The section of country between Roscoe and Ogalalla was visited by a severe rain storm about five o'clock Wednesday. At some points water overflowed the Union Pacific roadbed, partially washing out the track. The high wind blew down forty telegraph and telephone poles.

This week's rains will not insure a corn crop, but it will go a long way toward that end. Many of the fields are in tassel and some in silk and these rains will come close to making roasting ears.

The Nebraska State Fair stands without a competitor in its exhibition and with the added encouragement this year of a new $100,000 barn in which to show the hogs at the Fair, this interesting exhibit should outdo itself.

The city council met in regular session Tuesday evening, but the only business before the members was a discussion of plumbers' licenses, this being called out by the arrest of two plumbers who were operating without a license.

The Tribune hopes that no North Platte or Lincoln county boy may fall in the line of battle and "go west," as the soldiers say, but should this occur The Tribune suggests that public memorial services be held. Certainly this is a tribute we should all be glad to pay to the one who falls.

A. P. Martin, district deputy of the Modern Woodmen, has been in town this week conducting a campaign for membership. Next Monday evening a smoker and entertainment will be held at the K. P. hall, which will be open to all young men in the city. As part of the evening's program about 200 pictures of the Woodmen sanito-rium at Colorado Springs will be shown on the screen.

The latter part of last week four auto loads of members of the Ingham branch of the Lincoln County Red Cross Chapter came to town to take instructions in Red Cross work. The branch at Ingham is a live one, and prior to becoming a Lincoln county branch had been shipping their work direct to New York. The ladies took back with them a large amount of material.

Hoagland for Senator.

W. V. Hoagland yesterday filed as a candidate for the republican nomination for state senator from this district. So far as known Mr. Hoagland will have no opposing republican candidate, and should have none from the democratic party, for his calibre as a man is such as to call for a unanimous nomination and election.
Mr. Hoagland's work during his former term as senator was such as to satisfy all constituents, whether democrat or republican and this being true he should have no opposition.
Jonathan Higgins, of this city, formerly living on a farm at Bignell has filed for the democratic nomination for float representative from the 77th District, composed of Dawson, Lincoln and Keith counties.

Candidate for Float Representative.

Geo. S. Doty, of Gothenburg, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for float representative from the 77th District at the primary election to be held August 20th, spent yesterday in town meeting some of our men. Mr. Doty, who has been a resident of Dawson county for fourteen years, is a business man of Gothenburg, and prior to engaging in his present calling was a farmer. He is a veteran of the Spanish-American war, and his age is the only bar that prevents him from being on the firing line in France today. He has been closely associated with all the patriotic war measures in Dawson county.
When you meet Mr. Doty you will be impressed with his general bearing and his evidence of level-headedness and good judgement.

The 77th District is composed of Dawson, Lincoln and Keith counties.

With the American troops bearing the brunt of the battle at the point where the Germans are attempting to break through the lines, it will not be surprising if our list of casualties prove very heavy. It is known that several Lincoln county boys are on, or near the Chateau-Thierry sector, and no doubt they are proving their valor along with the others.

Our Optical department is equipped with the latest instruments and our methods of examination are most thorough and up-to-date. HARRY DIXON & SON.

The Catholic Girls club will meet at the home of Miss Ethel Donegan Tuesday evening.

STATISTICS RELATIVE TO THE LINCOLN COUNTY REGISTRANTS.

Clerk Allen, of the registration board has been directed to compile a table showing the condition of the various classes of registrants in the county.

As originally classified there were 398 in class one, 112 in class two, 78 in class three, 755 in class four and 236 in class five.

Up to date 221 men of class one have been sent to training camps, twenty-three have been released for naval service, nine were transferred to class two, five are colored and fourteen have been entered for limited service.
This makes a total of 268. Next week about seventy men will be sent to Camp Dodge, thus bringing the total of men sent up to 291, and leaving but forty-eight in class one, and these constitute farmers who are actually engaged in crop growing and have been held back on account of their agricultural claims. It is probable, however, that some of these will be included in the August call.

