VICTORY LOAN WILL BE FOUR AND A HALF BILLIONS

Washington, April 13.—Terms of the Victory loan were announced today by Secretary Glass. They are: Amount $4,500,000,000, over subscriptions to be rejected.

Interest, 4% per cent, for partially tax exempt notes, convertible into 3% per cent notes wholly tax exempt.

Maturity four years, with the treasury reserving the privilege of redeeming the notes in three years.

The 3% per cent notes to be issued later may also be converted subsequently back into 4% per cent notes.

The 4% per cent securities are to be exempt from state and local taxation, excepting estate and inheritance taxes, and from normal rates of federal income taxes, the 3% per cent securities are exempt from all.

The size of the loan was much smaller than had been anticipated by most financial observers, who looked for an issue of about $6,000,000,000, particularly in view of Secretary Glass' past statements that the loan would be five or six billion.

This will be the last Liberty loan, Secretary Glass explained, although there will be other issues of government securities to finance related war expenses. These will not be floated by popular campaigns.

None of the past issues of Liberty bonds are convertible into Victory loan notes, and there are no specific provisions in the terms of the Victory issue serving to maintain market prices on past issues.

TO ENFORCE PROHIBITION

WASHINGTON. Three thousand internal revenue agents working in specially arranged zones throughout the United States will enforce prohibition after July 1, according to plans announced by the revenue bureau.

Nearly 800 inspectors will be trained for the work, to be added to the force of 2,283 revenue agents already available for police regulations, and the machinery for enforcement will be in working order before the date when absolute prohibition becomes effective.

This force of special agents will be distributed among the districts where law violation is threatened to the largest extent and special attention will be paid to cities where revenue officials look for most persistent efforts to make whisky illegally.

In addition the revenue authorities plan to co-operate with local police and to leave the greater part of the enforcement work to these authorities in localities where the police appear efficient. Without such a plan the force of even three thousand federal agents would be insufficient to police the entire country.

Also manufacture of liquor for personal use will be equally illegal with the production for sale, revenue agents are expected to devote most of their time to the commercial traffic, and to leave the enforcement of the law against personal manufacture to local police.

COMING, KITTY GORDON, THE MAGNIFICENT

Kitty Gordon, the resplendent stage and screen star, will be seen tonight at the Sun theatre in "Adele," the latest and timely superpicture in which she appears as the star of the United Picture Theatres, Inc., presenting this international favorite in the title role of Adele, a young American woman who was among the first to volunteer her services as a Red Cross nurse in France.

The role is a fascinating and powerful one and is acknowledged to afford Miss Gordon additional opportunities of which she has taken full advantage, and to present the famous star in a new and refreshingly delightful phase, revealing heights of histrionic talent and success surpassing any previous offering of this remarkable star.

This latest production tells a thrilling story that appeals to every Red Cross worker and to the million homecoming, triumphant "doughboys," with its vividness of scene and realism of effect. Through it runs a fascinating love story, while one of the very pleasing features of the picture is the remarkable beauty of exterior and interior scenes.

Miss Gordon says of "Adele," "It is by far the most appealing and effective superpicture in which I have ever appeared."

Village Clerk David Johnson informs this writer that he received a letter from Omaha a few days ago in regard to the transmission line. The writer said that the North Platte Light & Power Co. had not given up the Maxwell and Brady proposition, but their time had been so taken up with other matters that they had not yet had time to investigate the matter, but assured Mr. Johnson that they were interested.

Dwight Pulliam returned home from the army last Sunday. He has been in California most of his enlistment, and was discharged at the fort near Cheyenne last week. His mother, Mrs. Florence Pulliam, of Jamestown, Colorado, accompanied him here.

(From the Hershey Times.) Bob Houston topped the market at Omaha yesterday. Sixty-one hours at an average of $29.35 per hundred.

A telegram received from Otto Becker the first of the week stated he had arrived in New York. Otto was with a machine gun company in some of the hottest fights in the war and when he gets home can probably tell us some real interesting things.

The Great Western Sugar Company shipped in five cars of steers the first of the week to feed. Field Manager Cady informs us they are better than the ones recently shipped were when shipped in here. On the market the last bunch brought an average of $200 a piece, about as fine stuff as was ever shipped out of here.

The road from the best dump at O'Fallons a mile and a half north is to be put in first-class shape. The Great Western Sugar Co. offered to give $1250 toward this end if Lincoln county would give a like amount. The offer has been accepted. This has always been a low sandy road but $2500 will make it a boulevard and the money goes to a good cause.

REPUBLICANS ARE URGED TO BOOST THE VICTORY LOAN.

Washington, D. C. April 14.—Chairman Will H. Hays, of the Republican National Committee, today issued a call to Republicans urging their united and effective support to the Victory Loan. While the call is publically issued to all Republicans, it was also sent directly and personally to all Republican national committeemen, state chairmen, all state organization workers, all county chairmen and all precinct committeemen and to all Republican newspapers, asking them to suspend all political activities until the success of the loan has been assured.

The text of the appeal reads: To the Republicans of the Nation: Again the call for the charge has sounded.

This is not for the fighting men at the fighting front. For them the war is over. Their part is accomplished to their own everlasting honor and the glory of the nation, and no additional burden should be theirs.

But to the rest the real test has come. To those whose privilege it has been to form the second line, and to those credit it is recorded that they, too, attained every objective; to those from every class, creed and political faith, who acted in this unselfish co-operation which brought about the fighting men the support that made so much for the complete vindication of our institutions; to the men and women of America, who do not fail, has this call come.

Let us show to these fighting men who have returned how commands have been obeyed here. Let us send to the fighting men still abroad the message of no weakening. Let us show to the world that our patriotism is not that born only of extremities and stirred only by martial music, but the devotion which meets a duty in the firm determination of consecrated service, and performs it. And let us demonstrate to ourselves that we are worthy of the name American and the privileges of our citizenship.

Our first duty as Republicans today is that duty which we have never failed and never will fail to anticipate and discharge—our duty as Americans. Just as during the recent war we determined our every act by how we could do most for effective action, so now we will measure our every step by how we can contribute most to the nation's welfare.

To that end we will abandon other activities to aid in the Victory Loan until its success has been accomplished.

For this purpose let the Republican Press and every member of the Republican organization enlist in the Victory Loan drive. The national, state, county, city and precinct organizations of loyal working Republicans will enroll to a man in this service.

This is the nation's next great duty. It is our privilege to exhaust the possibilities in our same splendid support, with the knowledge that those who may oppose us in political strife are joining fully with us in this effort.

WILL H. HAYS, Chairman.

RURAL TEACHERS ARE NOT SATISFIED WITH CONDITIONS

The Kearney Hub says: Some rather startling statistics resulted from the questionnaire which Mrs. Kathryn McLaughlin, county superintendent, recently sent out to the teachers of the county. She asked each teacher if she were going to remain in the school during the coming year and if not why not. Her results showed a rather alarming condition of affairs, and since this county may be regarded as rather typical, it calls to attention the fact that the education of the youth of the United States is not so wonderfully provided for as has been complacently taken for granted.

Five teachers of the one hundred and twenty in Buffalo county state that they will remain in their present schools.

Twenty-four declare that they are leaving the profession for more attractive fields.

Nineteen state that they will continue teaching but are dissatisfied with their present positions.

Eighty-two of the one hundred and twenty questionnaires sent out were replied to, giving a rather complete idea of general conditions. Some of the teachers were still undecided, some were planning to attend school, but the great majority expressed dissatisfaction.

Small salaries, lack of boarding places and "enmity in the district" were the most common complaints. Several expressed their preference for teaching positions in towns rather than in the country.
