

NORTH PLATTE WILL HOLD AUTO SHOW APRIL 10-12

Members of the North Platte Automobile Association, which includes every dealer in the city, held a meeting last evening and unanimously decided to put on an auto show. The dates selected are Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 10th, 11th and 12th, and the place of holding the show will be the Lloyd opera house. This building is not as large as desired, but it is the largest obtainable. It is figured that in this building thirty-five cars can be displayed to advantage. All models of cars handled by local dealers will be displayed, and there will also be an exhibit of different makes of trucks.

Various committees were appointed last evening, and these committees began the preliminary work of their respective duties today. The show will be well advertised in the section between Kearney and Kimball, and it is aimed to make the affair big enough to attract people from all sections of that scope of country.

The several committees will hold meetings this week to work out the details, and in Friday's issue more will be said of this commendable move by the North Platte Automobile Association.

Wrestling Match this Evening.

Art Nellis, North Platte's wrestler, and Ben Guida, of Peetz, the champion wrestler of northeastern Colorado, will meet on the mat at the hall in the firemen's building this evening. It will be a finished match and will no doubt prove exciting amusement for the large crowd which is expected to be present.

WAR MOTHERS ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Sixty or more returned soldiers and sailors of Lincoln county were entertained at the Masonic hall last evening at a chicken dinner by the War Mothers, an organization which has for its purpose the welfare of the boys who return from the service. The dinner was nicely prepared and well served, and that it was enjoyed was evidenced by nearly all, if not all, accepting the invitation for a second plate of chicken, biscuits, potatoes, peas, salad and other dishes, with ice cream and cake as the concluding course.

At the close of the meal, with Lieut. Geo. N. Gibbs as toastmaster, a number of toasts were responded to by the boys present, some of whom had been in the front lines in the fighting sectors overseas. The speakers included a number of laughable experiences in their tales of camp and field life.

The occasion was a most happy one and the guests of the evening bid the War Mothers good-night conscious of the fact that they had been royally treated.

If anyone is inclined to criticize the work of the schools this year they should remember the conditions under which the schools are working. According to Supt. Tout, last Friday he had one janitor and five teachers absent on account of sickness and 387 pupils were out for one reason or another. Most of the sickness is temporary and Friday was an exceptional day. However this has been a record year for sickness and the school work has suffered as a consequence.

Every express brings what's new in women's and misses' suits, coats and Dresses at The Leader Mercantile Co.

CHARLES TIGHE PASSES AWAY THIS MORNING

Charles Tighe, manager of the Rexall drug store, and stockholder in the North Platte Drug Co., one of the city's most prominent and most popular young business men, died at his apartments in the Twinem building at seven o'clock this morning following an attack of bronchial pneumonia of about two weeks' duration. Last Friday Mr. Tighe had so far recovered that the attending physician allowed him to sit up, as all were certain the danger point had been passed. Unfortunately he took a relapse Friday evening, and he continued to grow worse until the spirit took its flight.

Charley Tighe was a splendid young man whom North Platte can ill afford to lose, for it is on such as he that the future welfare of the city depends. Though young in years he had shown an unusual degree of business and executive ability; he was progressive, broad minded, and the personification of integrity.

Born in North Platte, he attended the public schools and passed through the eighth grade. Pharmacy appealed to him and he entered the Schiller drug store, where he remained for a year or two; when he again resumed school work, graduated and going to a university graduated as a pharmacist. Returning home the North Platte Drug Co. was organized and the Rexall and Nylall stores taken over. In this organization Mr. Tighe was the potential factor; the active head and the manager of the larger of the two stores. Under his management the company proved very successful in earning money for the stockholders and giving real service to the patrons.

The death of Charley Tighe brings regret to all acquaintances, and to the young wife, and to the father and mother and other relatives condolences are extended.

STREITZ'S PLATFORM IS BRIEF; MEANS WHAT HE SAYS

Candidate-for-Mayor Streitz, in seeking the suffrage of the people, does not waste words in announcing his platform. It is mighty brief, but it covers the situation as well as though he devoted a column to the purpose. This is how he stands:

"North Platte, March 17, 1919. If elected Mayor I will do my utmost to suppress bootlegging, social vice gambling, and to promote everything that will tend to make our city prosperous, progressive and clean. Furthermore, I MEAN IT."

A. P. STREITZ.
For thirty years a leading business man for several terms a member of the board of education, and for some time past the secretary of the Lincoln County Chapter of the Red Cross, perhaps no man in North Platte is better known than A. P. Streitz. During his forty years residence in North Platte his record has been straight, the name of Streitz has never been tarnished, and by reason of his integrity and fair-dealing, he enjoys the confidence of every acquaintance.

Mr. Streitz says he will do his utmost to make North Platte a cleaner city and promote its welfare, and in making these promises he emphasizes his sincerity by capitalizing the words "I mean it." However, this emphasis is unnecessary, for those who know him best will vouch for his sincerity of purpose.

The Young Married People's Club will hold a dance at the K. C. hall Thursday evening.

Ralph Coates came up from Maxwell Sunday and left yesterday for Lincoln.

Building operations have begun. The H. & S. Agency is erecting two houses on south Pine. Goodman & Buckley have started two on west Sixth. Riley Warren will start building in the Fourth ward this week, a Mr. Morrill will begin the erection of a home in Taylor's addition in a day or two and a Mr. Bisner has let the contract for a house in the southwest part of town.

A. C. Burton, who has been a disturbing element in the Fourth ward for several weeks, is now in jail, placed there on a complaint issued by his wife. Burton has acted strangely of late, and the opinion is general among the people of his residence neighborhood, and his wife as well, that he is suffering from a nervous breakdown and is somewhat off mentally. It is probable that he will be taken to a private sanitarium for treatment.

Who Fills Your Prescriptions?

Ins and big outlets, we are able to maintain all the drugs prescribed by doctors, stocks are kept constantly moving, resulting in absolute freshness and quality, and we permit no substitution. Last but not least, the prescription is filled by a Registered Graduate Pharmacist.

A prescription bearing the Gummere-Dent label indicates that it has been filled exactly as the Doctor wrote it. Try us.

How important is your prescription? The health of the patient and success of the physician depends largely upon who fills your prescription. If the drugs used are not fresh and full strength; if the druggist does not carry a full line and has to substitute; if the man who fills the prescription is not thoroughly experienced and capable, resulting in improper compounding, then the patient will not derive the full benefit no matter how competent the attending physician.

A prescription filled at GUMMERE-DENT'S measures up to the necessary essentials. Because of our large bus-