Seventy-two men who registered in the county failed to appear for medical examination or to fill out their questionnaires.

NEWS ABOUT THE BOYS WHO ARE IN SERVICE.

Chas. Hupper, who enlisted in the navy at Omaha last week and had since been visiting friends in Omaha returned home last night to await a call to service.

Word was received yesterday that John Baker, of this city, who had been sent to Camp Funston had arrived safely in France. John is in the quartermasters' department.

Sergeants Homer and Dell Pease, stationed at Camp Cody, arrived at Brady a few days ago to visit the home folks. Dell is division instructor in bayonet work.

It has been three weeks since the home folks have heard from Lieut.
Merle Cross and from this his father infers that he has been sent overseas.
Lieut. Cross was sent from Camp Cody to a camp in New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brady have received a letter from their son George who is at Camp Funston, in which he says he is in fine shape and has passed all the examination for over-seas duty. He asks that his thanks be extended to Mrs. McGraw and the Sammy Girls for the sweater and comfort kit and to Father McDaid for the prayer book.

In a letter to the home folks, Leslie Carr of Gothenburg, now on the firing line in France says: "The other two fellows who came over here with me got 'picked off.' They were Walter Spicknall and John Ridenour. The latter was from North Platte." So far as we have noticed the names of Spicknall and Ridenour have not appeared in the casualty lists.

Lieut. Burton Lambert, who was recently transferred from the navy yard at Bremerton, Wash., to New York, has now been sent aboard a ship. He writes: "Tell everybody good-bye, I don't know where I am going but I am on my way. If you people ever float a service flag for North Platte and Lincoln county I shall be disappointed if I am not represented by a star."

The Tribune has received a copy of poem entitled "Little Pal o' Mine," written by James K. Flynn, a former North Platte boy, now a corporal in a company of railway engineers in France. The poem was first published in the "Stars and Stripes," a trench paper issued by the American soldiers in France and later appeared in the Paris edition of the New York Herald.
It will be published in these columns Tuesday and we believe that all readers will agree with us that the lines are mighty well written and the sentiment appealing.

Representative.

I hereby announce myself as candidate for the republican nomination for float representative from the 77th District composed of the counties of Keith, Lincoln and Dawson, at the primary election to be held August 20, and respectfully solicit your support.
I have been a resident of Dawson county for fourteen years, and my present home is in Gothenburg.

Seeks to Recover Child.

In the county court Wednesday Francis N. Osterhout brought an action against his wife Myrtle Osterhout to secure the custody of Lucille Osterhout now three years old. The plaintiff claims the defendant is now a lewd and immoral woman, and as such is keeping the child in an immoral house, and that she is an unfit person to have the keeping of such child. The defendant averred that the allegations as to her morality were false, and that she is a woman of good character. She further contended that the plaintiff is a shiftless, worthless man, and does not earn enough to support the child, and that he is not fit to have custody of the child; and that prior to the filing of this suit, she had begun an action against the plaintiff for divorce. A dozen or more witnesses testified in the case.

Judge Woodhurst took the case under advisement and will render a decision at 11 o'clock tomorrow.

The Nebraska House, which for more than forty-five years had been conducted as an eating and rooming house, is being torn down to make room for the Ugal three story building. In the fall of 1881 when The Tribune man came to North Platte, the Nebraska House, then conducted by the late J. C. Federhoof, was the most largely patronized hotel in town, having at that time 120 regular boarders in addition to many transient guests. Before the Nebraska House sprang into existence Mike Fillon, a brother of our Joe, conducted a restaurant in a long narrow building on the site.

"Luxury gets in the blood" is an oft quoted line from a famous Broadway play. Never was it more aptly applied than to Triangle's play, "Old Loves for New," featuring Margery Wilson, showing at the Crystal Saturday afternoon and evening. Dissipation, love of fine clothes and social entertainments on a mad and lavish scale almost bring about the ruin of two young people. A father intervenes and forces the light-headed young people to battle with Nature and obtain the reward of clean ideals and sensible living.
