American War Mothers' Club.
 At the mothers meeting held at the federal building Tuesday evening, February 11th, a letter was read from Mrs. Edith Metlin, of Omaha, stating that The American War Mothers' Club had been incorporated for a period of 50 years, and had now become a national organization.

Mrs. Metlin is State organizer for Nebraska.

The club adopted the name of American War Mothers, and to comply with the national by-laws, the following addition to the previously elected officers was made: Mrs. Woodhurst, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Evans, Historian and Mrs. Elder, Parliamentarian.

The Corresponding Secretary was instructed to apply for a charter, and a committee was appointed to formulate a set of by-laws governing the local organization.

At this meeting the membership was increased to sixty-two.

Meeting Slimly Attended.
 Iwing to the stormy weather and counter attractions, the meeting at the Franklin auditorium, called to discuss ways and means of furnishing amusement for our boys and girls, was rather slimly attended. The meeting, presided over by O. E. Elder, was opened with community singing, led by W. H. Munger and followed with mighty good and interesting talks by Supt. Tont, Rev. Koch and A. W. Shilling along the lines of providing entertainments for young folks.

Another meeting will be called in the near future at which it is hoped the attendance will be larger.

In the meantime the roll is open for signatures at the business house of Wm. Lyman, 514 Locust street.

Annual Ball Next Tuesday.
 The Woman's Catholic Order of Foresters will give their seventh annual ball at the K. C. hall next Tuesday evening. These dancing parties were inaugurated by the Foresters six years ago and each yearly event has been largely patronized by reason of the efforts made by the committee to see that each attendant had an enjoyable evening. Those who attend next Tuesday evening will find the splendid hall comfortable, the floor in good condition and the music by Donce's orchestra all that could be desired.

Forbes Appointed Chairman.
 Milton J. Forbes has been appointed chairman of Lincoln county's War Savings Committee for the year 1919, taking the place of Ray C. Langford, who so ably led our county in the War Savings drive during 1918. Mr. Forbes is rapidly completing his organization so as to be ready for the drive, plans of which will be issued from the state committee at an early date. The Tribune congratulates Mr. Forbes on his appointment and assures him of the same support that was given last year in helping to make the 1919 drive a complete success.

Card of Thanks.
 We hereby express our sincere thanks to friends, neighbors and fraternal societies for their many acts of kindness tendered us during the illness and after the passing away of wife and mother, and for the floral tributes.
