

How Much Would You Give To Win the War.

That's the question being put to you today. How much are you willing to give to have the war finished up in a hurry—Germany beaten—the world made a decent place to live in—our boys back home—a victorious and just peace throughout the world?

The Fourth Liberty Loan is the biggest single factor in accomplishing all this.

It brings right square up to every man and woman "How much would you give to help win the war?"

You know you would give more than the amount of Liberty bonds you have already subscribed for.

GENL. MANAGER JEFFERS ASKS 100 PER CENT LOYALTY.

General Manager Jeffers has sent out the following personal circular to be bulletined in principal stations:

"LIBERTY LOAN COMMITTEE:

The total subscriptions to the 4th Liberty Loan reported up to and including the 10th, is approximately 1-3 the amount of loan already passed. Some of the lines have subscribed 100% and have then stopped solicitation. The average amount subscribed is low and the loan cannot be fulfilled until each subscriber takes twice the amount of bonds he did during the last campaign—we must not fail the nation.

I feel that realizing the situation our Union Pacific people can be relied upon to double and re-double their efforts to show 100% loyalty on the Union Pacific and in every case where we can in any way manage to do so, we will double our subscriptions. Let us each make the best effort for ourselves and then give our personal attention to our fellow employees and the public in the towns we live in. We cannot allow to be said or even be thought that the Union Pacific can fail in any undertaking and I know we can rely upon each of you."

Carl McGrew, of the postoffice force, received word Thursday that he had been accepted for Y. M. C. A. work overseas. MUST NOT SLACK IN THE BOND DRIVE SAY OFFICIALS.

County Chairman Temple received the following message Saturday from the federal reserve bank at Kansas City, which has charge of the bond campaign in the district of which Nebraska is a part:

"We cannot too strongly impress upon you and your people the fact that there must be no slackening of effort in the Liberty Loan campaign on account of the publication of the news of Germany's acceptance of peace terms. It would be nothing short of a tragedy in American history if the loan should fail. Our task is not by any means finished and Germany is watching the results of our loan just as closely as ever. The facts are that the money which is being subscribed to this loan has already been converted and spent by the government. Further more our government has enormous outstanding obligations yet to be met and unless every unit in the loan organization of the tenth district meets its full obligations we may possibly be classed quitters. Give this telegram widest possible publicity and wire us immediately to the effect there are no quitters in your county."

To which Chairman Temple made the following reply: "Your message will receive all publication possible. Our wires tight and busy. Hope to go over the top in Lincoln county soon. Rural district not yet reported in full, but our quota with margin seems certain. No quitters in our county."

Emergency Hospital.

The existence of influenza in North Platte has demonstrated the need of a hospital for contagious cases, and through the efforts of President Seeburger of the Red Cross, co-operating with the city government, this need will soon be supplied. It is proposed to convert the second floor of the new fire station for temporary use for this purpose. The building is steam heated and the second floor rooms are fairly well adapted. The Red Cross will furnish the rooms with the necessary equipment, and that organization will also provide nurses as far as possible.

Farmers have pretty well agreed to pay two cents a bushel for husking corn. Some of the huskers, who claim they can husk a hundred bushels a day, are demanding 12½ cents and even as high as fifteen cents a bushel. Farmers are a unit in saying they will not pay these latter prices.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT OUTLINES WHAT WE SHOULD DO.

Theodore Roosevelt speaking at a Liberty Loan meeting at Oyster Bay, Saturday night, declared that peace proposals had been discussed "only with our allies."

"As for a league of nations," the colonel added, "I should regard a proposal to include Germany, Austria and Hungary in it as on a level with the proposal to stop burglary and murder in New York by inviting all the burglars and gunmen to join the police force."

Peace terms, the colonel said, should include "economic barriers against Germany so that she cannot flood our markets with her hoarded products."

"In the next place," he said, we should secure complete justice for all our allies. We ought not to be content merely with autonomy for the subject races of Austria and Turkey.

After declaring that Germany should give up Alsace-Lorraine and north Schleswig, that all subject peoples should be free from Teutonic overlordship and that England and Japan should keep the provinces they have conquered, the colonel continued: "In other words we should fight this war through to a finish. We should put an absolute end to the threat of German world dominion and instead of merely talking about future justice we should bring justice now to all the nations oppressed by Germany and her allies."

Clerk Allen, of the registration board, has been applying himself rather closely for several days past in numbering Lincoln county registrants according to the recent drawing in Washington. This number establishes the priority of the men subject to call and it is therefore essential the list be absolutely correct. As there are nearly 3,000 names, the task has not been light.

Drew Caissons When Horses Died.

There are many tales of heroism in the fighting in France. One concerns a number of boys, belonging to an artillery group, which as a result of constant fire found itself short of ammunition. The lads had volunteered to make a three-mile trip down the road, every inch of which was shell-swept, in order to bring back a fresh supply.

Before the return was completed the horses attached to their caisson wagon were all killed. That circumstance, however, failed to deter the Americans from laboriously dragging the wagon themselves.

American citizens in this community

(From the New York Times, July 17, 1916)

They Got There In Time

They are in the fight with every muscle, every faculty of their minds, every drop of their American blood

We Must Lend the Way They Fight— We Must Buy Bonds to Our Very Utmost!

You have read in the daily news the story of what one detachment of American artillerymen did on the Marne when their ammunition was running low.

Every shell in that caisson meant a speedier winning of the war—all the horses were killed—but the shells got there just the same. And they got there in time.

Where shall we draw the limit when we read what they are doing over there? Now is the time to put our full strength into it. Our strength, coupled with the power of our Allies, will win. Let us not delay even a few months.

Let us get there in time to hasten the victory—to save the lives of our sons.

How can any one of us, back here at home, set any limit to the help we ought to give---for victory? And we must get it there in time!
