The wheat harvest is in progress in the eastern and central portions of the state. In some sections the ripening of the wheat has been hastened by the dry hot weather, and in these sections the grain will not be plump.

The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. C. J. Bowen, 509 W. 6th street, Friday afternoon at three o'clock. As this is the last meeting before the vacation a large attendance is desired.

The county commissioners, who had been sitting aboard of equalization, adjourned Tuesday until Tuesday of next week. They will sit as equalizers Tuesday and Wednesday and complete the work. So far not many complaints as to the assessments have been made.

Frank Tracy and Sanford Hartman returned Wednesday from a three weeks' visit in New York state and report a very enjoyable trip. One condition that struck them forcibly was the fine appearance and big acreage of crops of all kinds. War activity is apparent everywhere and every day is full of patriotism and enthusiasm. They spent several days in the Adirondack mountain section and visited the Grant tomb at Mt. McGregor.

The Camp Cody film which will be shown at the Sammy Girls theatre next Monday evening should prove intensely interesting to the people of North Platte and surrounding section.

Lem Kidwell, of Wallace, who recently returned from a trip through several eastern states, says no where did he see better looking crops than are to be seen around Wallace.

Farmers in town today say that the harvest of rye will begin next week and the wheat harvest the following week. Very little fall wheat and rye in the section tributary to North Platte was injured to any extent by the dry hot weather. Spring wheat, however, was considerably damaged.

Howard Fleming, whose home is at or near Sutherland, failed to report as one of the Lincoln county contingent to Ft. Riley Monday night. It is known that he received his notification card. As soon as his non-arrival at Ft. Riley is reported to the local board steps will be taken to locate him.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Morey were in Omaha Wednesday in attendance at the wedding of Mrs. Morey's brother, Lieut. Robert Reasoner, who is stationed at the Fort Omaha balloon school. The bride was Miss Uplike, daughter of a prominent grain operator of Omaha.

A hay shipper tells us that more alfalfa is being baled and shipped direct from the field this year than in any previous year. While the price is but $12 a ton, the weight of freshly cut alfalfa over that which has been stacked for several months is so great that growers consider the present price satisfactory.

Today twenty North Platte speakers will address people at forty meetings in the county on the subject of organizing war savings societies. Chairman Keefe, of the speakers' bureau, so arranged his program that each speaker will talk at two school houses during the day and evening. At these meetings war-savings societies will be organized.

SAMMY GIRLS WILL SERVE CAFETERIA LUNCH JULY 4th.

Anticipating an immense crowd in North Platte on July 4th, and that the visitors will experience trouble in being supplied with meals, the Sammy Girls will serve a cafeteria lunch in the room now occupied by the Durbin Auto Co., but which will be vacated by July 1st. The menu to be served by the Sammy Girls will consist of chicken, meat and egg sandwiches, baked beans, potato salad, coffee, ice cream and watermelon. This service will begin at ten o'clock in the forenoon and continue so long as there are people to be fed.

As the proceeds of this lunch are to be devoted to supplying Lincoln county soldier boys with sweaters and comfort kits, they are asking that the provisions needed be donated as far as possible. Those who will furnish fowls, meat, potatoes, baked beans, butter, eggs, cream and bread are requested to phone Red 237 not later than Monday evening, July 1st. It is hoped that residents of both city and country will respond liberally to this call for donations.

Fordson Tractor Arrives.
The much heralded Fordson tractor, made by Henry Ford and Son, is now here, seven of them having been received by the Hendy-Ogier Co. yesterday. These tractors attracted the attention of every farmer in town yesterday and this forenoon, and all seemed to be favorably impressed with their general appearance. The seven received were sold in advance of their arrival but they will not be turned over to the purchasers until they have been used for a short period for demonstrating purposes. A public demonstration of the tractor and plow will be given tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the Haspel ranch one mile west of town.

Remodeling Building.
The ground floor of the Masonic Temple building is being remodeled for occupancy by the Durbin Auto Co. An enlarged entrance is being made in the rear of the building and an entrance made in the Dewey street front. A partition will be built enclosing the south twenty-two feet, and this room will be used by the W. R. Maloney Co. It is probable that the north twenty-two feet will also be partitioned off and used by a party for business purposes. This will leave the Durbin Co. the center forty-four feet and the rear additions.

Americans Fight Like Demons.
In an attack upon the German lines on the Marne front Tuesday night the American troops extended their line northwest of Belleau wood. Up to 10 o'clock Wednesday morning 250 prisoners, including seven officers, had been counted, together with a number of machine guns and other booty. Additional prisoners came in later.

