

LINCOLN COUNTY SHORT $89,150 ON ITS LOAN QUOTA

The Tribune regrets that it cannot say to the world that Lincoln county subscribed its quota on the Victory loan, but the cold facts are that when war ceased our patriotism began to ooze, and as a result we have fallen short of our quota by a sum that does not really look well in print. The quota for the county was $476,200, and the total amount subscribed was $387,050.

The North Platte district oversubscribed its quota by somewhat over $15,000, the total subscriptions being $253,150 while the quota for the district was $237,800.

County Chairman Temple furnishes The Tribune with the following statement:

The subscriptions by banks are as follows:

Bank Name	Quota	Sub.
First National Bank, City	$110,000	$110,000
Platte Valley St. Bank, city	63,650	63,650
McDonald State Bank, city	64,300	43,850
Bank of Brady, Brady	27,850	12,900
Brady St. Bank, Brady	23,200	12,000
1st. St. Bank, Dickens	8,700	2,400
Bank of Lincoln Co., Hershey	39,900	11,850
1st Nat'l Bank, Hershey	14,400	7,000
Maxwell State Bank, Maxwell	20,450	18,250
Farmers State Bank, Sutherland	24,700	29,350
American State Bank, Sutherland	14,650	10,000
Citizen's Security B'k., Wallace	27,300	6,100
Farmers State Bank, Wallace	6,800	2,150
Bank of Wellfleet, Wellfleet	21,300	10,000
Gt. Western Sugar Co. U. P. R. R. Co.	35,650	6,000
B. & M. R. R. Co.	250	35,650
P. F. E.	1,750	250
Nat. Refinery Co.	500	500
Total	$476,200	$387,050

The subscriptions of the Great Western Sugar Co., the Union Pacific employes, the B. & M. R. R., the P. F. E. and the National Refining Co. were credited Lincoln county but not taken through the banks.

The only bank in the county that went over its quota was the Farmers State Bank of Sutherland, and as the other bank in this locality was unable to raise their full quota, this bank put the district over the top by buying $4,650 over its quota. If every bank took as much interest in the credit of their community as this bank, Lincoln county would be over the top in this loan.

Earl H. Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Barrett, who recently moved to town from a farm near Maywood, arrived home last week. While in service he was stationed at Camp Funston in charge of horses and mules.

Will Entertain Omaha Visitors

At the conclusion of the ride the visitors will visit our merchants individually and at ten o'clock they will be escorted to the Elks' home where they will be entertained at a smoker, during which a specially prepared program of original stunts will be given.

Extend Welcome to Newlyweds.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Doebke, who were married a week ago, were given a hearty welcome Saturday evening by their friends and neighbors at their home twelve miles northwest of town. The event was in the nature of a surprise to the newlyweds, and the invaders numbered by actual count 180. A fine supper was served, and a merry hour or two was spent at the Doebke home, after which everybody went to the barn on the Wisner farm where a dance was held. Mrs. Doebke was formerly Miss Blanche Gummere, a popular young lady of the valley.

In urging a war for the extermination of the yellow peril the ladies of the Twentieth Century club have the well wishes of The Tribune, but they have grappled with a condition that only stout hearts would undertake. The Tribune man has been fighting dandelions for thirty years; he has dug out thousands of the plants and plucked hundreds of thousands of the blooms to keep them from going to seed, and while this work has had some effect, his lawn is not, and never has been, free of them by a long shot. Through united action king dandelion might be forced to abdicate, but only by united action, and this can hardly be expected when so many lot owners are indifferent.

Every day builders are taking on contracts for new houses and the number now in course of construction is really surprising. It now looks as though the estimate of one hundred new residents this year is too low.

MAKE USE OF PRINTER'S INK

Federal Official Urges Necessity of Campaign of Advertising to Attract Attention of Consumers.

"Advertise your business. I owe all my success to printer's ink."

This was the language of P. T. Barnum, and that he was a conspicuous success is generally admitted.

Something of the same sort seems to have struck Washington. Roger W. Babson, director of education service, labor department, has issued a statement urging a campaign of advertising, saying in part: "Prosperity ultimately depends upon the consumer. If there is not a market for goods they will not be produced."

Only by advertising can buying power be stimulated, but advertising does stimulate buying power and brings a very direct return to the man who advertises."

It is sound advice. It is also timely.

Advertising is the chief auxiliary in trade. It is not the road to success, but success itself. Advertising is to the business man what machinery is to the mechanic.

How can a man know what you want unless you ask for it, or what you have to sell unless you advertise it?

"My advice to the merchant," says Mr. Babson, "is this: For your own interest and for the good of the country, increase the advertising appropriation you have made for this year. If it is $20,000, make it $25,000; make it more if you can."

And all must bear in mind that the prosperity of the country means the prosperity of the individual.—New York Telegram.

C. A. Robinson Passes Away.

Charles A. Robinson, living on the John E. Evans ranch north of town died last night of tuberculosis of the lungs. The inception of the trouble occurred six or eight months ago when the deceased met with an auto accident in which he suffered a broken collar bone and the fracture of several ribs. The broken ribs, either when the accident occurred or when the fractures were reduced, pierced or disturbed the lungs, and a gradual wasting away of the latter occurred.

Mr. Robinson had lived in Lincoln county since boyhood. He was the son of Mrs. Jane Dickinson, who will better be remembered as the wife of "English Billy." He leaves a wife, the only son having died following an operation at a local hospital a year or two ago.

Arrangements for the funeral have not at this time been made.

Wallace Tuttle in Concert.

A crowd which filled the main auditorium and annex at the Christian church heard Wallace Tuttle in one of his popular concerts last night. With Miss Lucille Lindenmeyer assisting at the piano, Mr. Tuttle gave a program ranging from songs of Grand Opera to the simple love ballads of the day. He demonstrated his wide knowledge of the song world and the selections he made were timely. While his solos "They Shall Not Pass" and "The Americans Come" thrilled the heart with their message of war spirit—so likewise his "Don't Let Us Sing Any More About War—Just Let Us Sing of Love" won great applause.

"Skinney" was a favorite of the evening with the young folks, just as "Grandfather's Clock" carried the older ones back to the days when everybody knew the song.

The program was a marked success in every way. Mr. Tuttle will sing tonight, and Mr. Knowles will speak on "The Conversion of a Military Man."
