The Red Cross headquarters having issued orders that no more comfort kits are to be given direct to soldiers by local chapters, the Lincoln county chapter, not liking to see the practice it started of giving one of these kits to every soldier boy who leaves North Platte discontinued, has asked the Sammy Girls to continue the practice. They have very kindly consented to give the kits to at least the next contingent of Lincoln county boys and the Red Cross desires to ask the cooperation of the citizens of Lincoln county in any effort the Sammy Girls may make to raise the needed funds.

BIG RED CROSS AUCTION SATURDAY AFTERNOON AT 2:30.

Tomorrow afternoon starting at 2:30 a big Red Cross auction will be held at the Lloyd opera house with Col. Swedeberg, of Holdrege, as the auctioneer. The articles to be offered include live stock, poultry and farm produce contributed by farmers of the section tributary to North Platte, and of general merchandise contributed by the merchants of North Platte. According to the reports of the solicitors, the donations of the farmers have been very liberal and the quality is of the very best. The same applies to the donations made by North Platte business men the contributions of the latter consisting of up-to-date and dependable merchandise—not stuff that is shelf-worn and unsaleable in the stores.

This is the first real sale the North Platte Red Cross has attempted and it is hoped that it will be a success, as funds are needed to keep the Red Cross work moving as rapidly as the willing women workers desire. It is our duty to see that the necessary funds are provided, and one way to do this is to make donations to the sale as well as to make purchases at the sale.

Every resident of the city who can possibly attend the sale should do so, and not only attend the sale, but buy, and farmers who are in town that day should also feel that the worthiness of the cause demands their attendance.

As a farmer he was progressive and successful, and though retiring in manner and disposition made many friends both on the farm and in the city, and was held in very high esteem by all who knew him.

Surviving are the wife and eight children, six of the latter living in or near town and two in Wyoming. Ben and Carl live on a ranch near Casper, the other children are Mrs. Chas. Bostwick, Eleanor, Oda, Ora, Dan and Ray.

Arthur Soundy, of Gothenburg, charged the pastor, and Rev. Chas. Memmott, of Lexington made the charge to the congregation.
