

A GREETING AND A STATEMENT TO OUR OLD CUSTOMERS AND THE NEW ONES WE HOPE TO GET

We wish to express our thanks for favors shown us during the past few years, and also we want to interest you in our plans and aims for the future.

Owing to the great world war of today, which has brought about the scarcity of help, the high cost of merchandise and many other things which are dissatisfying, we are preparing to enter upon a Strictly Cash and Carry Plan September 1st, 1918.

It is our intention to give our customers the benefits of the saving, which means from 15 to 20 per cent on the every day necessities of life and to insure them better and prompt service.

Depend upon us to keep up the high standard of the goods we sell, to give you honest weights and full measure and to cut the corners off prices. We shall depend on increased business and the power of cash to bring results.

SEPTEMBER 1st, STRICTLY CASH AND CARRY.

COLONEL GEO. T. PATTERSON PASSES AWAY WEDNESDAY.

T. C. Patterson received a message Wednesday evening that his son, Colonel Geo. T. Patterson had passed away that afternoon at Fort Constitution, Portsmouth, New Hampshire. The message was sent by Miss Ruth Patterson who had been spending the summer with her brother. Mr. Patterson left for Portsmouth on No. 12 Wednesday night. When leaving he was not certain whether the body would be brought to this city for interment or whether it would be laid to rest in some national cemetery.

At the time of his death Colonel Patterson was the commanding officer at Ft. Constitution and during the summer the fort has been used as a training school for several hundred young officers. He had a very serious attack of illness about a year ago but had apparently recovered his normal health and the news of his death came as a shock. Mr. Patterson had visited the Colonel last spring and found him pleasantly situated and thoroughly enjoying his work as commander.

Colonel Patterson was born in North Platte forty-six years ago, graduated from the high school and took the examination for cadet at the West Point military academy. He passed the examination and four years later graduated from the academy and was assigned to the coast artillery branch of the service. In years following he was stationed at forts on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, and for several years was an inspector of coast defenses and spent the greater part of the time on a war ship. For about four years he was stationed in the Philippine Islands. He had been commandant at Fort Constitution for about a year. Graduating from West Point he had been advanced through promotions until at his death he ranked as a colonel.

Colonel Patterson was an exceptionally bright man, a close student and therefore well posted on military affairs, extremely courteous and a commanding figure. Friends in North Platte deeply regret his passing away.

Carman Meeting Tonight.
Platte Valley Lodge No. 832 Brotherhood of Railway Carman will hold an open meeting at the Knights of Columbus hall this (Friday) evening at 8:30 p. m. General vice-president Frank Paquin, of the Brotherhood will discuss important subjects of interest to railroad men concerning government control of railroads and the duty they owe the government.

If you believe in loyalty to the government you will attend this meeting and bring your fellow workmen with you.

Shortage.
Very few passenger cars will be received of the most popular makes from now on, and probably none will be produced after January 1st. If you are considering the purchase of either a Dodge Brothers or a Chandler Motor Car this fall, you would not be too early if your order is filed with me today. The scarcity of good cars is today serious and this is your only protection. War taxes and higher prices will make a buy today or an order given a mighty good investment. Do it now.

Dry Corn.

The men who left were Ellis Franklin, Will Frise, Will Mason, Shirley Wills and Clarence Thomas.

Strayed:—Gray mare, nearly white, weight about 1,000 pounds, slightly lame behind. Last seen at Geo. Jurgensens place 8 miles southwest of Big Springs. Left Haxtun, Colorado, about July 15th. Notify James H. Haskell, Haxtun, Colo., or the Tribune office, Ogallala, Nebr.

A considerable portion of the grain south of the river between here and Maxwell has been threshed and part of it marketed. The wheat, we were informed, has been running around twenty bushels to the acre. The Coates Lumber Co., at Maxwell, has so far bought and shipped out about 6,000 bushels.

During the past week not less than one hundred tourist cars per day have passed through North Platte. While the greater number of these cars are from Nebraska points, New York, Pennsylvania, and other eastern states have been represented, while quite a few from Texas and Oklahoma have been observed.

You've heard of all kinds of Gods, but we'll wager you never heard tell of a "Fly" God. The Gods are supposed to be all powerful, but can you picture the common, ordinary garden variety of house-fly deciding a question of life and death? That is exactly what happens in "The Fly God," a really truly Western picture with Roy Stewart in the lead, at the Crystal Saturday afternoon and evening.

The temperature at North-Platte this week has ranged from eighty-seven to ninety-two degrees, which though not quite as high as the range in June and July is plenty warm enough for all general purposes. The hot weather is ripening corn very rapidly and much of the field corn is so far advanced as to be dented.

"TWIN BEDS."
Margaret Mayo's great laugh festival will be the attraction at the Keith theatre on Saturday, Aug. 31. This funniest of all plays kept New Yorkers in a delirium of laughter for a solid year, London for two years and Australia for six months. Every one who sees it will sleep well and rise in good humor in the morning. Clean, wholesome laughter is healthful; it makes the blood circulate and it housecleans the mind of peevishness, discontent and boredom. "Twin Beds" will make your sides ache with laughter from curtain rise to drop. The same great cast and production playing only principle cities will be seen here.
