

Huns Bombard Hospitals.

German airmen again have bombarded heavily British hospitals in the area behind the lines, and his time have killed and wounded some hundreds among the personnel and patients of many different hospitals in the group. Recorded in the casualty list are the names of several sisters, who, with other women nurses, stood bravely by their posts throughout a terrific deluge of explosives.

There is in the neighborhood one large hospital and another in which there are American workers, but neither of these appears to have suffered.

To the Public.

The President has proclaimed the fifth day of June for registering men who have become 21 years of age since June 5th, 1917.

This registration will be at Local Board office at North Platte, in the Federal building, for all these men in Lincoln county, who have to register.

A. J. SALISBURY, Chairman of board.

"Wake up, America," was presented at the Red Cross theatre yesterday afternoon to about five hundred school children, and again in the evening to an audience that packed the house.

The slides presented, showing the military spirit, actions and atrocities of German people and troops were good, and a rapid-fire, patriotic descriptive talk made by the lecturer. The band furnished music prior to the entertainment.

Must Work or Fight.

Every man of draft age must work of fight after July 1, under a drastic amendment announced yesterday by Provost General Crowder.

HOME GUARDS MINISTREL SHOW ON JUNE 13th.

Thirteen has no terror for the young men who are arranging for the Home Guards minstrel show, and therefore Thursday, June 13th, has been selected as the date of the show. The boys regret that the 13th does not fall on Friday.

The rehearsals will be held in the Elks' building, the consent of the trustees having been secured. Practically all those taking part in the show are members of that order. The first practice will be held next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock and it is the desire of the director that every man be present.

Earl Stamp, who spent last week in Chicago, brought home about fifty new songs and from these the first part songs have been selected. They are dandies and will be rendered in good shape by the twenty-eight or thirty who take part.

The four end men will be—well we won't name them now, but they are well known and possess the qualifications to make a smile spread over the face of the worst grouch in town.

The second part of the show will consist of home grown stunts that will be attractive including both beauty and farce.

The admission price will be but twenty-five cents, the plan of the management being to set a price that will not bar anyone from attending.

Districts Slow Reporting.

Chairman Dixon, of the Red Cross drive, stated yesterday that reports had been received from sixty of the 131 school districts in the county. All of these but five or six had reached or exceeded their quota. Whether the remaining seventy-one districts will show up as well remains to be seen. There seems to be but little doubt about the county reaching its quota, especially as North Platte has over-subscribed its quota by fully $3,500.
