GUARDS AND DRUM CORPS GO TO HERSHEY TOMORROW

Captain Shilling and a number of the Home Guards together with at least eight members of the drum corps will go to Hershey tomorrow evening to attend the organization of a company of Home Guards in that town, the committee in charge having invited the Guards and drummers to be present. Those owners of automobiles who will take a load of the Guards to Hershey are requested to have their cars at the federal building at 7:30 sharp tomorrow evening. The more cars furnished the greater the number of Guards who will go.

Home Guards should be organized in every town in the county in order that each community may have an organization ready to meet any emergency that may arise, and in these war times emergencies may arise at any time. The Home Guards of these communities should give their boys who go to the camps a fitting farewell reception, and impress upon the boys who go the fact that the Guards stand behind them, willing to do anything and everything they can to help win the war, and that if the departing men leave behind those who need assistance the hand of help is ever extended by the Home Guards.

Will Show Two Nights.

The Sammy Girls, who will receive the receipts of the Home Guards Minstrel show, are confident they can sell enough tickets at twenty-five cents each to more than fill the Franklin auditorium and have requested the management to give the show both Thursday and Friday evenings of next week. Not wishing to dampen the enthusiasm of the Sammy Girls their request has been granted. Tickets purchased will be good for either evening. The tickets have been placed at a quarter so that no one will be deprived of hearing the burnt cork artists sing, the endmen get off their local hits, and see the clever stunts of the second part. By reason of this low priced admission the Sammy Girls are confident that tickets will sell readily.

Eclipse of Sun.

As the largest and most important city in the path of the moon's shadow on June 8, the date of the coming total solar eclipse, Denver will be the scene of some observations and the meeting place for many an astronomical enthusiast. The beginning of the eclipse will be apparent at Denver at 3:12 p. m. (mountain time). At 4:20 the eclipse will be total. Full daylight will have returned at 5:28 p. m. It will be 99 years before the shadow of the moon again will cut so extensive a swath across the western hemisphere.

Dress Suits Wanted.

The Home Guard Minstrels do not want to appear as beggars, but they do desire to conduct the show economically as possible in order that the Sammy Girls may make as much out of the performances as possible. The minstrels ask for the loan of dress suits, assuring that they will be well taken care of and returned in good shape. About half the men have these suits, the others must need secure theirs through the generosity of others. Those who will loan suits will please phone W. H. Munger.

Jack Pickford in "Tom Sawyer."

It is a well-known fact that Mark Twain would never allow his famous book, "TOM SAWYER," to be dramatized, for the reason that he thought it an impossibility to show the white town of Hannibal, Mo., drowning in the sunshine by the sleepy Mississippi, and the thousand and one details that make his picture so vivid. And indeed he was right—it was impossible to place all that on the narrow confines of any stage, but many marvels have been accomplished through the medium of the screen and the all-seeing eye of the camera.

In this photoplay, the immortal hero is masterfully portrayed by Jack Pickford, and all the details go to make up a perfect portrayal of the little Missouri town of the last century, showing the very house in which Mark Twain lived as a boy and the house where Huck Finn lived.

The familiar details from the start, where Tom engages in a fistic combat with one of the goody, goody, dressed-up boys of the town, rolling with him in the dirt, and after making the youngster yell "nuff," chases him clear home under the sheltering wing of his fond mother, to finish when, after running away with Huck Finn, he returns home and finds his Aunt Polly planning his funeral service, are excellently portrayed.

We trust you will come early to the showing of this fascinating picture at the Keith theatre on Saturday and bring your friends with you.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the love and sympathy shown, also for the beautiful floral offerings from friends, comrades and neighbors, at the loss of our loved one.

ALL BROTHER HAD NOTICED

Father Need Not Be Worried Over Possible Bad Effect of Movies on Little Son.

After all, it's hard to figure out correctly the effect of the movies on the child mind. It happened that mother and sister had gone to a concert and it was up to father to entertain little brother, age seven. Father likes the movies—some of them—so he thought that would serve the purpose. Of course you can not tell much about a film by the name or by the pictures out in front either for that matter. But father likes pictures of western life and he thought the horses and mountains might please brother. So when he saw the poster of a cowboy, in they went.

It wasn't a very good sort of picture as to theme, for it presented a ruthless outlaw and his gang of robbers. When a wagon train of gold seekers came across the desert he not only refused to give them water, but drove them off to perish of thirst on the desert. And there also was a dance hall scene in the West. Father had some misgivings as to his choice of movie and wondered whether, at its close, his son would elect to be the bold, bad bandit or the vice-rimmed owner of the dance hall and gambling hell. He said nothing but anxiously awaited the verdict.

