ROBINSON COMMENDS RED CROSS WORK ABROAD.

Leonard B. Robinson, of this city who is in the engineering corps somewhere in France and who has a son also in the service overseas, writes Mrs. Robinson in part as follows:

I have just returned from a visit to son, and now I can rest easy, since I have seen how he is situated. If you could only see how he is located you would not worry about him. He is near one of the prettiest cities in France, and where he is they have in his camp a big Y. M. C. A. where they can see moving pictures and play basket ball. But the best of all is the Red Cross hut. The interior of the building is attractive and beautiful and decorated as only a good woman can decorate. About a dozen fine women serve lunches to the boys and all the ladies sing and play the piano. As soon as the boys are through with their duties some go to the Y. M. C. A., but most to the Red Cross. Since I have been where he is I have ceased to worry about him because his moral welfare and health is taken care of and I will say God bless the Red Cross. The colonel allowed me seven days to make the trip and was with Len. three days and the rest of the time I was on the move. I had one day in Paris, and saw some of the wonders of that city. It was sure grand. This is a great and glorious country, and all the sacrifices that the United States makes will be in a good cause—all for God, civilization, and humanity. If any one could see what we have seen, everybody would want to kill some Hecches.

The Seven to Go.

The seven Lincoln county boys who will be sent to Camp Funston within five days beginning March 29th are: Clifford Anderson, Willard Ben Johnson, North Platte Frank Garman, Sutherland Joe Schatz, North Platte Wm. Kotts, North Platte Floyd Peterson, Farnam Elmer Hamm, North Platte

Dresses for all occasions. One piece street dresses in the serge and gaberdine. Crepe de chine and tefetas for practical wear. Georgette crepes and foulards for afternoon wear. New and snappy models. E. T. TRAMP & SONS.

The Royal Neighbors of America will serve a banquet at the K. P. hall Thursday, March 21st beginning at 7:30. All Royal Neighbors are cordially invited.

Urgent Call for Clothing.

The call has come from headquarters at Washington for the Red Cross to collect and ship used clothing for the women, children and men of occupied Belgium and France. The time for action is short. We are asked to make shipments in the week of March 18th to 25th. We need not send new things unless we choose, and they need not be in perfect repair, but they must be clean, strong and durable. Either shoes or clothing made of flimsy or cheap and unsound material will be useless. Flimsy waists, high heeled shoes and flashily colored or stylish designed dresses are not wanted. Plain substantial articles of wear only are needed.

Citizens will please get together before Saturday such garments they can spare, telephone Mrs. Dent or Mrs. Rincker and the articles will be collected for or they can be brought to the rest room in the B. & L. building. RED CROSS CHAPTER.

Eggs For Setting.

I have sold eggs all winter to a dozen or more of my neighbors at 50c a dozen and I can furnish testimonials for same. I have Barred Rock pullets that took sweepstakes at the North Platte Poultry Show mated with cockerel that came from "Smilies" Poultry Farm. My Rhode Island Reds are as good as any. Both varieties are good laying strains and eggs are what counts. Call me up early and book your orders. L. I. TUCKER, Phone Red 698.

J. K. Channey, who lived with his daughter Mrs. W. F. Fleben on a farm twelve or more miles southwest of town, was found dead near the house the latter part of last week.

The deceased, who was about sixty years of age was afflicted with asthma, and while doing light work is supposed to have dropped dead. The remains were shipped to Grand Island for interment.

A new and varied assortment of georgette crepe blouses just arrived.

E. T. TRAMP & SONS. A party of federal and state university men, who are investigating the cost of sugar beet production, came down from Scottsbluff last night and left this morning for O'Fallon where they will hold a conference with the beet growers. The object of this commission is to determine a fair price for beets for 1918, though of course their findings are in the form of a recommendation and not mandatory.

PAWNEE RANCH IS SOLD TO PARTIES IN OMAHA.

Governor Keith Neville has sold his 13,000 acre ranch lying between here and Maxwell to Agnew & Johnson, of Omaha. The consideration could not be learned, but it is the largest real estate transaction that has occurred in Lincoln county for a number of years. The purchasers are the same men who bought the Keith ranch south of Sutherland several months ago and last Friday also asked for a price on the S. J. Koch ranch southwest of Hershey, but Mr. Koch informed them his land was not for sale. When they suggested to Mr. Koch that he ought to sell and move to town, he rather emphatically told them that this is a time in the history of this country when every man should be a producer, and that it was his duty to stay on the ranch and grow all the cattle and grains possible. We commend Mr. Koch for his brand of patriotism.

The Coates Lumber Co. placed a little three-line local in Friday's Tribune stating that they had two teams for sale. Those teams have been sold, and the purchasers stated that they saw the little ad in The Tribune. If you have something to sell that people want, and if you price it right there is no question but a little ad in the Tribune will sell it.

Members of the Travel and Study club met at the Red Cross work rooms last evening and devoted the evening to surgical dressing work. Later they repaired to the Mrs. Lester Walker home where refreshments were served. Miss Florence Stamp was the hostess of the evening.

Clark Buchanan, who has been living in Los Angeles, for five years writes that he has been appointed superintendent of agencies for the Inter Insurance Exchange of the Automobile Club of Southern California and is well pleased with the work.

Miss Florence Vedder, senior in the local high school, stood highest in her grades the past semester. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Vedder, who live northeast of town.—Contributed.

Suits and coats in all the new and wanted shades and new numbers arriving daily. E. T. TRAMP & SONS.

The Red Cross treasury was enriched $67.50 Saturday by the sale of a donated calf at the sale of the North Platte Sales Co. Julius Mogensen purchased the calf for $40, re-donated it, and it sold a second time for $27.50.
