Get in line for more pay

The better you do your work, the more rapid will be your advance, and the better you feel, the better you will be able to work.

Eyestrain makes you feel bad. It causes headaches, nervousness, tired eyes and other distress.

The remedy is glasses, not medicine. Clinton's optometrist will examine your eyes thoroughly and provide the proper glasses to end eyestrain. Consult him about your eyes.

In "His Mother's Boy," the new Paramount photoplay in which Chas. Ray will be seen at the Crystal theatre on Thursday and Friday the popular Thomas H. Ince star will have a part much to his liking,--that of a young fellow who has been brought up in a small new England town, the idol of his mother, and without much association with other boys of his own age. This leads him later in life into many strange and unexpected complications and adventures. "His Mother's Boy" is a picturization of Rupert Hughes' story "When Life is Marked Down."

NORTH PLATTE DISTRICT NOW SHOWS $287,500.

Up to yesterday noon the subscriptions to the third Liberty bonds in the North Platte district had reached $287,500, or within $20,200 of doubling the quota of $154,000 for the district. An effort will be made to secure the additional amount, and we hope that it will be successful.
If we can double our quota we are entitled to a star on our Honor Flag which shows to the world that we have given to our government double the amount asked of us to whip the Kaiser and make the world safe for democracy. Let everyone make themselves a committee of one to see that their neighbors have invested a reasonable amount of their wealth in Liberty bonds. If they refuse, report their names to the County Chairman, C. F. Temple.

Knitters are Responding.

The appeal to the Lincoln county Red Cross chapter to knit one thousand sweaters by June 30th is meeting with ready response. Branches and auxiliaries in the county have taken up the matter enthusiastically, and here in town Red Cross members have agreed to knit from one to five sweaters each. One prominent banker with the aid of his son and the housemaid, has agreed to knit five, and the banker is sure to do his share of the knitting. And why shouldn't men as well as women knit in this emergency.

Patriotic Meeting at Somerset.

Last Friday evening Attorney Wm. E. Shuman addressed a public meeting at Somerset on behalf of the Liberty bonds. The meeting was in charge of the Junior Red Cross, and at the close of the meeting Mr. Shuman was pressed into service as an auctioneer, and auctioned off pies and cakes. The bidding was lively and single pies brought all the way from 75 cents to $3.50. The Junior Red Cross of Somerset derived a neat sum from the sale. The school house was filled with people.

NEWS ABOUT THE BOYS WHO ARE IN SERVICE.

John Huebner, of Hershey, who was called home by the death of his infant child, returned to Camp Funston yesterday morning.

Vernon Kuhn, of Maxwell, in the Cavalry service, is now stationed at Ft. Sam Houston, Texas, having recently been transferred there.

Marvin Kelly, of Maxwell, with the 108th engineers at Camp Cody, writes the home folks that he has just recovered from a severe siege of rheumatism.

Leo Sheedy, of Pine Bluffs, formerly of this city was in town Saturday visiting relatives and friends. He leaves with other drafted Wyoming men today for Camp Lewis, Wash.

Albert Ginapp, of Gaslin precinct, writes home from Camp Funston that he and several other boys from Lincoln county have been notified to leave soon, probably for somewhere in France.

C. S. Clinton left Sunday for Kansas City to visit his son Jim and Ernest Rincker, members of the medical corps who were passing through that city from Goat Island, Cal., to some camp in the east.

Charley Perkins and Ernest Casey, in training at Camp Funston, returned to that Camp Sunday night after visiting the home folks for a couple of days. The boys expect to receive orders shortly to go overseas.

John Murphy, who had been employed as a car repairer, secured a release from the exemption board yesterday and left last night for Fort Leavenworth, having enlisted as a car inspector in the Railroad Engineering Corps.

Harris Stuart, with the field artillery, who was lately transferred from Camp Cody to Gettysburg, wired the home folks Saturday that he was ordered to leave there that evening. Whether he will go direct to France or to a temporary camp on the Atlantic seaboard was not stated, but probably overseas.

Walter Single, whose home is south of town, and who enlisted at Sidney February 12th and was sent to Ft. Logan as a member of the electrician's corps, has been in the hospital since March 1st from complications following an attack of measles. The most serious of his ailments is ear trouble, an abscess having formed.

One of the most cheering and hopeful reports of army life at Camp Cody comes from Orville Moore in a letter to friends here. He writes of the abundance of wholesome and excellent food three times a day and clean, restful beds awaiting the soldiers after their hard day's drilling. Another feature of his letter is his high regard and that of his comrades for Captain Halligan as an army officer.

Word received the latter part of last week by Andy Wessberg announced that his son Abner had been recommended for a commission as second lieutenant. Abner attended the officers training school at Leon Springs, Texas.

Vernon Lunsford, formerly a machinist in the U. P. shops here and later at Cheyenne and who enlisted in the navy last fall has recently written a friend in North Platte that he is across the water somewhere. It is known he was stationed on the Leviathan, a converted interned German vessel, and it is presumed he has helped carry troops across the water and will probably return on the same ship for more.
