

1—Victory parade of the Guards in London, passing along the Strand. 2—Rear gondola of R-34, the giant British airship which will try to make the transatlantic flight. 3—Ruins of a church in Yaroslav, Russia, after a battle between the Red and White guards.

COBLENZ FEST HALLE USED BY Y. M. C. A.

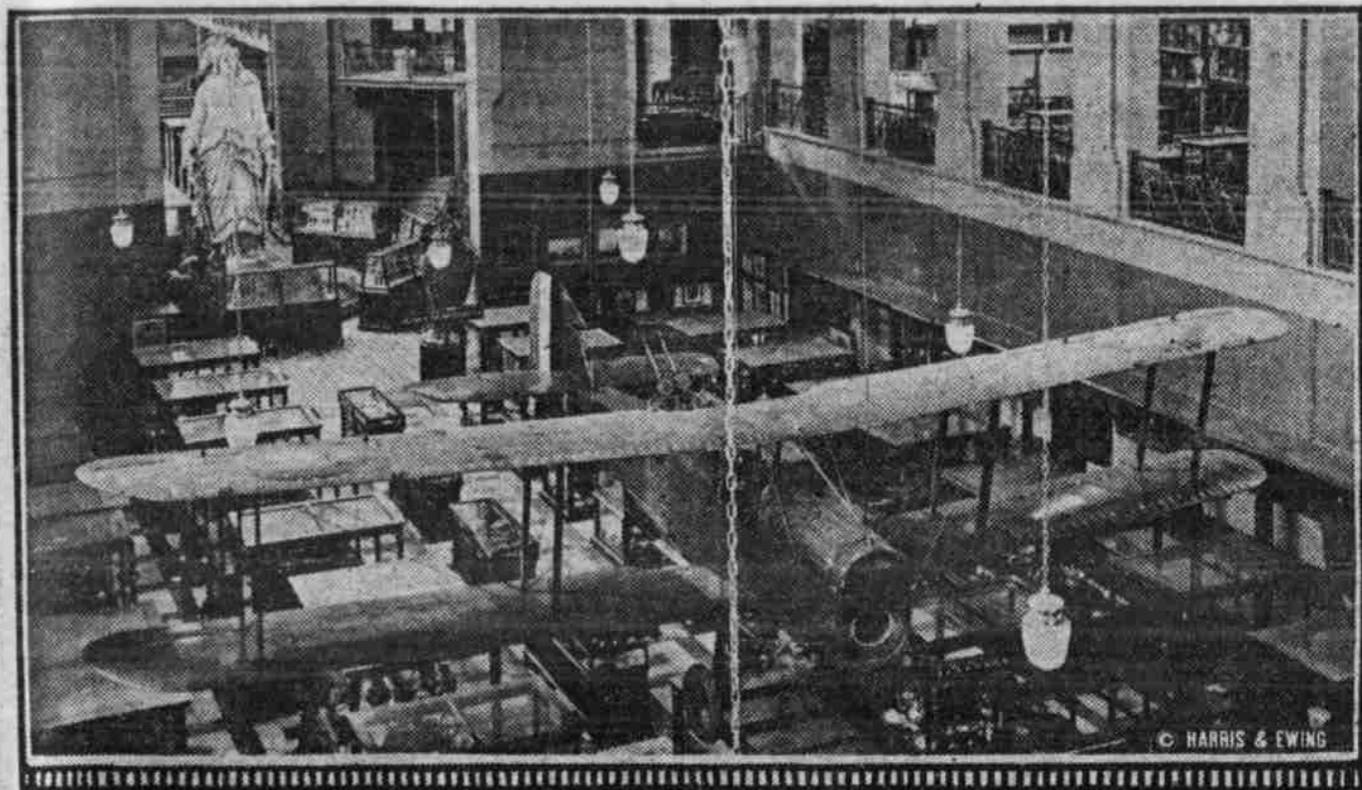

This famous Fest Halle of Coblenz has become the Y. M. C. A. hut of headquarters and in it are cared for the 8,000 men who come in daily on leave and those stationed in the city who have time on their hands.

AVIATION SALVAGE DUMP AT ST. CYR, FRANCE

Scene in the United States aviation salvage dump at St. Cyr, near Paris. The wrecked planes are brought there from the front and dismantled.

FIRST AMERICAN-BUILT BATTLE PLANE

The first American-built battle plane constructed in this country for the United States government has been placed on exhibition in the National museum in Washington. It is also the first plane built with a Liberty 12 motor. The machine has been used in more than 4,000 flights, has been in the air for more than 1,078 hours and has traveled more than 111,000 miles. More than 2,500 experiments have been made on it.

AUTOMATIC COW GIVES GOOD MILK

To fight the high cost of milk, the department of markets of New York, through an invention, is producing "Grade A" milk at ten cents a quart. There is little difference in the taste of the real milk and this milk and the food value is the same. It is made up of powdered milk, water and sweet butter.

GENERAL WOOD DECORATED

Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood photographed in Washington just after he had been decorated with the Distinguished Service Medal.

Capital Has Heaviest Mail.

The report of the postmaster of Washington shows that his city post office did more business during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1918, than all the post offices in any one of 29 states of the Union. The receipts for the year were more than $3,000,000, and the states that produced a smaller amount of postal revenue were Arizona, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Maine, Mississippi, Montana, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, West Virginia and Wyoming. The total receipts were an increase of over 53 per cent over the previous fiscal year.—Utica Press.

Edward's Best Thought.

Little Edward disliked to attend school, so one morning he thought he would play off sick. "What is the matter with you, Edward?" asked his mother. Not knowing a whole vocabulary of ailments to select from, on the spur of the moment he replied: "Why, my teeth itch."

LEUT. COM. P. N. L. BELLINGER

Lieutenant Commander Patrick N. L. Bellinger of the air station of the naval operating base at Hampton Roads and the Fifth naval district, may pilot the first United States naval seaplane in an effort to cross the Atlantic.

ELSIE VANDERBILT WEDS AGAIN

Eastern society was surprised recently by the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt and Lieut. Paul Fitzsimons, U. S. N. The bride was divorced from Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt several years before he went down with the Lusitania.

HUN MAIL CAR IS USED BY THE A. E. F.

This mail car, a trophy of war, surrendered by the Germans to the Americans, is now in the service between Paris and Coblenz, carrying correspondence for the Yanks of the American army of occupation in Germany.

BOLSHEVIK LEADERS WHO WERE EXECUTED

These bolshevik leaders were arrested at Ekaterinburg, Russia, by the Czechs, and 24 hours after the picture was taken they were executed. Left to right they are the bolshevik secretary, the town commissaire, the chief justice and a girl stenographer.

What You Are.

Never lose sight of the fact that what you do has a close, vital connection with what you are. You cannot do your best without growing better. You cannot give conscientious, painstaking attention to the most trivial task without having more reason to respect yourself. And, on the other hand, careless work, grudging work, work that is scamped or slighted, means a corresponding loss of fitness.—Girl's Companion.

Because It Is Familiar.

If we had to travel a long distance to see the starry night sky, how we should envy the people who had money for the trip! The world is full of beauty on which we look with indifferent eyes just because it is familiar. Look about you as if you were seeing things for the first time and you will be astonished to discover how much beauty you can see, without even taking a street car.—Girl's Companion.