When "The End" came, brother whispered: "Daddy, do you know who the cowboy looks like?" "No, brother. Who?" "Our milkman," was the reply.

GOT RIGHT POINT OF VIEW

Autoist, When He Cooled Down, Was Able to See Where Traffic Policeman Was Correct.

The autoist was waiting for the corner traffic man to give the signal to make the turn at the corner. When he thought he had been there long enough he began tooting his horn impatiently. The traffic man kept on taking care of traffic. The autoist became more impatient with his horn.

"You won't help matters that way, my friend," said the traffic man, as he waved him on.

"Aw, take me to jail, but don't bawl me out!" exclaimed the driver.

The policeman motioned him over toward the curb. "I could take your suggestion, but I won't. You are angry now, but when you cool off you will understand that the corner man has many problems to contend with," said the policeman. "We do not usually make explanations, but I am doing so in this case, because I think you should realize that you are in the wrong."

The autoist drove on, mumbling. A few days later he stopped in the same place. "Say," he said to the policeman, "I made a fool out of myself the other day. I had no right to be angry. You fellows have enough vexations without some one who goes across your corner once a day adding to them by smart remarks."

The policeman smiled and waved him on. That autoist today probably would fight for the corner man if necessary.—Indianapolis News.

Only One Hog Had Dollar.

A fat hog at the Omaha stock yards coughed up a dollar when "Snuff" Smith, an employee of a commission company, kicked it in the head. The hog was trying to run past him when he wanted it to go the other way. He gave it a vigorous kick. It coughed, gagged, sputtered a moment and then spat up the dollar.

Stockyard men throughout the rest of the day had a lot of fun about the incident. The commission company claimed the dollar. Smith claimed it. The owner of the hog claimed it, and as a result Smith spent it for cigars for the crowd.

A lot of the employees in the yards began to kick hogs right and left in the hope of shaking out another dollar. One employee said he had kicked 612 hogs during the day and hadn't got even a jitney.

Another Triumph for Woman Farmer.

Once again the adaptability and skill of women have confounded the critics—those incredulous critics, the farmers. They admit that in the recent efficiency tests at Maidstone, England, a very high standard has been reached. In the milking competition more than one-fourth gained over 90 marks. Two women thatchers, who had only been at the work for five weeks, secured the highest possible rating. The competitions were arranged by the Kent woman's agricultural committee. Mrs. F. Heron-Maxwell, chairman of the organizing committee, said there were 9,000 women registered as land women in Kent, also 800,400 members of the "woman's land army."—Woman's Century.

Tunnel Would Pay for Itself.

It has been proposed to construct a railway tunnel under the Firth of Forth, Scotland, paralleling the famous bridge now spanning that body of water, and to pay for the tunnel by making it largely a coal mining proposition. Mining engineers point out that coal is now being mined on both sides of the firth from the same seams and that much of this excavating is done under water. At this point the estuary is only about two miles wide and it is contended that a continuous passage could be made beneath it by properly co-ordinating the mining operations. In this way what would otherwise probably prove to be too costly an improvement could be made with profit.—Popular Mechanics.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Breeze left Sunday for Denver where they will remain a month and then go to Manitou Springs to remain until fall.

J. H. Kempton, of Fox Creek, who was a business visitor in town Saturday reports a very heavy hail storm south of his section and extending into Frontier county which badly damaged crops. The storm put telephone lines out of commission.

County Chairman Dixon of the Second Red Cross drive is not yet able to publish a complete statement of the subscriptions in the county. A number of the school districts fell so far below their quota that Mr. Dixon insisted that the soliciting be renewed and a greater effort be made to secure the quota.

North Platte got its name in the "A Line O' Type or Two" column of the Chicago Tribune Saturday when the Tribune's item about 80 high top shoes wanted for the minstrels appeared. The celebrated paragraphist headed the item "If such there breathe, go, mark he well; for her shall minstrel raptures swell."

To the one not prejudiced to race or color, incidents occur weekly that seem commendable. For instance S. Fugihara, a Japanese employed at the Palace Cafe, stepped into the office of Secretary Strelitz of the Red Cross and laying down a federal check for two dollars said: "Here is the interest on my government bond, I want to donate it to the Red Cross."

The piano and song recital given by Thelma Starr and Miss Esther Antonides was very successful so far as the program was concerned, but the attendance was very small. Little Thelma's work has been highly complimented, as has also the vocal numbers by Miss Antonides. Those who were present declare the program as rendered was worthy of a crowded auditorium.