The Americans are now holding a considerable front in three different sectors in Alsace. They now are in possession of virtually all the valuable tactical positions in the Belleau wood sector. Most of the prisoners taken belong to the 347th German division.

On Sunday the Germans placed the crack 201st division opposite a position of the American line. Despite this the Americans went through in steam roller fashion.

German prisoners taken pay tribute to the brilliant dash of the Americans, declaring the men in the assaulting party fought like demons.

Mary Pickford's next appearance in an Artcraft picture will be an adaptation by Frances Marion of "Amarilly of Clothes Line Alley," from the novel by Belle K. Maniates. This is said to be the funniest photoplay has ever appeared in, but while the story consists principally of amusing incidents it is full of simple, homely philosophy and endeavors to show that people from the environments of Clothes Line Alley can never mix happily with the upper stratum of society. "Amarilly of Clothes Line Alley," which will be the attraction at the Keith theatre on Monday and Tuesday is expected to duplicate the success of "Stella Maris," as the scenario is by the same author, and the production was directed by Marshall Neilan, the same combination responsible for "Stella Maris."

Federal and state authorities are warning alfalfa growers against an insect that has made its appearance in some sections of the country and is proving very destructive. Directions for ridding the alfalfa fields of the pest is being distributed.

The Happy Hour Club will meet with Mrs. Will Peters, 502 W. 12th, Tuesday afternoon instead of Friday.

Not for a number of months have there been so many visitors in town as this week. The bulk of these constitute the officials, the jurors, the defendants and witnesses brought here by the term of federal court. These visitors come from a number of counties in the west part of the state.

Mrs. B. Septer and two daughters left yesterday for Lewellen to visit friends.

HIGH WATER IN NORTH PLATTE RIVER JULY 3d.

City Engineer McNamara, who is also local representative for the federal government in irrigation and water matters, has received notice that 11,500 second feet of water has been released from the Pathfinder dam and that this flood will reach North Platte about July 3d. Unless part of this water is diverted for irrigation purposes or part of its volume lost through evaporation by reason of intensely hot weather between now and July 3d, it will equal if not exceed in volume the flood two years ago.

Engineer McNamara says that this flood is likely to wash out all hay dams that have been erected at ditch intakes, and may injure dams of more permanent nature. Other than damages to dams he does not anticipate any trouble from this big flow of water.

Monumental Work.
W. T. Aiden, of this city, Western Nebraska representative of the Payne-Fishman Granite Co., of Grand Island, this week received a carload of monumental work, the second carload he has received this spring. Six of these monuments will be unloaded here and placed in the local cemeteries, the others will be sent to points in Mr. Aiden's territory.

Several of the monuments to be erected here are exceptionally handsome in workmanship and appearance.

Future Calls for Men.
Senator Chamberlain announced Wednesday that it is proposed to call in August 300,000 draft men, in September 150,000, in October 150,000, in November 150,000 and in December 125,000. These 825,000 men, he said, are expected to exhaust class 1.

REGISTRATION SHOWS MANY NOT USEFULLY EMPLOYED.

Inspection of the cards returned from the recent labor registration, brings out what is apparently the object of this registration, viz: that there are many engaged in occupations not directly contributory to the winning of the war.

There is but one objective before the people of the Nation today, and that is—well we scarcely need to repeat it, but it behooves each individual to take the matter seriously and reflect whether or not he is meeting his personal obligation in his present position, and if not to make a change without waiting for the stringency of the law.

The U. S. Labor Bureau is maintaining an office at North Platte for the express purpose of assisting employee and employer in getting together. Like a telephone system, the more subscribers the greater the service. This office will endeavor to place any one seeking a useful occupation free of charge. There are plenty of jobs for those who actually want to work, and the indications are that the Government intends to do everything in its power, to create the desire.

Basement Building & Loan Bldg.

Court Room is Funereal.

The visitor to the federal court room this week has been impressed with the funeral quietude. Judge Woodrough in his elevated seat looks stern and commanding, Clerk Hoyt flits from his desk to the attorneys' table noiselessly. Marshall Flynn's table noiselessly muscle and the spectators do it so noiselessly as not to attract attention. The lawyers in their examinations and pleadings speak in tones only loud enough to be heard, while the witnesses answer in subdued voices. There is certainly no levity in a federal court room.
