and while here inspected the new depot. He was highly pleased with its construction, and pronounced it, with one exception, the finest and best depot on the line of the Union Pacific, that one exception being the Denver depot.

The plumbing work, material for which had been delayed, is now being finished and the greater part of the furnishings have arrived. The settees for the main waiting room are the only furnishings lacking. These are expected to arrive within a week.

Manager Jeffers was of the opinion that the building would be formally opened for service about March 10th. So far as now known there will be no formal ceremony connected with the opening.

The cost of the new building including the furnishings is in the neighborhood of $135,000.

Mr. Jeffers takes considerable pride in the new building, largely for the reason that it is located in the town in which, as an errand boy, he began his railroad career.

Mrs. Ora Sallor, who has taken charge of the Millinery department of The Leader Mercantile Co., has been busy the past few days opening up the stock she purchased while in the east. You should see the big lot of beautiful hats.
