

DECORATOR AND DECORATIONS FOR AUTO SHOW ARRIVE

There arrived on train No. 19 yesterday morning a motor truck load of decorations for the North Platte auto show, and with them arrived the Omaha decorator who will transform the Lloyd opera house into a dreamland of electrical effects. Assisting the Omaha decorator is Guy S. Popejoy, who has been selected as manager of the auto show, and who is an artistic decorator himself, and these two are assisted by a number of others. A diagram of the hall had been sent the decorator, and he had worked out his decorative schemes prior to his arrival, and within fifteen minutes after reaching here he was at work. The decorations promise to exceed in beauty anything ever seen in the state outside of Omaha or Lincoln.

The North Platte dealers, under whose auspices the show is given, have received all the new models of the make of cars they handle, and the exhibit of cars, as well as trucks, will be exceptionally large. Low priced, medium priced and high priced cars will be on exhibition, and the man or woman who plans buying a car will have an opportunity of seeing many models and of having the good points of each fully explained.

The evening entertainments provided for attendants at the show will be put on by high class talent, including the Musical Walkers, the Peerless Trio of Sioux City, the orchestras of the city and special vocal quartettes, the whole forming a program more than worth the price of admission.

The management of the show has received word from surrounding cities that big delegations will be present, and farmers in the country tributary to the city have announced their intention of spending at least one day at the show. The management is therefore confident that the attendance of out-of-town people will be very large.

The grand opening of the show will be at 2:30 next Thursday afternoon when school children will be admitted free. Thursday night is North Platte night, Friday is everybody's day and evening and Saturday will be farmers' day. The show will close Saturday evening.

We are prepared to show you authentic new styles in hats for Easter. Smart flower and tailor trims. Also a splendid assortment in every new handed hat. Villa Whittaker at Block's.

The branch train failed to reach this terminal last night. When it reached Oshkosh on its return trip last evening it encountered snow drifts that it could not negotiate and was forced to tie up for the night.

Wanted—Girl for general household work. Mrs. J. J. Halligan, 394 west Second street.

BAPTIST CHURCH HELD ITS ANNUAL MEETING FRIDAY.

The annual meeting of the Baptist church was held Friday evening with over two hundred and twenty-five members present. The Ladies' Auxiliary served a delicious chicken dinner and music was furnished by the Leininger quartette by and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Jones with violin and vocal solos. Mayor-elect Stretz gave an address emphasizing the necessity of co-operation by all churches for the common ends and insisting that while the city is due for a moral clean up, it is especially incumbent upon the churches to look after the wholesome entertainment and occupation of the time of the growing young people.

Officers elected were: Deacons, John Mang and J. K. Browning; trustees, Wesley Rose, J. K. Browning and Lewis Jergensen; treasurer, N. E. Loudon; financial secretary, E. K. Murphy; president of ladies' auxiliary, Mrs. E. Garrison; superintendent of the Sunday school, Mrs. J. L. Loudon; president of the B. Y. P. U., Joe C. Miller.

The financial reports showed all current expense, bills and floating indebtedness paid and a balance in the treasury. For all local purposes $4,250.00 have been raised and paid in and for benevolences, including the special subscription for the Grand Island college, $2,877.00 have been raised, making a total of over $7,000 for all purposes raised during the year.

A budget providing for a substantial advance in every line of work was adopted for the ensuing year. A $300 increase in salary was voted the pastor.

In spite of flu conditions, inroads by death and absence of many young men in the army there has been sustained an increasing spiritual and church life and several have been added by conversion and baptism.

FORMER NORTH PLATTER IN JAIL IN KANSAS

Frank Haynes formerly connected with the Commercial Hotel in this city who was arrested in Illinois by Arthur Hoagland on the charge of forgery and escaped from Hoagland by jumping from a moving train while passing through Iowa, is now in a jail in a Kansas town. Such at least is the information imparted in a letter received last night by Chief of Police Jones. The letter was turned over to Sheriff Salisbury who will make an investigation. The letter stated that Haynes, whose real name is Cox, attempted to escape from a Kansas officer, was shot and slightly wounded, captured and placed in jail. The charge on which he was arrested was not stated in the letter. The letter also stated that when Haynes married his wife she was worth fifty thousand dollars, practically all of which he has squandered. The wife and three children, one born since Haynes left town, are now living with relatives in Illinois.

Memorial Trees.

The Twentieth Century club voted at a recent meeting to plant trees along the Lincoln Highway on Arbor Day, April 22d, as a memorial for each Lincoln county boy who lost his life in the service. Below is a list of names so far as we have been able to get them, and it is incomplete. Will the parents and friends of these boys, whether they were in service in this country, or sent over seas, please notify the committee at once, giving name and rank, so that we may not fail to honor every boy who made the supreme sacrifice for his country. Noel Donegan, Coulter Elder, Lee Bird, Harry Burgner, Al Carrol, George Patterson, — Churchill, Don Duckworth, Archie Discoe, Otto Johnson, Paul Martin, Elmer Shaner, — Beck.
MRS. B. J. FRATER,
Chairman Committee.

