DON'T BE A "HUMDRUM" WAKE UP AND MAKE A NOISE.

Nothing is more exciting, more interesting, than life. Nothing is more gratifying than satisfying the ambitions of life. And all ambitions in life which the committee is considering lead to success. At the same time life can be the quintessence of melancholy, of dullness. What can be more discouraging than to plod through an existence which promises no success and offers no opportunity for progess. Henry B. Walthall, in the Paralta Play, "Humdrum Brown," which will be shown at the SUN Theatre Saturday, represents a man who is drudg-ing just such a path. "Humdrum," the role played by Mr. Walthall is a bank employee about thirty years old. He has been born and raised, in the little, unprogressive community of Norwalk and has reached the end of the road of opportunity which the small town offers. He can go no further, he cannot allain success-for he is bound to the town by domestic obligations. Yet, within "Humdrum's" soul burns the fire of ambition, the desire to accomplish semething-for several reasons. One of these reasons is Alicia Boothe, to whom he has been engaged for seven years. She has waited all this time while "Humdrum" plodded and struggled to save and achieve so that they can be married. And then a series of disheartening misfortunes descend upon "Humdrum" like a curse. Bad luck is followed by worse. He loses his savings, his position and even the trust of his fiances. And with straining ears, and chattering lips, the town listens and talks-they had been engaged seven years! "Humdrum," dazed but determined, leaves for the city and the world of opportunity. Here occurs the crisis of his tife. The small town tied in, "Humdrum" sees a vast future spread before him and his nature $42.15 undergoes an utter transformation. And the future; what it holds for him and the thrills he gets make a picture drama that enthralis and captivates all those who see it . Miss Mary Charleson, who plays the leading feminine role in Mr. Walthall's Paralta Plays, appears in the part of "Alicia Boothe.

With the American Army of Occu pation. The food situation among the German people according to reports gathered by investigating officers is not serious at the present time. The officers find however, in their investi-gations that the food supply in the ities will be exhausted on or about February one and that in the country among the farmers a little later. The potato crop upon which much has seen placed has resulted in a partial failure and real hardship may result the cutting off of this food. Wages of workingmen are abnor-

Cattle Buying for Swift & Company

Swift & Company buys more than 9000 head of cattle, on an average, every market day.

Each one of them is "sized up" by experts.

Both the packer's buyer and the commission salesman must judge what amount of meat each animal will yield, and how fine it will be, the grading of the hide, and the quantity and quality of the fat.

Both must know market conditions for live stock and meat throughout the country. The buyer must know where the different qualities, weights, and kinds of cattle can be best marketed as beef.

If the buyer pays more than the animal is worth, the packer loses money on it. If he offers less, another packer, or a shipper or feeder, gets it away from him.

If the seller accepts too little, the livestock raiser gets less than he is entitled to. If he holds out for more than it is worth, he fails to make a sale.

A variation of a few cents in the price per hundred pounds is a matter of vital importance to the packer, because it means the difference between profit and loss.

Delay Works a Hardship.

An appeal to bear with patience the delays of demobilization constitutes the new year's greeting by Secretary of War Baker, which was read to the soldiers at all army camps Wednesday. The secretary's message was in effect an answer to Senator Chamberlain's charges in the senate that the war department has no comprehensive systematic plan of demobilization and that the administration is as unprepared to return the soldiers to civil life as it was to send them to war.

Complaints that the war department demobilization process is not produc ing the desired results are numerous It is alleged that there are thousands of soldiers with jobs awaiting them in civil life who are encountering SAID TO BE BAD, great difficulties in obtaining discharge, while thousands of others re cently discharged soldiers have been unable to find employment With outdoor work scarce in the next few months, Nathan A. Smyth assistant director general of United States employment service, said it may become necessary to release only those soldiers who have peacetime positions waiting for them
