HARRY MOORE DIES OF INJURIES RECEIVED SUNDAY.

Harry Moore, well known passenger brakeman of this city, died at an Omaha hospital at nine o'clock yesterday morning following an accident which befell him at Julesburg Sunday forenoon. Mr. Moore, who was one of Conductor Hastings' crew, was coming east on No. 8 and while attempting to board the train as it pulled out of the depot slipped on icy ground and his left leg fell across the rail, crushing it below the knee. He was given first aid, and upon arrival here was given further care by physicians, joined by his wife and taken to Omaha.

Upon arrival at Omaha he was taken to a hospital, but the shock was too great for his system to stand and he passed away yesterday morning.

The remains were brought home last night and the funeral will be held from the Episcopal church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Rev. Franklin Koch conducting the service.

Mr. Moore was a splendid man, very courteous and agreeable and popular with every one. His tragic ending is deeply regretted by all.

CRYSTAL TONIGHT

COL. ROOSEVELT PASSES AWAY YESTERDAY MORNING.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, former president of the United States, and one of the most picturesque and forceful figures ever known in American public life, died in his sleep at his world-famous country home at Sagamore Hill, shortly after four o'clock yesterday morning.

The immediate cause of Colonel Roosevelt's death was pulmonary embolism or lodgment in the lung of a clot from a broken vein. It was stated by one of physicians. Rheumatism is believed also to have affected his heart.

A complication of diseases, born of an exploring expedition into the wilds of South America, is believed to have been the remote cause of death.

During the last eighteen months the former president has been treated by the foremost surgeons and medical men of the country, but the malady baffled the skill of the scientists.

It is believed that the death of his youngest son, Quentin, who was killed in France a few months ago during a battle in the air with German battle pilots affected the former president deeply and hastened his end.

The funeral will be held tomorrow, a home service at 12:45 p. m., and at 2 p. m. at the Episcopal church in Oyster Bay.

More Laborers Arrive.

Only an American girl—a girl of today—yes, a girl of the present hour—could win a magnificent victory and refuse the reward; could win one man's life and another's heart. Mae Marsh does this and much more in her newest drama "The Glorious Adventure" a story of today at the Keith Wednesday and Thursday.
