Archie Discoe Dies.
Archie Discoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Discoe, who live near Hignell, who was sent to the Rahe automobile school in Kansas city last summer for special training, died at five o'clock Tuesday morning. Death was due to pneumonia which followed an attack of influenza, and with which he had suffered for about eight weeks. Up to within a few days of death, he was reported improving, and the news of his death therefore came as a shock to the parents.

The body arrived Wednesday evening in this city, services were held at the Baptist church yesterday afternoon and interment made in the McPherson national cemetery.

The deceased was twenty-two years of age and was held in high esteem by the people of the Bignall section where he had lived practically all his life.

Railroad Men in Trouble.
In the county court Tuesday Wm. St. Germain and Ernest McFadden, both employes of the Union Pacific and both married, were bound over to the district court on the charge of assaulting Olive Strade, a girl under fifteen years of age. The assault is charged to have occurred November 26th, and the evidence at the hearing was to the effect that both men were more or less under the influence of liquor. Bond was placed at $1,000 each, which they secured.

Let "his" gift to YOU be a HOOVER!

The days are not long enough, it seems, for you to attend to your multiplied duties. You must adopt more short-cuts.

Most tiresome, time-consuming and disagreeable is the weekly cleaning day. Let it be largely replaced by a few moments daily use of a HOOVER.

Then dirt will never accumulate in your rugs and carpets. Housecleaning will be much simplified.

Though THE HOOVER glides so lightly that a three-year-old can use it, it beats out imbedded grit, sweeps up stubbornest-clinging litter of all kinds and dustlessly withdraws the dirt thus dislodged.

THE HOOVER
electric suction sweeper.

Only THE HOOVER beats, sweeps, suction cleans. Only The Hoover cleans THOROUGHLY. When he gives you a HOOVER he gives you the BEST.