Miss Himan Married.

Miss Elizabeth Himan and Lieutenant Earl Layton Ford were married at Cleveland Ohio, on Sunday, March 30th. The young couple left at once on a motor trip through the eastern states to New York, Philadelphia, Gettysburg and other places of interest. At the conclusion of their trip they expect to return here for a short visit with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Y. A. Hinman. This is another romance which grew out of the world war. Miss Himan went to Washington, D. C., at America's entrance into the war, to do war work. Lieutenant Ford was stationed at Camp Meade, just out of Washington. The young couple have not yet decided whether to return to Richmond, Va., where Lieutenant Ford practiced law before his enlistment, or to seek some new location.

Boy Scouts Council

A number of citizens interested in the Boy Scout movement in North Platte have called a mass meeting of men at the Franklin auditorium at 8:30 this evening for the purpose of forming a local council of twenty-five men which will represent every phase of life and interest. This council will have entire charge of the Boy Scout work in North Platte. It is desired to organize at least six troops of Scouts with from twenty to thirty boys in each troop.

All men interested in the welfare of the boys are urged to attend this meeting this evening.

Mrs. Abel Sells Cafe.

Mrs. Albert Abel, who opened the McCabe Cafe several weeks ago, sold the furnishings this morning to the Popejoy Brothers, who will at once take charge and conduct the business.

Mrs. Abel enjoyed a liberal patronage, but found that the business was not to her liking.

Kearney Knights Coming.

The members of Mt. Hebron commandery, Knights Templar, of Kearney, will upon invitation, pay a social visit to Palestine commandery of this city next Thursday evening. The visiting Knights will arrive on train No. 7 and return on a night train. The local Knights will tender their guests a banquet.

Con Scharmann, of the postoffice force, is expected home today from a trip to the Goshen Hole country in Wyoming.

Here's hoping that we may see you at The Leader Mercantile Co.'s during the auto show. You are surely coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Martin, who had been visiting their daughter, Mrs. E. E. Clark, left for their home in Beatrice this morning.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Curry and Mrs. Mary Elder left this morning for Litchfield to attend a meeting of the Kearney Presbytery.

Special showing of Millinery for auto show visitors. Miss Little in charge of the millinery department at The Leader Mercantile Co.'s.

Revenue Agent Olson, of Omaha, has been in town for a couple of days looking after matters pertaining to the income tax and lending assistance to corporations in making returns where such is needed. Accompanied by E. F. Seeberger, Mr. Olson went to Hershey yesterday to assist in making returns for the banks.

The Royal Neighbors will hold a regular meeting at the K. P. hall at 3 p. m. Wednesday.

Here's hoping that we may see you at The Leader Mercantile Co.'s during the auto show. You are surely coming.

There are yet a few cases of flu in town, but physicians no longer report them and no attempt is made to quarantine them. The disease caused a greater toll in North Platte than any disease we have ever had.

The auto show visitors are asked to not fail to visit the ready-to-wear department of The Leader Mercantile Co. All the latest creations in women's and misses' suits, coats, dolmans, capes, dresses, skirts and waists. You will find your style at the price you wish to pay.

It is a source of regret that there will be a conflict or attractions on the opening night of the auto show, though this conflict can to a certain extent be avoided if those who expect to attend "The Country Cousin" at the Keith visit the auto show before going to the theatre. Thursday night is North Platte night at the auto show and the management hopes to see a big attendance of town people.

Extra Rooms Wanted

Extra rooms are needed to accommodate visitors to the auto show. Those having rooms to rent for this purpose will please phone the Hotel McCabe.

CYCLONE STRIKES OMAHA EARLY SUNDAY EVENING

Heavy property damage, but few personal injuries of consequence resulted from the vicious tornado that swept across the western residence section of Omaha Sunday evening shortly after 8 o'clock. Dundee and Clifton Hill suffered the greatest losses, many homes being unroofed and in some cases practically ruined.

It is remarkable that this twister swooped down upon the city at almost the same hour of the day of the week as the more disastrous storm of Easter Sunday, 1913, and nearly six years afterward.

Moreover, Sunday night's tornado entered Omaha at exactly the same spot as did its deadlier predecessor and in general followed the same path for a considerable distance.

About thirty-five dwellings were destroyed or damaged. The worst of the storm visited the city between Center and Leavenworth and Forty-ninth and Fifty-sixth streets.

Passengers were shaken up and excited when a street car was lifted from the tracks by the terrific wind at Forty-ninth and Dodge streets. No one was injured badly.
