A Ford car belonging to Albert Stearns which had been left standing on Fifth street Saturday night was purloined by Ted Pearsall and Albert Blakeman who drove it to Bignell. There they were joined by Harvey Runnells and on the return trip to town they ran the car in a ditch breaking a wheel. In this predicament they were found by Sheriff Salisbury who had started for Bignell after them. The boys were arraigned before Judge Woodhurst yesterday, given a lecture and placed on parole with Miss Annie Kramph as the person to whom they must regularly report their future conduct.
