

Build Now!

The American home owner is the man who has discovered that thrift is something more than hoarding money. The family "sock" and the old china teapot may be chuck full of dimes and quarters, or five and ten dollar gold pieces, and yet thrift may be unknown to the head of the house. He may be only a miser.

Thrift not only saves intelligently but it puts savings to work; not only does it save a dollar, but it puts that dollar where it will thrive, where it can earn and labor for the welfare and comfort of its owner.

On account of suspended building operations during the war, the United States now needs almost a million homes. This means that rents are high. If you do not own a home you must pay tribute to the hard necessities which have brought about a scarcity of homes.

Railroads Loss Over Billion

To finance the railroads for the balance of this year and to pay the government's operating loss for sixteen months up to the month, an appropriation of $1,200,000,000 has been asked of congress by Director General Hines. More may be sought later if the government continues to lose heavily.

Approximately $488,000,000 represents the government's loss in operating the railroads from January 1, 1918, when private control ended, to May 1. This is the difference between the sums for which the government is obligated to pay the roads on contracts and the net actual operating income from operations.

U. S. TROOPS IN GERMANY TAKE PRECAUTIONARY STEPS

As a precautionary measure, the U. S. troops in the Coblenz Bridgehead have been transferred from the west to the east side of the Rhine river, and have been stationed at various military vantage points, ready to go into action immediately. The troops which have already been transferred number from twenty-five to thirty-five thousand, and are composed of units from the divisions now stationed in this region, the First, Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth.

Thus a vital state of war has already been declared on the German border, as a forerunning of what will occur if the Germans refuse to sign the peace treaty.

WHEN BEATTY PUT TO SEA

Like Drake of Old, Commander of British Fleet Left the Tennis Court for Battle.

Scarcely had I arrived at Aberdeen when I learned that some unusual report had come in from the sea, Lieutenant Hunter writes in the World's Work. The admiral had arrived before me and continued to talk on his open wire for some moments. The fleet at once dropped from four to two and one-half hours' notice for steam and shortly afterward was making preparation for departure at a moment's notice. When Sir David came out to the tennis court he suggested that I need not answer the recall signal from my ship as expected, but return with him. "I don't believe they intend to shove off without me," he added. We started our gun, but over the wire the admiral had thrown the scent into the kennels and already the leaders of that great pack, so apparently listless a short hour before, were bristling and snarling on the new-found trail.
