Put it in the Bill.
The habitual customer, Mr. Feedwell, would often condescend to chat with the head waiter. One day he said very seriously:

"Look here, I don't often complain, but this pepper of yours is half peas!"

"Oh, no!" said the head waiter indignantly. "I see to that myself. We grind our own pepper."

"But I tell you it's half peas," said the customer, "and I'll prove it! P-e-p-p-e-r—half 'p's.' You see!"

And he laughed until the tears came. The head waiter smiled weakly, and went to get the customer's change. He returned still smiling. The customer glanced through his change.

"Threepence short," he said.
"I think not, sir," said the waiter.
"Sixpence for peas, sir. Now—half peas!"—London Tit-Bits.

Judge J. S. Hoagland is exhibiting with just pride a diamond-set Grand Army of the Republic badge which was presented to him by the G. A. R. encampment at York this week. These badges are given upon retirement from the position of department commander, which office was held during the past year by Judge Hoagland. The badge is certainly a beautiful one.

Petitions are being circulated over the county asking the county commissioners to call a special election to vote on the question of building a new court house. Nine hundred signatures are necessary. The levy will be five mills on the dollar of valuation of taxable property. Not a particularly heavy burden for anyone and there is no question but what Lincoln county needs a new court house.—Brady Vindicator.
